The Managing Board hereby agrees to cause the Company to take such actions (or omit to take such actions) as shall be necessary or appropriate under this Agreement or otherwise in furtherance of the terms and provisions of this Agreement or any other matter relating to (i) the formation of this limited liability company and (ii) the operation of the Company's business. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Managing Board shall also cause the Company to abide by the terms of this Agreement.

Pursuant to such authority, the Managing Board may appoint individuals with such titles as it may desire, including as officers of the Company the titles of chairperson, president, one or more vice presidents, treasurer, assistant treasurer, controller, secretary, assistant secretary and chief financial officer, to act on behalf of the Company with such power and authority as specified herein. (i) Chief Executive Officer. The Chief Executive Officer shall have, subject to the supervision, direction and control of the Managing Board, the general powers and duties of supervision, direction and management of the affairs and business of the Company usually vested in the chief executive officer of a corporation, including, without limitation, all powers necessary to direct and control the organizational and reporting relationships within the Company. If at any time the office of the Chairman of the Board and the Vice Chairman of the Board shall not be filled, or in the event of the temporary absence or disability of the Chairman of the Board and the Vice Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer shall have the powers and duties of the Chairman of the Board.

(ii) The President. The President shall serve as chief operating officer and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be delegated to him or her from time to time by the Managing Board or the Chief Executive Officer.

(iii) The Vice Presidents. Each Vice President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may from time to time be assigned to him or her by the Managing Board, the Chief Executive Officer, or the President.

(iv) The Secretary and the Assistant Secretary. The Secretary shall attend meetings of the Managing Board and meetings of the members and record all votes and minutes of all such proceedings in a book kept for such purpose. He or she shall have all such further powers and duties as generally are incident to the position of Secretary or as may from time to time be assigned to him or her by the Managing Board, the Chief Executive Officer, or the President. Each Assistant Secretary shall have such powers and perform such duties as may from time to time be assigned to him or her by the Managing Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the President, or the Secretary. In case of the absence or disability of the Secretary, the Assistant Secretary designated by the Chief Executive Officer (or, in the absence of such designation, by the Secretary) shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Secretary.

(v) The Treasurer and the Assistant Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have custody of the Company's funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Company and shall deposit or cause to be deposited moneys or other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Company in such depositories as may be designated by the Managing Board. The Treasurer shall also maintain adequate records of all assets, liabilities, and transactions of the Company and shall see that adequate audits thereof are currently and regularly made. The Treasurer shall have such other powers and perform such other duties that generally are incident to the position of Treasurer or as may from time to time be assigned to him or her by the Managing Board, the Chief Executive Officer, or the President. Each Assistant Treasurer shall have such powers and perform such duties as may from time to time be assigned to him or her by the Managing Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the President, or the Treasurer. (vi) Controller. The Controller shall be responsible for maintaining the accounting records and statements, and shall properly account for all monies and obligations due the Company and all properties, assets, and liabilities of the Company. The Controller shall render to the Chairman of the Board or the President such periodic reports covering the results of operations of the Company as may be required by either of them or by law.

(b) Removal, Resignation and Filling of Vacancy of Officers. Subject to the rights, if any, of an officer under a contract of employment, any officer may be removed, either with or without cause, by the Managing Board at any time. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Managing Board. Any resignation shall take effect at the date of the receipt of that notice or at any later time specified in that notice; and, unless otherwise specified in that notice, the acceptance of the resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. Any resignation is without prejudice to the rights, if any, of the Company under any contract to which the officer is a party. A vacancy in any office position because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification or any other cause shall be filled in the manner prescribed in this Agreement for regular appointments to that office.

(c) Salaries of Officers. The salaries, if any, of all officers of the Company shall be fixed by resolution of the Managing Board.

Section 6.3 Reliance by the Managing Board. The Managing Board shall, in the performance of its duties, be fully protected in relying in good faith upon the records of the Company and upon information, opinions, reports or statements presented to such Managing Board by any other Person as to matters the Managing Board reasonably believes are within such other Person's professional or expert competence and who has been selected with reasonable care by or on behalf of the Company.

