ITEM 4.01. CHANGES IN REGISTRANT'S CERTIFYING ACCOUNTANT

(a) On June 20, 2007, the President and CEO of Signature Leisure, Inc. (the "Company") received notice of the resignation of Cordovano and Honeck, LLP ("Honeck"), as its independent registered public accounting firm to audit the Company's financial statements. This resignation is effective immediately.

Honeck has resigned due to recent changes in rules promulgated by the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board. Under these changes, Honeck is precluded from auditing the financial statements due to the partner rotation requirements approved by the Securities and Exchange Commission as part of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. The Securities Act of 1934 was amended to include the following requirements:

“(j) AUDIT PARTNER ROTATION. - It shall be unlawful for a registered public accounting firm to provide audit services to an issuer if the lead (or coordinating) audit partner (having primary responsibility for the audit), or the audit partner responsible for reviewing the audit, has performed audit services for that issuer in each of the 5 previous fiscal years of that issuer.”.

Cordovano and Honeck LLP has provided audit services to Signature Leisure for the December 31, 2002 through 2006 calendar years. In each of these years, Mr. Cole Honeck and Mr. Sam Cordovano acted as the lead and reviewing partners, respectively. As a result, the firm will not be able to perform the December 31, 2007 audit of Signature Leisure.

Honeck's reports to the financial statements of the Company for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles.

Furthermore, for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 and the subsequent interim period through June 20, 2007, the date of resignation, there were no disagreements with Honeck on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statements disclosure or auditing scope or procedure which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Honeck, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement(s) in connection with its reports to the Company's financial statements for such years. During the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 and the subsequent interim period through June 20, 2007, there were no "reportable events" as such term is defined in Item 304(a) of Regulation S-B.

The Company has provided Honeck with a copy of this Form 8-K prior to its filing and has requested that it furnish the Company with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether Honeck agrees with the above statements and, if not, stating the respects it does not agree. Honeck has furnished that letter, and a copy of it is attached as Exhibit 16.1 to this Form 8-K.

The President and CEO of the Company has commenced the process to appoint a new independent registered public accounting firm to audit its financial statements.
