M3 Capital Partners LLC and Subsidiaries

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2022

1. General Information

M3 Capital Partners LLC (“M3”) and its wholly owned subsidiaries, M3 Capital Partners Limited (“M3 Ltd.”), M3 Capital Partners II Limited (“M3 II Ltd.”), M3 Capital Partners (HK) Limited (“M3 HK Ltd.”), M3 Capital Partners Gestora de Recursos Ltda. (“M3 Ltda.”) and M3 Global Advisors LLC, were formed for the purpose of providing global real estate investment banking services, including provision of financial advisory services. M3 is a Delaware limited liability company registered as a broker-dealer in the United States and has an office in Chicago. M3 Ltd. maintains an office in London and holds a securities license through its subsidiary M3 Capital Partners (UK) LLP (“M3 LLP”). M3 II Ltd. maintains an office in London and its subsidiary M3 Principal Investment (UK) LLP provides investment management services. M3 HK Ltd. is a licensed securities dealer in Hong Kong and maintains an office in Hong Kong and a subsidiary in Beijing, China. M3 Ltda. maintains an office in São Paulo. M3 does not take a position in any securities (other than investment securities) and does not hold customers’ securities at any time.

Evergreen Investment Advisors LLC (“EIA”) is a registered investment advisor under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and a wholly owned subsidiary of M3 which was established to manage real estate private equity funds. M3 has formed other subsidiaries to hold minority stakes in these various real estate private equity funds, and these subsidiaries are owned, in part, by noncontrolling investors.

The Class C and Class D interests in M3 are owned by management members of M3. The primary difference between the Class C and the Class D units is the allocation of earnings. Specifically, for each series of Class D units, the Company must achieve a performance objective (the “Hurdle Threshold”), as defined in the Sixth Amended and Restated LLC Agreement, to become eligible for distributions. In the event of liquidation, members’ equity will be distributed in accordance with the terms of the Sixth Amended and Restated LLC Agreement, which are based primarily on ownership percentages.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”) and are presented in U.S. dollars.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the results of M3 and its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Company”). All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. Noncontrolling interests are treated as a separate component of equity, with any changes in the ownership interest (in which control is retained) accounted for as capital transactions.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all cash on hand, demand deposits with financial institutions and short-term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents. The Company invests its cash primarily in deposits and with commercial banks. At times, cash balances held at banks and financial institutions may exceed federally insured amounts. The Company believes that credit risk is mitigated by depositing cash in or investing through major financial institutions. Cash and cash equivalents have no restrictions or credit issues. Money market funds are considered to be Level 1 securities.

M3 Capital Partners LLC and Subsidiaries

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2022

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable is comprised primarily of amounts due to the Company for fees earned on financial advisory transactions and investment advisory activities, including reimbursable expenses. As of December 31, 2022, accounts receivable also includes sales proceeds to be collected in connection with the sale of certain subsidiaries which occurred in 2021 (refer to note 3).

Receivables are recorded when the related revenue is earned. The receivables are regularly reviewed in accordance with Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2016-13, Financial Instruments - Credit Losses (Topic 326) - Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments, and if collectability issues arise, a provision for credit losses would be established. As of December 31, 2022, a provision for credit losses of $2,621,472 had been established. Approximately $2.5 million of the provision represents the full cost basis of one specific receivable related to a financial advisory transaction earned by a Hong Kong subsidiary and both the receivable and related provision are included in note 5, Discontinued Operations. The provision has been established based on the current financial conditions faced by the owing party. While the Company anticipates an improvement to those conditions, there is uncertainty surrounding the collectability of the receivable such that the provision was recorded as of December 31, 2022. The establishment of this provision was not influenced by past events or future forecasts and has not arisen due to any change to the Company's accounting policies.

Investments

The Company's investments are comprised of interests in real estate private equity funds, the primary focus of which is generally to invest in or alongside product focused real estate operating companies located in the United States and internationally. These interests typically have redemption restrictions, which may include specified redemption windows and/or approval by all fund investors. In accordance with GAAP, investments are carried at estimated fair value as determined by the funds' managers, based on assumptions made and valuation techniques used by the manager. Changes in fair value are recorded as unrealized appreciation on investments in the consolidated statement of operations and comprehensive loss. The investments held by the funds are not readily marketable, and the estimated fair values could materially differ from the fair values received by the funds in connection with disposition of an investment. A portion of such investments was received in settlement of incentive fees earned by the Company, as described in note 3.