Section 6.4 Indemnification.

(a) General. To the extent that at law, or in equity, any member of the Managing Board or officer of the Company has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Company or the Members, such officer or member of the Managing Board shall have no liability whatsoever to the Company or any Member on account of such member of the Managing Board's or officer's status as a member of the Managing Board or officer or by reason of such member of the Managing Board's, or officer's acts or omissions in connection with the conduct of the business of the Company so long as such member of the Managing Board or officer has relied in good faith or the terms and provisions of this Agreement; provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall protect any member of the Managing Board or officer against any liability to the Company or the Member(s) to which such member of the Managing Board or officer would otherwise be subject by reason of any act or omission of such member of the Managing Board or officer that involves actual fraud or willful misconduct or any transaction from which such member of the Managing Board or officer derived improper personal benefit.

(b) To the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, the Company shall indemnify the Company's officers and the members of the Managing Board (each of the foregoing, an "Indemnitee") in connection with the management of the Company when the same shall be acting within the scope of their authority conferred by the provisions of this Agreement or pursuant to a duly authorized delegation of authority from the Managing Board; provided that no such indemnification shall be available in respect of (i) any loss or damage resulting solely from intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law by the Indemnatee or (ii) a transaction for which the Indemnatee received a personal benefit in violation or breach of the provisions of this Agreement. To the extent that an Indemnatee is successful on the merits or otherwise in any Proceeding (as hereafter defined), such Indemnatee shall be indemnified by the Company against all expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such Indemnatee or on such Indemnatee's behalf in connection therewith. If an Indemnatee is not wholly successful in such Proceeding but is successful, on the merits or otherwise, as to one or more but less than all claims, issues or matters in such Proceeding, the Company shall indemnify such Indemnatee against all expenses actually and reasonable incurred by him or on his behalf in connection with each successfully resolved claim, issue or matter. For purposes of this Section 6.4(b) and without limitation, the termination of any claim, issue or matter in such Proceeding by dismissal or withdrawal with or without prejudices, shall be deemed to be a successful result as to such claim, issue or matter. For purposes of this Section 6.4(b), "Proceeding" includes any action, suit arbitration, alternate dispute resolution mechanism, investigation, administrative hearing and any other proceeding (including any appeals from any of the foregoing) whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative that rise out of or otherwise relate to this Agreement and the terms hereof.

(c) Expenses incurred by an Indemnified Person in defending any matter which may be subject to indemnification hereunder shall be advanced by the Company from time to time prior to the final disposition of such matter upon receipt by the Company of a written undertaking by such Indemnatee to repay all amounts so paid or reimbursed by the Company if it is ultimately determined that that such Indemnatee is not entitled to be indemnified under the Agreement or under Delaware law. The written undertaking to repay shall be an unlimited general obligation of the individual making it, but need not be secured and shall be accepted without reference to financial ability to make the repayment.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the Company shall not be required to indemnify or advance expenses to any Indemnatee seeking indemnification or advancement in connection with a proceeding initiated by such Indemnatee against the Company unless the proceeding was authorized by the Managing Board.

(e) If the Company fails to indemnify or advance expenses to an Indemnatee entitled to indemnification or advancement of expenses hereunder within 20 days after a written claim therefor is received by the Company, such Indemnatee has the right to bring suit against the Company to recover the unpaid amount, and if successful, shall be entitled to recover expenses incurred in prosecuting the claim.

(f) The Company may indemnify and hold harmless the employees and agents of the Company from and against any claims, demands, damages, costs, expenses, liabilities or obligations, including reasonable expenses and reasonable attorney's fees, which arise out of or in connection with the actions by such employees or agents on behalf of the Company or which arise from the affairs of the Company on such terms and conditions as the Managing Board may determine.

(g) The Company shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a member of the Company or an officer, employee or other agent of the Company against any liability asserted against such Person's status as a member, officer, employee or other agent of the Company, as the case may be, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify such Person against such liability hereunder or under applicable law.

