Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (unaudited)

Note 1—Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. Operating results for the twelve weeks ended March 29, 2003 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending December 31, 2003. For further information, refer to the consolidated financial statements and footnotes thereto included in the Roadway Corporation Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002.

Note 2—Accounting Period

Roadway Corporation (the registrant or Company) operates on 13 four-week accounting periods with 12 weeks in each of the first three quarters and 16 weeks in the fourth quarter.

Note 3—Discontinued operations

On December 26, 2002, the Company entered into an agreement to sell Arnold Transportation Services (ATS) to a management group led by the unit’s president and a private equity firm, for approximately $55,000,000. The ATS business segment was acquired as part of the Company’s purchase of Roadway Next Day in November 2001, but did not fit the Company’s strategic focus of being a LTL carrier. The transaction was completed on January 23, 2003. The Company did not recognize a significant gain or loss as a result of this transaction.

The Company has reported the ATS results as a discontinued operation in the accompanying financial statements and, unless otherwise stated, the notes to the financial statements for all periods presented exclude the amounts related to this discontinued operation.

The following table presents revenue and income from the discontinued operations for the quarters ended March 29, 2003 and March 23, 2002. The quarter ended March 29, 2003 includes results of operations only through the disposal date, January 23, 2003.

Note 5—Segment information

The Company provides freight services in two business segments: Roadway Express (Roadway) and New Penn Motor Express (New Penn). The Roadway segment provides long haul LTL freight services in North America and offers services to over 100 countries worldwide. The New Penn segment provides regional, next-day LTL freight service primarily in the northeast region of the United States.

The Company’s reportable segments are identified based on differences in products, services, and management structure. The measurement basis of segment profit or loss is operating income. Business segment assets consist primarily of customer receivables, net carrier operating property, and goodwill.

Note 7—Contingent Matter

The Company’s former parent is currently under examination by the Internal Revenue Service for tax years 1994 and 1995, years prior to the spin-off of the Company. The IRS has proposed substantial adjustments for these tax years for multi-employer pension plan deductions. The IRS is challenging the timing, not the validity of these deductions. The Company is unable to predict the ultimate outcome of this matter; however, its former parent intends to vigorously contest these proposed adjustments.

Under a tax sharing agreement entered into by the Company and its former parent at the time of the spin-off, the Company is obligated to reimburse the former parent for any additional taxes and interest that relate to the Company’s business prior to the spin-off. The amount and timing of such payments is dependent on the ultimate resolution of the former parent’s disputes with the IRS and the determination of the nature and extent of the obligations under the tax sharing agreement. On January 16, 2003, the Company made a $14,000,000 payment to its former parent under the tax sharing agreement for taxes and interest related to certain of the proposed adjustments for tax years 1994 and 1995.

We estimate the range of the remaining payments that may be due to the former parent to be $0 to $16,000,000 in additional taxes and $0 to $10,000,000 in related interest, net of tax benefit. The Company has established certain reserves with respect to these proposed adjustments. There can be no assurance, however, that the amount or timing of any liability of the Company to the former parent will not have a material adverse effect on the Company’s results of operations and financial position.

Item 2. Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Consolidated results of operations for the first quarter ended March 29, 2003 compared to the first quarter ended March 23, 2002

Consolidated revenue was $754 million in the current quarter, a 25.9% increase from first quarter 2002, primarily due to increased revenue at Roadway Express because of the shutdown of Consolidated Freightways, a major competitor, in September 2002. In addition, our current year first quarter contained 62 working days compared to 58 working days in last year’s first quarter. Operating expenses grew by 23.3%, and the operating ratio (operating expenses as a percentage of revenue) improved by 2.1 points to 97.3%, compared to last year’s 99.4%. The Company’s consolidated operating income was $20.3 million compared to $3.7 million in the first quarter of 2002. This increase in operating income is solely attributable to the improved performance of Roadway Express. The net other expense of $6.8 million is primarily composed of interest and amortization of financing costs. The Company had net income of $8.0 million or $0.42 per share (diluted), for the current quarter, compared to a net loss of $1.8 million, or $0.09 per share (diluted) in the same quarter last year.