Fixed Assets

Fixed assets are recorded at cost. Depreciation is computed on the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of the assets (generally two to ten years).

Liabilities

Expenses are accrued when they are reasonably estimable.

Leases

The Company accounts for leases under ASU No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842), as amended, which requires lessees to recognize most leases on the statement of financial position and to disclose key information about leasing arrangements.

The Company is a lessee in several noncancelable operating leases for office space and office equipment. The Company determines if an arrangement is a lease, or contains a lease, at inception of a contract and when the terms of an existing contract are changed. The Company recognizes a lease liability and a right of use (ROU) asset at the commencement date of the lease. The lease liability is initially and subsequently recognized based on the present value of its future lease payments. The discount rate is the implicit rate if it is readily determinable; otherwise the Company uses its incremental borrowing rate. The implicit rates of the Company's leases are not readily determinable and accordingly, the incremental borrowing rate is utilized, based on the information available at the commencement date for all leases. The Company's incremental borrowing rate for a lease is the rate of interest it would have to pay on a fully collateralized basis to borrow an amount equal to the lease payments under similar terms and in a similar economic environment, generally obtained from local financial institutions. The ROU asset is subsequently measured throughout the lease term at the amount of the remeasured lease liability (i.e., present value of the remaining lease payments), plus unamortized initial direct costs, plus (minus) any prepaid (accrued) lease payments, less the unamortized balance of lease incentives received, and any impairment recognized. Lease cost for lease payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

The Company has elected, for all underlying classes of assets, to not recognize ROU assets and lease liabilities for short-term leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less at lease commencement, and do not include an option to purchase the underlying asset that the Company is reasonably certain to exercise. Lease costs associated with short-term leases are recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Also, the Company made an accounting policy election by class of underlying asset, to account for each separate lease component of a contract and its associated non-lease components as a single lease component.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue from contracts with customers includes financial advisory fees, management and incentive fees, and related income from the reimbursement of expenses. The recognition and measurement of revenue is based on the assessment of individual contract terms. Judgment is required to determine whether performance obligations are satisfied at a point in time or over time; how to allocate transaction prices where multiple performance obligations are identified; when to recognize revenue based on the appropriate measure commensurate with the satisfaction of the performance obligation by the Company under the relevant contract; and whether constraints on variable consideration should be applied due to uncertain future events.

The Company provides financial advisory services. Financial advisory fees are recognized at the point in time that performance pursuant to the contractual arrangement is completed (the closing date of the transaction, or upon completion of certain tasks) or the contract is cancelled. Retainers and other fees received from customers prior to recognizing revenue are reflected as liabilities.

The Company provides investment management services on a daily basis. The Company believes the performance obligation for providing investment management services is satisfied over time because the customer is receiving and consuming the benefits as they are provided by the Company. Fee arrangements are based on a percentage applied to the customer's assets under management. Fees are received quarterly and are recognized as revenue at that time, as they relate specifically to the services provided in that period, which are distinct from the services provided in other periods.

Incentive fees are payable to the Company as additional consideration for its investment management services. The Company receives fees that vary based on a managed fund achieving specified performance benchmarks or contractual hurdles over a contractual performance period. These fees are earned once returns have exceeded these specified performance measures. These incentive fees are considered variable consideration, as the uncertainty is dependent on the value of the assets at future points in time as well as meeting a specified hurdle rate, both of which are highly susceptible to factors outside the Company's influence.

Incentive fees for managing real estate private equity funds are recognized once it is probable that a significant reversal will not occur. Estimates for incentive fees payable on an annual basis are recorded at year-end, as the uncertainty associated with this consideration is resolved upon receipt of payment. Incentive fees recognized during the year are primarily related to performance obligations that have been satisfied during the year. Estimates for non-annual incentive fees, which may be payable at certain future dates, are not recorded until they become payable, as there is significant uncertainty surrounding the expected fee amounts.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2022

Distributions received from investments are recognized as income when earned and include both dividend income and realized gains.

Other income is comprised primarily of interest income and consulting services. Revenue for consulting services is recognized at the time the services are provided, in accordance with the related contracts.

Receivables from customers were approximately $46.4 million at December 31, 2022.

Reimbursement Income

Expenses which are reimbursed by customers are recorded as reimbursement income in the consolidated statement of operations and comprehensive loss at the time the related revenues are recorded.