ARTICLE SEVEN ACTIONS BY MEMBERS

Section 7.1 Annual Meetings. The annual meeting of Members of the Company shall be held on such date, at such time and at such place within or without the State of Delaware as shall be determined by the Managing Board from time to time.

Section 7.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Members of the Company shall be held on such date, at such time and at such place within or without the State of Delaware as may be designated by the Chairman of the Board or by the Managing Board.

Section 7.3 Notice of Meetings.

(a) Notices of meetings of Members shall be in writing and shall state the place, date, and hour of the meeting, and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which a meeting is called. No business other than that specified in the notice thereof shall be transacted at any special meeting.

(b) Such notice shall either be delivered personally, mailed, postage prepaid, or delivered by any other lawful means to each Member entitled to vote at such meeting not less than 10 nor more than 60 days before the date of the meeting. If mailed, the notice shall be directed to the Member at his or her address as it appears on the records of the Company. Delivery of any such notice to any officer of a corporation or association or to any member of a partnership shall constitute delivery of such notice to such corporation, association, or partnership.

(c) Notice of any meeting of Members need not be given to any Member if waived by such Member in writing, whether before or after such meeting is held, or if such Member shall sign the minutes or attend the meeting, except that if such Member attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened, such Member shall not be deemed to have waived notice of such meeting.

Section 7.4 Adjourned Meetings. When a meeting is adjourned to another time or place, unless otherwise provided by this Agreement, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if the time and place thereof are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. At the adjourned meeting the Members may transact any business that might have been transacted at the original meeting. If an adjournment is for more than 30 days, or if after an adjournment, a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each Member entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 7.5 Quorum and Adjournment. Except as otherwise provided by law, by the Certificate of Formation of the Company, or by this Agreement, the presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the aggregate voting power of the Membership Interest issued and outstanding, entitled to vote thereat, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of Members. If such majority shall not be present or represented at any meeting of Members, the Members present, although less than a quorum, shall have the power to adjourn the meeting.

Section 7.6 Vote Required. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Certificate of Formation:

(a) The Managing Board shall be elected by a plurality of the votes present in person or represented by proxy at a meeting of Members and entitled to vote in the election of the Managing Board, and

Each Member shall be entitled to vote each Membership Interest having voting power registered in his or her name on the books of the Company on the record date fixed for determination of Members entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 7.8 Member Action Without a Meeting. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Certificate of Formation, any action required to be taken at any meeting of Members of the Company, or any action that may be taken at any annual or special meeting of such Members, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice, and without a vote, if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of Membership Interest having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all Membership Interests entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. Prompt notice of the taking of the corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those Members who have not consented in writing and who, if the action had been taken at a meeting, would have been entitled to notice of the meeting if the record date for such meeting had been the date that written consents signed by a sufficient number of the holders to take the action were delivered to the Company.

Section 7.9 Proxies.

(a) At any meeting of Members, any Member may be represented and vote by proxy or proxies. In the event that any form of proxy shall designate two or more persons to act as proxies, a majority of such persons present at the meeting or, if only one shall be present, then that one shall have and may exercise all of the powers conferred by the form of proxy upon all of the persons so designated unless the form of proxy shall otherwise provide.

(b) The Managing Board may, in advance of any annual or special meeting of the Members, prescribe additional regulations concerning proxies and the validation of the same, which are intended to be voted at any such meeting.

Section 7.10 Presiding Officer and Secretary. The Chairman of the Board shall act as chairman of all meetings of the Members. The Secretary of the Company shall act as secretary of all meetings of the Members, but, in the absence of the Secretary, the Assistant Secretary designated in accordance with Section 6.2 (iv) of this Agreement shall act as secretary of all meetings of the Members, but in the absence of a designated Assistant Secretary, the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person to act as secretary of the meeting.