In January 2003, we sold ATS, the truckload subsidiary of Roadway Next Day Corporation, for $55 million. ATS has been accounted for as a discontinued operation for all periods presented.

Contract negotiations with the Teamsters were successfully concluded in early February 2003, well in advance of the March 31, 2003 expiration date. The Teamsters overwhelmingly ratified this new five-year contract on March 28.

The effective tax rate for the first quarter of 2003 was 42.0%, compared to the 39.9% rate in the first quarter of 2002. This tax rate differs from the Federal statutory rate due to the impact of state taxes, taxes on foreign operations, and non-deductible operating expenses.

Roadway Express, Inc.

Results of operations for the first quarter ended March 29, 2003 compared to the first quarter ended March 23, 2002

The abrupt cessation of operations on September 2, 2002 by Consolidated Freightways has removed excess capacity from the marketplace and has strengthened Roadway’s position. Roadway absorbed this freight into its system without adding additional capacity, which allowed it to take advantage of the existing infrastructure and improve profitability.

Roadway delivered 1.7 million tons of freight in the current quarter, an increase of 19.2% compared to the prior year’s first quarter. Daily tonnage levels increased 11.5% year over year. This improvement is primarily due to the shutdown of Consolidated Freightways, and we expect that positive tonnage comparisons will continue through the third quarter of 2003. Less-than-truckload (LTL) tons were up 20.9% while truckload tons were up 11.1%. Net revenue per ton was $403.28, up 6.9% compared to the same quarter last year, with LTL up 5.6% and truckload up 10.6%. Freight mix changes, the general rate increase on August 4, 2002, and continuing adjustments in contract rates impacted base revenue levels. The industry’s pricing environment continues to remain stable. A variable rate fuel surcharge averaged 4.1% of revenue in the current quarter compared to 0.8% of revenue in the prior-year quarter. Without the revenue increase relating to the fuel surcharge, freight rates were up 3.5% compared to the first quarter of 2002. Total operating expenses increased by 24.3%, while revenue increased 27.4%, leading to an improvement in the operating ratio to 97.5%, compared to a 99.9% in the same quarter last year.

Salaries, wages, and benefits as a percentage of revenue decreased to 62.3%, from 66.2% in the first quarter of 2002. Both direct and indirect wages reflected this improvement, which was attributable to efficiencies realized because of the increase in freight volume. Included in the benefit expense was a $2.8 million increase in cost associated with the Company sponsored pension plan. Operating supplies and expenses increased slightly to 17.8% of revenue, up from 17.3% in the prior year quarter, as favorable variances due to the growth in freight volume were more than offset by a 60% increase in fuel prices. The growth in purchased transportation as a percent of revenue was due to the 14% increase of linehaul miles run on the railroads. Insurance and claims expense grew because of increased costs of property damage and public liability claims. Depreciation expense declined as a percent of revenue because we were able to handle the significant growth in tonnage using existing capacity.

The following table is a comparison of operating statistics for the first quarter of 2003 and 2002:

	Twelve Weeks Ended (First Quarter)		Percentage change
	March 29, 2003	March 23, 2002
LTL tons	1,458,227	1,205,865	20.9%

New Penn Motor Express

Results of operations for the first quarter ended March 29, 2003 compared to the first quarter ended March 23, 2002

Revenue was $48.8 million for the first quarter of 2003, up 7.5% from $45.4 million in the first quarter of 2002. Since there was a 6.9% increase in the number of working days in the current quarter compared to the prior year quarter (62 versus 58 working days), daily tonnage levels were nearly flat compared to the year-earlier quarter. Tonnage in the current quarter was lower than anticipated due to severe winter storms that plagued much of New Penn’s primary service area. The operating ratio for New Penn was 94.6% in the first quarter of 2003, compared to 92.7% in the same quarter last year.

The severe winter storms also lead to operational inefficiencies. Salaries and wages increased to 68.5% of revenue in the current quarter, compared to 67.6% in the first quarter of 2002, and operating supplies and expenses increased to 15.7% of revenue from 13.5% in the prior year quarter. Additionally, operating supplies were impacted by higher fuel prices.