Other Comprehensive Loss

Other comprehensive loss for the Company consists of foreign currency translation adjustments which have been recorded as a component of equity. Subsidiaries with functional currencies of Euro, British pounds sterling, Hong Kong dollars, Chinese yuan, or Brazilian reais translate their financial statements into U.S. dollars. Assets and liabilities are translated at the exchange rate at the end of the period. Income and expenses are translated at the daily spot rate. Gains and losses resulting from translation are included in accumulated other comprehensive loss as a separate component of members' equity.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

3. Related Party Transactions

EIA

EIA manages a real estate private equity fund, in which M3 is a minority investor through its subsidiary entities. For the year ended December 31, 2022, EIA earned approximately $8.5 million in management fees. In 2022, EIA also earned expense reimbursements of approximately $18.4 million, which is included in reimbursement income in the consolidated statement of operations and comprehensive loss. As of December 31, 2022, approximately $6.6 million due from the real estate private equity fund to EIA is included in accounts receivable on the consolidated statement of financial position.

FCP

On November 17, 2021, Flins Capital Partners GmbH ("FCP") and five Luxembourg subsidiaries of the Company were sold to an unrelated third party. The overall terms of the sales agreement include approximately 20.3 million Euros ($21.6 million) which is included in accounts receivable on the consolidated statement of financial position to be paid in 2024. Additional amounts may be payable to M3 in 2024 based on certain earn-out and valuation provisions related to ongoing financial performance of the sold entities and related Atrium funds.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2022

Deferred payments of approximately $5.2 million (net of offsetting receivable of approximately $2.8 million) are accrued in deferred compensation payable on the consolidated statement of financial position, and these deferred amounts may increase as the earn-out and valuation provisions become realizable.

M3

Included in accounts receivable on the consolidated statement of financial position is $898,363 of tax payments made on behalf of certain members.

Incentive Fees

The annual incentive fee payable by a fund (the “Evergreen Fund”) managed by EIA is based on the operating-income distribution yield of the Evergreen Fund, and calculated as a defined percentage of excess distributions (beyond a defined threshold yield) paid to the Evergreen Fund’s majority investor. Under the terms of the Evergreen Fund’s LLC Agreement, incentive fees are paid through the issuance of units in the Evergreen Fund (“Retained Units”). Such units are redeemable at issuance for cash upon prior notification and then on an annual basis at specified redemption dates.

Corresponding units which are indexed to the value of outstanding Retained Units (the “Tracking Units”) entitle their holders to any corresponding income distributions which the Retained Units receive from the Evergreen Fund. Retained Units and Tracking Units were first issued in 2015 in connection with an incentive fee payout, and further issuances of both are expected as future incentive fees are paid by the Evergreen Fund. Tracking Units will be redeemed and settled in cash by the Company either upon termination of employment, or on specified annual dates when liquidity is offered. The Retained Units are reflected in investments, and the corresponding Tracking Units are reflected in deferred compensation payable on the consolidated statement of financial position. Ongoing changes in fair value of the Retained Units are recorded as realized and unrealized appreciation on investments in the consolidated statement of operations and comprehensive loss. Equivalent offsetting changes in the fair value of the Tracking Units and distributions of income are recorded as deferred compensation in the consolidated statement of operations and comprehensive loss.

In 2022, an annual incentive fee previously accrued by the Company of approximately $9.8 million was paid by the Evergreen Fund. The Company elected to receive payment through a combination of approximately $5.9 million of units redeemed at issuance for cash and $3.9 million of Retained Units. The Company elected to retain approximately $2.2 million of cash, and the balance of $7.6 million was distributed to members and employees of the Company in recognition of the services provided by such personnel. This was accomplished by distributing the remaining $3.7 million of cash and issuing approximately $3.9 million of Tracking Units.

An estimated incentive fee of $11.5 million from the Evergreen Fund was recognized by the Company during 2022 and is included in incentive fees in the consolidated statement of operations and comprehensive loss and accounts receivable on the consolidated statement of financial position. The Company expects to receive this incentive fee in 2023, and may elect to receive either cash or units in the Evergreen Fund as consideration. As of the date of the consolidated financial statements, the Company expects to distribute this fee amount to members and employees similar to the incentive fee received in 2022, as described above. As such, the amount is included in deferred compensation expense in the consolidated statement of operations and comprehensive loss, as well as in deferred compensation payable on the consolidated statement of financial position.

