CAPITAL MANAGEMENT OF THE CAROLINAS, LLC

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2021

1. SUMMARY OF OPERATIONS AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Operations - Capital Management of the Carolinas, LLC (the "Company") is a limited liability company and operates as a registered broker-dealer primarily involved in the distribution of mutual funds to North Carolina local governments and public authorities. The Company does not take title to, or control of, any securities. The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as a broker-dealer and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.

On March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization ("WHO") recognized COVID-19 as a global pandemic, prompting many national, regional, and local governments to implement preventive or protective measures, such as travel and business restrictions, temporary store closures, and wide-sweeping quarantines and stay-at-home orders. As a result, COVID-19 and the related restrictive measures have had a significant adverse impact upon many sectors of the economy, including the financial and governmental sectors in which the Company operates. The Company's operations have been considered to be essential in nature and have not been materially interrupted. As the situation continues to evolve, we are closely monitoring the impact of COVID-19 on all aspects of our business, including how it impacts our customers, vendors, and employees. The situation surrounding COVID-19 remains fluid; therefore, the extent to which COVID-19 may impact the Company's financial condition or results of operations is uncertain.

Use of Accounting Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of certain assets and liabilities and the reported amounts of certain revenues and expenses during the period. Accordingly, the actual amounts could differ from those estimates. Any adjustments applied to estimated amounts are recognized in the year in which such adjustments are determined.

Cash and Cash Equivalents - The Company considers all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents. The Company maintains cash deposits with financial institutions that at times may exceed federally insured limits. As of December 31, 2021, the Company had cash equivalents of $458,982 that were uninsured. Cash and cash equivalents are not carried at fair value, but at amounts that approximate fair value due to their short-term nature and generally negligible credit risk. On December 31, 2021, the carrying value and the estimated fair value of the cash and cash equivalents was $701,660.

Accounts Receivable and Revenues - The Company has entered into a contract with Fidelity Distributors Corporation (FDC) to distribute shares of the North Carolina Capital Management Trust (NCCMT) to North Carolina local governments and public authorities on a daily basis. The Company believes the performance obligation for providing distribution services is satisfied over time because FDC is receiving and consuming the benefits as they are provided by the Company. Fee arrangements are based on a percentage applied to the assets under management. 12b(1) distribution fees are recognized as revenue at the time that the services are provided. The Company extends credit to FDC for the 12b(1) distribution fees which are received monthly under its service agreement. Receivables normally represent one month of earnings. As of December 31, 2021, the Company considers such receivables, which are all from FDC, fully collectible, and therefore, no allowance for bad debts has been provided for in the accompanying financial statements. The beginning and ending balances of 12b(1) receivables were $377,602 and $388,214, respectively.

Property - Property is stated at cost. Depreciation and amortization are provided over the estimated useful lives of the related assets using accelerated and straight-line methods. Typical useful lives are as follows: computer equipment - 3 - 10 years; furniture and fixtures - 7 years; leasehold improvements - the lease term or the useful life of the asset, whichever is shorter; and office equipment - 5 - 7 years.

Income Taxes - For income tax purposes, the Company is considered to be a partnership. No provision for federal or state income taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements since the members include their allocable share of the Company's taxable income or loss in their respective individual income tax returns.

The Company records liabilities for income tax positions taken or expected to be taken when those positions are deemed uncertain to be upheld in an examination by taxing authorities. No liabilities for uncertain income tax positions were recorded as of December 31, 2021.

Income and Loss Allocations, Distributions and Contributions to/from Members - Allocations of income and losses, and distributions and contributions of cash to/from members are governed by the terms of the members' operating agreement.

Subsequent Events - In preparing its financial statements, the Company has evaluated subsequent events through February 2, 2022, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

2. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. As of December 31, 2021, the Company had net capital of $423,923 which was $405,737 in excess of its required net capital of $18,186. The Company's net capital ratio was approximately .64 to 1.

3. PROFIT SHARING PLAN

The Company sponsors a profit sharing plan which covers all full-time employees. Company contributions to the plan are made at the discretion of management. During the year ended December 31, 2021, contributions in the amount of $333,000 were either made to or set aside for the plan.

4. LEASE COMMITMENTS

The Company implemented new accounting and financial reporting standards for leases (FASB ASC 842. Leases) beginning January 1, 2019, using a modified retrospective approach (i.e., applied prospectively effective January 1, 2019, without revising prior periods). For operating leases, this standard required the recognition of right-of-use (ROU) assets and lease liabilities that had not been recorded as assets and liabilities under previous accounting standards. The Company elected to take the practical expedients under Topic 842-10-65-1(f) and (g), which must be consistently applied to all leases. As such, the Company's four leases on that date, previously accounted for as operating leases, continued to be accounted for as operating leases under the new standards. In addition, management had the option to re-evaluate lease terms and determined that the Company was reasonably certain to exercise an option to extend the lease term on its office lease until March 2025. The Company also elected to use the practical expedient allowed in Topic 842-10-15-37 to account for lease and nonlease components as a single lease component for all of its classes of leases.

To exercise the option to extend the term on the office lease for 3 years, the Company was required to notify the lessor in writing by June 1, 2021. During 2021, management decided not to exercise the option to renew the lease term for an additional 3 years. As a result, the office lease will expire at the end of March 2022 and any extension must be negotiated with the lessor. When the option to extend the lease term expired, the Company remeasured the lease liability and the right-of-use asset in accordance with ASC 842 by updating the incremental borrowing rate and recalculating the lease liability. This remeasurement resulted in the lease liability decreasing by $192,520, the right-of-use asset decreasing by $191,012, and the monthly lease expense declining from $5,648 to $4,536.