Section 7.11 Procedure. At each meeting of Members, the chairman of the meeting shall fix and announce the date and time of the opening and the closing of the polls for each matter upon which the Members will vote at the meeting and shall determine the order of business and all other matters of procedure. Except to the extent inconsistent with any such rules and regulations as adopted by the Managing Board, the chairman of the meeting may establish rules, which need not be in writing, to maintain order and safety and for the conduct of the meeting. Without limiting the foregoing, he or she may:

ACTIONS BY MANAGING BOARD

Section 8.1 Meetings. Meetings of the Managing Board, for any purpose or purposes, may be called by any Member and shall be held at any location within or without the State of Delaware as approved by a majority of the Managing Board. Notice of any such meeting shall be given to each Board Member at least 10 and no more than 60 days prior to the date thereof. Such notice shall specify the date, time and place of such meeting and shall set for an agenda of items to be discussed or acted upon at such meeting.

Section 8.2 Quorum for Meetings of the Managing Board. The presence in person or by proxy of a majority of the Managing Board shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at a meeting of the Managing Board. No action of the Managing Board shall be valid in the absence of a quorum, except as provided in Section 7.3 hereof. Where a provision of this Agreement provides for action to be taken only upon the consent of the Managing Board, such action shall only be taken upon a unanimous vote.

Section 8.3 Consent of Absentees and Waiver of Notice. The transactions of any meeting of the Managing Board shall be as valid as though had at a meeting duly held after proper notice and with a quorum if, either before or after the meeting, the Member not present in person or by proxy signs a written waiver of notice or a consent to the holding of such meeting, or approves the minutes thereof. All such waivers, consents or approvals shall be filed with the books and records of the Company and made a part of the minutes of the meeting. Attendance of a Member at any meeting of the Managing Board shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when a Member attends for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because such meeting has not been (or has not allegedly been) duly noticed.

Section 8.4 Written Action without a Meeting; Telephone Meetings. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Managing Board may be taken without a meeting, if unanimous consent in writing to such action is provided by the Managing Board. Members may participate in any meeting of the Managing Board by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time and participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

Section 8.5 Proxies. Each Member may appear and vote at any meeting of the Managing Board, and may execute waivers of notice, consents, or approvals, through the agency of one or more persons, provided such agents are authorized to so act on behalf of the Member by the terms of a written proxy which has been executed by such Member and delivered to the Chairman. The Chairman shall cause such written proxies to be filed with the books and records of the Company. If a written proxy authorizes an agent to appear and/or to vote at any meeting of the Member, such written proxy must be delivered to the Chairman.

- (a) The Liquidator may set up any reserve it deems reasonably necessary for any contingent liabilities or obligations of the company arising out of or in connection with the Company. Such reserve shall be paid over by the Liquidator to a bank or trust company to act as escrow agent. The Member shall continue to be allocated profits, losses and other tax items during the period of such liquidation in the same proportions as before dissolution. The Liquidator shall determine whether to sell any Company property, and if so, whether at a public or private sale, for what price, and on what terms. If the Liquidator determines to sell or otherwise dispose of any property of the Company or any interest therein, the Liquidator shall not be required to do so promptly but shall do so in an orderly and commercially reasonable manner so as to avoid a distress sale. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Article Eleven, the timing, manner and conduct of any liquidation arising pursuant to this Agreement shall be subject to Section 11.4.

Section 11.4 Capital Accounts upon Liquidation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, upon Liquidation of the Company, the proceeds of such Liquidation shall be distributed to the Members by the end of such taxable year (or, if later, within 90 days after the date of such Liquidation) in proportion to their relative Membership Interests, except that the proceeds of such Liquidation shall not be required to be distributed by the end of such taxable year (or, if later, within 90 days after the date of such Liquidation) to the extent such proceeds constitute (i) reserves reasonably required to provide for liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of the Company or (ii) installment obligations owed to the Company, so long as such withheld amounts are distributed as soon as practicable to the Members.

Section 11.5 Certificate of Cancellation. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefor and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Members, a certificate of cancellation shall be executed and filed with the Secretary of State of Delaware in accordance with the Delaware Act.