4. Strategic Agreement

In January 2016, a strategic agreement (the “Agreement”) was entered into between M3 HK Ltd. and an existing financial advisory client (the “Strategic Client”) based in Singapore, for the provision of services by M3 HK Ltd. and its affiliates to act exclusively to provide financial advisory services to the Strategic Client. The Company also continues to provide financial advisory services to other clients. The Company receives fees from the Strategic Client for the provision of its services under the Agreement which are comprised of annual fees and success fees. Additionally, in consideration of the Strategic Client engaging M3 HK Ltd. and its affiliates on an exclusive basis, the Company may pay an annual amount (“Annual Payment”) to the Strategic Client, which is calculated based on the net profits of the financial advisory business of the Company.

Under the terms of the Agreement, the Company has accrued $13,110,496 as the Annual Payment due to the Strategic Client, which is included in accrued compensation and other accrued expenses on the consolidated statement of financial position and in other expenses in the consolidated statement of operations and comprehensive loss.

5. Discontinued Operations

On July 28, 2022, M3 entered into a Sale and Purchase Agreement to sell certain wholly owned subsidiaries to an unrelated third party (the “Transaction”). These subsidiaries operate certain financial advisory services which the Company provides. While the transaction has not closed yet, the Company evaluated the appropriate accounting criteria and determined that the potential sale of those certain wholly owned subsidiaries met the criteria to be classified as held for sale as of December 31, 2022. Further, the Company evaluated and determined that the sale met the discontinued operations accounting criteria. As such, the Company has reclassified certain assets and liabilities on its consolidated statement of financial position as of December 31, 2022, and reclassified certain revenues and expenses on its consolidated statement of operations and comprehensive loss for the year ended December 31, 2022, as further described below.

The Transaction is anticipated to undergo a closing within the first half of 2023. Contemporaneous with the Transaction closing, the Agreement (see note 4) will be terminated.

8. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company has obligations as a lessee for office space, vehicles, and other office equipment with initial noncancelable terms in excess of one year. The Company classified these leases as operating leases. When the Company is reasonably certain to exercise renewal options, the optional periods are included in determining the lease term, and associated payments under these renewal options are included in lease payments. The Company's leases do not include termination options for either party to the lease or restrictive financial or other covenants. Certain of the Company's office space leases require it to make variable payments for the Company's proportionate share of the building's property taxes, insurance, and common area maintenance. These variable lease payments are not included in lease payments used to determine lease liability and are recognized as variable costs when incurred.

The components of lease cost for the year ended December 31, 2022 are as follows:

Operating lease cost	$1,594,737
Variable lease cost	387,553
Total lease cost	$1,982,290

Operating lease right-of-use assets of $3,018,823 and operating lease liabilities of $3,254,585 are reported on the consolidated statement of financial position as of December 31, 2022.

Maturities of lease liabilities under noncancelable operating leases as of December 31, 2022 are as follows:

Years ended December 31,
2023	$ 1,755,732

Thereafter	-
Total payments	$ 3,433,428
Present value adjustment	(178,843)
Present value of net minimum lease payments	$ 3,254,585

Rent expense is recognized on a straight-line convention, under which contractual rent changes are recognized evenly over the lease term. As of December 31, 2022, the weighted-average discount rate used to determine the lease liabilities was 4.09% and the weighted-average remaining lease term was 2.46 years.

The Company has made capital commitments of $12.38 million and 462,000 Euros (equivalent to $492,567 as of December 31, 2022) to related-party real estate private equity funds. As of December 31, 2022, $5,823,117 of these commitments had been contributed to the funds and is included in investments on the consolidated statement of financial position. Under the Company's organizational documents, its officers and directors are indemnified against certain liabilities arising out of the performance of their duties to the Company. In addition, in the normal course of business, the Company enters into contracts with its vendors and others that provide for general indemnification. is unknown as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Company. However, based on experience, the Company expects the risk of loss to be remote.

9. Income Taxes

As a limited liability company, M3 is not subject to U.S. federal income taxes. Taxable earnings of M3 flow through to the members. M3 Ltd., M3 II Ltd., M3 HK Ltd., M3 Ltda. and other subsidiaries situated in Luxembourg were subject to corporate taxes calculated using the income tax rates in effect under existing legislation. The 2022 statutory UK tax rate applicable to M3 Ltd. was 19%, while the Hong Kong statutory tax rate applicable to M3 HK Ltd. was 8.25% for the first HK$2 million of profits and 16.5% on the remaining profits. The 2022 Chinese statutory tax rate applicable to the Beijing subsidiary was 2.5%, the Brazilian statutory rate applicable to M3 Ltda. was 34% and the Luxembourg statutory rate applicable to existing and former subsidiaries situated in Luxembourg was 24.94%.

