Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Deloitte Corporate Finance LLC as of May 31, 2022 and 2021; the related statements of operations, changes in member's equity, and cash flows for the years then ended; and the related notes (collectively referred to as the "financial statements"). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Deloitte Corporate Finance LLC as of May 31, 2022 and 2021 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of Deloitte Corporate Finance LLC's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on Deloitte Corporate Finance LLC's financial statements based on our audits. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to Deloitte Corporate Finance LLC in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audits included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audits also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Supplemental Information

The accompanying Computation of Net Capital for Brokers and Dealers Pursuant to Rule 15c3-1 under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, the Computation for Determination of Reserve Requirements for Brokers and Dealers Pursuant to Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and Information Relating to the Possession or Control Requirement under Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (collectively referred to as the "supplemental information") has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audits of Deloitte Corporate Finance LLC's financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of Deloitte Corporate Finance LLC's management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming our opinion on the supplemental information, we evaluated whether the supplemental information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with 17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5. In our opinion, the supplemental information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.
