RETIREMENT PLAN ADVISORS, INC
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2020 AND 2019

1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS:

Retirement Plan Advisors, Inc. (the “Company” or “RPA, Inc.”) is an introducing broker-dealer registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and is regulated by Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The Company is an Illinois Corporation. Effective January 1, 2014, the Company became a wholly owned subsidiary of Retirement Plan Advisors Group, Inc. (“RPAG, Inc.”).

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

ESTIMATES AND ASSUMPTIONS

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Company considers all unrestricted demand deposits, money market funds, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less, and all certificates of deposit to be cash and cash equivalents.

FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company’s short-term financial instruments consist of cash, certificates of deposit, receivables, and current liabilities. The carrying value of these short-term instruments approximates their estimated fair values based on the instruments’ short-term nature.

SECURITIES AND FEES

Securities transactions and fees are recorded on the trade date as transactions occur.

COMMISSIONS RECEIVABLE

Commissions receivable, which represent commissions earned but not yet received are unsecured, generally requiring payment within 30 days of the month or quarter end and are stated at the amounts calculated based on customer contracts. Interest is not charged for unpaid receivables. All commissions receivable is considered collectible as of December 31, 2020 and 2019, and therefore the Company has not recorded an allowance for doubtful accounts.

YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2020 AND 2019

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES: (CONTINUED)

INCOME TAXES

Effective January 1, 2014, the Company is included in the consolidated federal income tax return filed by RPAG, Inc. In addition, on January 1, 2014 the Company filed a Qualified Subchapter S Subsidiary election and as a result the Company became a disregarded entity for income tax purposes and is no longer subject to income taxes. In lieu of corporate income taxes, the Company's taxable income is passed through to RPAG, Inc. who is taxed on the income.

In December 2019, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2019-12, Income Taxes (Topic 740): Simplifying the Accounting for Income Taxes, which amends the FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) by (1) removing certain exceptions to the general principles, and (2) clarifying and amending other current guidance. Under prior guidance, the consolidated amount of current and deferred taxes for a group that files a consolidated tax return was required to be allocated among the members of the group when those members issued separate financial statements. As amended, an entity is not required to allocate amounts of consolidated current and deferred taxes to a legal entity that is not subject to income taxes in the separate financial statements of such an entity. However, an entity may elect to do so for legal entities that are both not subject to tax and disregarded by the taxing authority. The amendments in this standard are effective for public business entities for fiscal years beginning after December 31, 2020. Early adoption of the amendments is permitted for public business entities for periods for which financial statements have not yet been made available for issuance. As allowed by the standard, the Company adopted all amendments in the standard for its December 31, 2019 financial statements. There was no material affect on the Company's financial statements as a result of adopting the amendments.

The FASB provides guidance for how uncertain tax positions should be recognized, measured, disclosed and presented in the financial statements. This requires the evaluation of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the Company's tax return to determine whether the tax positions are "more-likely-than-not" of being sustained "when challenged" or "when examined" by the applicable tax authority. Tax positions not deemed to meet the more-likely-than-not threshold would be recorded as a tax benefit or expense and liability in the current year. Management has determined there are no uncertain tax positions as of December 31, 2020 and 2019. RPAG, Inc. files U.S. Federal and Illinois income tax returns. RPAG, Inc. income tax returns for years prior to December 31, 2018 are no longer subject to examination. If applicable, the Company would recognize penalties and interest related to income taxes in income tax expense.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES: (CONTINUED)

COMMISSION INCOME

Commission income is recognized when earned and is based on a percentage of ongoing premium based contributions and/or a percentage of assets under management.

IMPAIRMENT OF LONG-LIVED ASSETS

The Company reviews long-lived assets, including intangible assets, for impairment whenever events or changes in business circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be fully recoverable, but no less than annually. An impairment loss could be recognized when the estimated future cash flows from the use of the asset are less than the carrying amount of that asset. To date, there have been no such impairment losses.

ACCOUNTS PAYABLE AND ACCRUED EXPENSES

Accounts payable and accrued expenses represent expenses incurred but not yet paid and generally require payment within 30 days of the month or quarter end.

3. CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK:

The Company maintains its cash in various deposit accounts in a bank that is a high credit quality financial institution. The balances at times may exceed statutory insured limits. The Company has never experienced any losses in such accounts and, based on the size and reputation of the depository institution, believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on such credit cash balances.

4. PPP LOAN:

The Company received a loan from Central Bank in the amount of $332,000 under the Paycheck Protection Program established by the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act. The loan is subject to a note dated April 16, 2020. The Company applied for and has been notified that $332,000 in eligible expenditures for payroll and other expenses described in the CARES Act and $2,039 in interest has been forgiven on November 11, 2020. Loan forgiveness in the amount of $181,214 and interest forgiveness in the amount of $1,113 were allocated to RPA, LLC in accordance with the Expense Sharing Agreement. The remaining amount of the loan forgiveness of $150,786 is reflected in other income in the accompanying statement of operations and interest forgiveness of $926 is offset against the interest expense recorded. No interest expense was paid in 2020.

YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2020 AND 2019

5. REVENUE RECOGNITION:

Significant revenue streams recognized by the Company from contracts with customers accounted for under ASC 606 for the year ended December 31, 2020 and 2019 are below:

	2020	2019
Commission income	$2,627,109	$2,931,292

The performance obligations described above relate to contracts that have an original expected duration of less than one year and all revenue is recognized at a point in time.

Commission income consists of override commissions received on participant deposits, assets under management, and fixed insurance, and is received based on contractual terms. The performance obligation for participant deposits and fixed insurance settles when the participants deposits are received, typically on a daily basis. The performance obligation for commissions received on assets under management is settled on the calculation date, typically the end of a month or quarter.

The Company has made no significant judgments in applying the revenue guidance prescribed in ASC 606 that affect the determination of the amount and timing of revenue from the related contracts above.

6. RETIREMENT BENEFITS:

The Company has a defined contribution retirement plan covering substantially all employees meeting certain eligibility provisions as defined by the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions to the plan are determined within the limits of the Internal Revenue Code at the discretion of the Board of Directors. The Company contributes 3% of eligible participant salaries. Contributions to this plan for eligible employees were $74,414 and $65,217 for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively, of which $44,925 and $34,353 was allocated to RPA, LLC in 2020 and 2019, respectively.

7. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS:

The Company is an introducing broker-dealer subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the Company to maintain “net capital” of 6-2/3 percent of “aggregate indebtedness” or $5,000, whichever is greater, as these terms are defined. In addition, the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital shall not exceed 15 to 1. Net capital and aggregate indebtedness change daily. As of December 31, 2020, and 2019, the Company had net capital of $871,496 and $418,535 and net capital requirements of $21,372 and $22,141, respectively. The net capital rule may effectively restrict the withdrawal of stockholders’ equity.