Total income tax expense for the taxable subsidiaries of M3 was $1,826,994 for the year ended December 31, 2022. This is comprised of current income tax expense of $2,433,333 and deferred income tax benefit of $606,339. The deferred income tax expense is a function of temporary differences occurring during the year (items which are treated differently for tax purposes than for financial reporting purposes) and the utilization of previously recognized deferred income tax assets. Temporary differences are due primarily to differences in depreciation timing between financial reporting and tax methods.

As of December 31, 2022, an accrual for income taxes of $216,927 and a deferred tax liability of $2,209 are included in other accrued expenses, an accrued refund of $467,784 is included in accounts receivable, an accrued refund of $20,130 is included in prepaids assets and a deferred tax asset of $1,067,732 is reflected in other assets on the consolidated statement of financial position.

The authoritative guidance on accounting for and disclosure of uncertainty in tax positions (Accounting Standards Codification Topic 740, Income Taxes) requires management to determine whether a tax position of the Company is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination, including resolution of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits of the position. For tax positions meeting the more likely than not threshold, the tax amount recognized in the consolidated financial statements is reduced by the largest benefit that has a greater than fifty percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement with the relevant taxing authority.

The Company files tax returns as prescribed by the tax laws of the jurisdictions in which it operates. In the normal course of business, the Company is subject to examination by federal, state, local and foreign jurisdictions, where applicable. As of December 31, 2022, the tax years that remain subject to examination by the major tax jurisdictions under the statute of limitations are from the year 2016 forward (with limited exceptions).

10. Reserve Requirements and Net Capital Requirements

M3 is subject to the Uniform Net Capital Rule under Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities Exchange Act, which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital. M3 utilizes the aggregate indebtedness method permitted by Rule 15c3-1. As of December 31, 2022, M3 had net capital of $3,750,122 which exceeded minimum required net capital by $2,587,551.

11. Fair Value Measurements

Investments

The Company holds investments in real estate private equity funds, which are stated at fair value in the consolidated financial statements in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures ("ASC 820"). This guidance defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements.

The investments held by the funds are not readily marketable, and the estimated fair values are determined by the funds' managers based on various methods including discounted cash flows, direct capitalization and earnings multiples. The Company uses its pro-rata share of NAV, as determined by the funds' managers, as its measure of fair value for interests in real estate private equity funds. The Company has determined that NAV was computed in a manner consistent with the measurement principles of investment company accounting, and therefore, no adjustments were made to NAV. As of December 31, 2022, $65,849,953 of investments in real estate private equity funds are included on the consolidated statement of financial position.

Deferred Compensation

The Company recognizes increases/decreases in deferred compensation expense based upon the performance of investments in real estate private equity funds, due to the fact that Tracking Units (refer to note 3) issued to employees/members are indexed to the performance of certain investments in real estate private equity funds. The performance of the investments is measured at fair value in accordance with fair value measurements information described above.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To Board of directors and management of M3 Capital Partners LLC

We have reviewed M3 Capital Partners LLC's assertions, included in the accompanying M3 Capital Partners LLC Exemption Report, in which the Company stated that:

- (1) The Company does not claim an exemption under paragraph (k) of 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3, and
- (2) The Company is filing its Exemption Report relying on Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5 because the Company limits its business activities exclusively to (1) placement agent in private securities offerings (effecting securities transactions via subscription); (2) non-exchange member arranging block trades in real estate based securities publicly traded on major stock exchanges; (3) financial advisory services to clients with respect to strategic business transactions (i.e., receiving transaction-based compensation for identifying potential merger and acquisition opportunities for clients); and (4) registered offerings only on a "best efforts" basis with respect to corporate debt and/or equity securities, and/or limited partnership interests (such transactions are effected via subscription), and the Company (1) did not directly or indirectly receive, hold, or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers; (2) did not carry accounts of or for customers; and (3) did not carry PAB accounts (as defined in Rule 15c3-3) throughout the year ended December 31, 2022 without exception.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with the provisions of Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's assertions. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's assertions referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5.