The following table shows the operating statistics for the first quarter of 2003 and 2002:

	Twelve Weeks Ended (First Quarter)		Percentage change
	March 29, 2003	March 23, 2002
LTL tons	185,678	177,264	4.7%

Liquidity and capital resources

At the end of the quarter, cash and marketable securities amounted to $117 million, a $10 million increase from year-end 2002. During the current quarter, cash provided by operating activities was $4.3 million, as compared to the $44.4 million use of cash in the first quarter of 2002. Two major items in 2002 contributed to the use of cash: $29 million related to the Roadway Next Day acquisition, and $9 million for the purchase of stock to fund employee stock plans. Cash outlays for the acquisition were completed in 2002. Beginning in 2003, existing treasury shares were used to fund the employee stock plans, so additional share purchases have not been necessary.

Capital expenditures were $13.8 million during the quarter. Capital expenditures are financed primarily through internally generated funds. Future expenditures are expected to be financed in a similar manner, along with planned replacements through operating lease arrangements. Gross capital expenditures of $95 to $105 million are expected for 2003. The capital expenditures are primarily designated for revenue equipment, facilities, and information systems.

The Company’s credit facility consists of a five-year, $215 million senior revolving credit facility with a $165 million sublimit for letters of credit, and a five-year $175 million senior term loan. As of March 29, 2002, there were no amounts outstanding under the revolving credit facility, but availability had been reduced by $123 million as a result of the issuance of letters of credit, primarily related to casualty claims. As of March 29, 2002, $58 million was outstanding under the senior term loan facility, with quarterly installments ranging from $2.5 million in 2003 to $4.9 million in 2006. Management intends to repay the entire balance by year-end 2003, which will increase our flexibility as we move forward with our strategic initiatives. The senior term loan accrued interest at the rate of 2.91% as of March 29, 2003.

On January 23, 2003, the sale of ATS was completed for $55 million. The sale of ATS resulted in a mandatory prepayment of $24 million on the senior term loan.

The Company’s $225 million of 8 1/4% senior notes are due December 1, 2008. Interest is due semi-annually on June 1 and December 1.

The Company’s Canadian subsidiary also has a $10 million credit facility available for borrowing under a secured revolving line of credit and bankers’ acceptances. At March 29, 2003, there were no amounts outstanding on this facility.

At March 29, 2003, the Company had outstanding debt of $283 million, $9.7 million of which is classified as current on the balance sheet. Remaining borrowing capacity of $102 million is currently available under the arrangements described above.

The financing arrangements include covenants that require the Company to comply with certain financial ratios, including leverage and fixed-charge coverage ratios, and maintenance of a minimum level of tangible net worth. The Company was in compliance with all covenants as of March 29, 2003.

Management believes that cash flows from operations and current financing sources will be sufficient to support working capital needs, projected capital expenditures, dividends to shareholders, and anticipated expenditures for other corporate purposes.

Off Balance Sheet Arrangements

Roadway can finance up to $200 million of its domestic accounts receivable under the accounts receivable securitization arrangement, which has a three-year term. Under this arrangement, undivided interests in Roadway’s domestic accounts receivable are sold through a special purpose entity (SPE), a wholly owned subsidiary of Roadway, without recourse, to an unrelated third party financial conduit. At March 29, 2003, undivided interests in the accounts receivable pool aggregating $100 million were sold under this arrangement, leaving an additional $100 million available. This arrangement allowed Roadway Express to immediately use the $100 million to be collected on accounts receivable at an effective rate of 2.6% during the first quarter of 2003.

The arrangement provides that new Roadway accounts receivable are immediately sold to the SPE. Roadway, through its SPE, retains the risk of credit loss on the receivables. The conduit has collection rights to recover payments from the designated accounts receivable and Roadway retains collection and administrative responsibilities for all accounts receivable.