Provisions of the lease accounting standards require that leasehold improvements be amortized over the shorter of the useful life or the lease term of the leasehold improvements. As a result of the decision not to extend the lease term for an additional 3 years, the Company's leasehold improvements will be amortized over the period ending in March 2022 at the end of the existing lease term. Consequently, the monthly amortization of the leasehold improvement increased from $345 to $1,581.

The Company is a lessee in three noncancelable operating leases for office space and office equipment. The Company determines if an arrangement is a lease, or contains a lease, at the inception of a contract and when the terms of an existing contract are changed. The Company recognizes a lease liability and a ROU asset at the commencement date of the lease. The lease liability is initially and subsequently recognized based on the present value of its future lease payments. Variable payments, if any, are included in future lease payments when those variable payments depend on an index or a rate. The discount rate is the implicit rate if it is readily determinable or otherwise the Company uses its incremental borrowing rate. The implicit rates of the firm's leases are not readily determinable and accordingly, the Company uses its incremental borrowing rate. The Company's incremental borrowing rate for a lease is the rate of interest that the Company would have to pay on a collateralized basis to borrow an amount equal to the lease payments under similar terms and in a similar economic environment. The ROU asset is subsequently measured throughout the lease term at the amount of the remeasured lease liability (i.e., present value of the remaining lease payments), plus unamortized initial direct costs, plus (minus) any prepaid (accrued) lease payments, less the unamortized balance of lease incentives received, and any impairment recognized. Lease cost is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The Company has elected, for all underlying classes of assets, to not recognize ROU assets and lease liabilities for short-term leases, if any, that have a lease term of 12 months or less at lease commencement, and do not include an option to purchase the underlying asset that the Company is reasonably certain to exercise. Lease cost for lease payments associated with any short-term leases is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The Company has obligations for office space and office equipment with initial noncancelable lease terms in excess of one year. The Company classifies these leases as operating leases. In addition to its office lease which expires in March 2022, the Company also leases office equipment with lease terms expiring in January 2022 and February 2023. There are no options to extend the office equipment leases. The Company's leases do not include termination options for either party to the lease or restrictive financial or other covenants. Payments due under the lease contracts include fixed payments plus, under the company's equipment lease, variable payments. For example, under the copier lease the Company is required to pay for copies in excess of a predetermined amount. These variable lease payments are not included in the lease payments used to determine the lease liability and are recognized as period costs when incurred.

The ROU asset and lease liability balances were determined by calculating the total lease payments over the remaining expected lease terms and discounting the total using a weighted average discount rate of 3.31%, which is representative of the incremental borrowing rate of the Company. The weighted average remaining lease term is 9 months. No new ROU assets were obtained in exchange for operating lease obligations during the year. There were $262,430 in reductions to ROU assets resulting from reductions to operating lease obligations. $191,012 of this reduction was due to the decision not to exercise the 3-year extension of the office and the resulting recalculation of the lease liability and the right-of-use asset associated with the office lease. Amounts disclosed for ROU assets obtained in exchange for lease obligations and reductions to ROU assets resulting from reductions to lease obligations include amounts added to or reduced from the carrying amount of ROU assets resulting from new leases, lease modifications or reassessments.

As of December 31, 2021, maturities of lease liabilities for all noncancelable operating leases are $17,890 and $1,623, for 2022 and 2023, respectively, with total undiscounted lease payments of $19,513. The discounted lease liability on December 31, 2021, is $19,258 with imputed interest of $255. During the year ended December 31, 2021, the cash paid for amounts included in lease liabilities was $84,840 and the amount of the lease cost was $78,784. None of the lease cost was due to variable payments or short-term leases.

5. MEMBERS' EQUITY

The members of the Company are subject to an operating agreement which stipulates, among other things, that the Company has the right, but not the obligation, to purchase the equity interests of a member upon the occurrence of certain events. Events specifically mentioned in the operating agreement are a defaulting event of a member, the marriage of a member, or the termination of a marriage of a member. Generally, a member can dispose of an ownership interest without the approval of the Company's other members; however, no transfer of ownership may take place unless the transferee agrees in writing to be bound by the terms of the operating agreement. Certain operating actions taken by the Company require the consent of 75% of the percentage interest then held by the members.

6. CONCENTRATION OF REVENUE

During 2021, the Company maintained a service agent agreement with FDC with respect to the North Carolina Capital Management Trust (the "Trust") government portfolio which accounted for 99.2% of total Company revenue. The agreement for the government portfolio is renewable annually by approval of the trustees of the Trust. If approval is not obtained, the agreement expires 12 months after the date of the last approval. The trustees are scheduled to vote on the renewal in 2022. Management of the Company expects that the agreement will be renewed. Recertification of the Trust is normally conducted every five years by the North Carolina Local Government Commission. On February 1, 2022, the Local Government Commission extended the recertification of the Trust through March 2023.

7. SIPC MEMBERSHIP EXCLUSION

The Company has claimed exclusion from SIPC Membership for the calendar year ended December 31, 2021, under Section 78ccc(a)(2)(A)ii of the Securities Investor Protection Act of 1970.