Other matters

Under the terms of the Company’s current contract with the Teamsters, which extends through March 31, 2008, wage increases approximating 1.7% of wages and benefits were effective April 1, 2003 with another increase of approximately 2.0%, which will be effective August 1, 2003, designated for benefits.

Reserves for casualty claims represent management’s estimates of claims for property damage and public liability and workers’ compensation. The Company manages casualty claims with assistance of a third party administrator (TPA) along with oversight by a major risk management provider. The Company is self-insured for these claims with retention generally limited to $3 million. The Company and its TPA closely monitor the liability balances by using actual adjuster evaluations of each claim and a statistical benchmarking database for analysis of reserve accuracy.

The Company receives notices from the Environmental Protection Agency from time to time identifying it as a potentially responsible party under the Comprehensive Environmental Response Compensation and Liability Act for various Superfund sites. The Company believes that its obligation with regard to these sites is not significant.

Item 2. Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations (continued)

While most of the information provided herein is historical, some of the comments made are forward looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act with respect to the outlook for expectations for revenue, earnings or other future financial or business performance, strategies, expectations and goals. All statements that are not historical statements of fact are “forward-looking statements” and are subject to numerous risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements include all comments relating to our beliefs and expectations as to future events and trends affecting our business, results of operations and financial condition. We intend for the words “believes,” “anticipates,” “expects,” “intends,” “plans,” “continues,” “projects,” and similar expressions to identify forward-looking statements. The risks and uncertainties include, among others, variable factors such as capacity and rate levels in the motor freight industry; fuel prices; the impact of competition; the state of the national economy; the success of our operating plans, including our ability to manage growth and control costs; labor relations matters, and, uncertainties concerning the impact terrorist activities may have on the economy and the motor freight industry. We have based these forward-looking statements on management’s analysis about future events only as of the date of this filing. We undertake no obligation to publicly revise these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that arise after the date of this filing. These forward-looking statements are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions about us and our subsidiaries. In addition to the disclosure contained in this document, you should carefully review the risks and uncertainties contained in other documents Roadway Corporation files from time to time with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Those documents are accessible on the SEC’s website at www.sec.gov and through our website at www.roadwaycorp.com.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

Roadway has interest rate swap agreements with major commercial banks that fix the interest rate payable on its trailer leases, which are otherwise variable, and principally based on LIBOR. The value of the leases upon which the payments are based was not changed due to these agreements. The agreements, which expire from 2003 to 2004, fix Roadway’s interest costs at rates varying from 5.62% to 5.89% on leases with a notional amount of $10.9 million, and prevent the Company’s earnings from being directly affected by changes in interest rates related to the trailer leases. The fair value of Roadway’s interest rate swaps at March 29, 2003 is a liability of approximately $250,000, net of income taxes, and has been determined using proprietary financial models developed by the lending institutions that are counterparties to the swap arrangements.

The Company may incur economic losses due to adverse changes in foreign currency exchange rates, primarily with fluctuations in the Canadian dollar and Mexican peso. A 10% adverse change in foreign currency exchange rates would have no material impact on future cash flows and earnings of the Company.

The effect on the Company of fuel price increases is mitigated by a variable rate fuel surcharge when the national average diesel fuel price exceeds $1.10 per gallon. This surcharge has been in place at varying rates since the third quarter of 1999, and was discussed above.

Item 4. Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Within the 90-day period prior to the filing of this report, an evaluation was carried out under the supervision and with the participation of Roadway’s management, including its Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of its disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rule 13a-14(c) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934). Based upon that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that the design and operation of these disclosure controls and procedures were effective. No significant changes were made in Roadway’s internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect these controls subsequent to the date of their evaluation.

PART II — OTHER INFORMATION

Item 2. Changes in securities and use of proceeds

The Company maintains a Union Stock Plan. Participation in the Union Stock Plan is involuntary, and the plan is noncontributory. Shares of Common Stock are awarded to participants in the Union Stock Plan as a bonus based on operating margin, accident and injury record, and attendance. During the first quarter of 2003, the Company issued a total of 20,014 shares of Common Stock to participants under the plan. The Company has concluded that the award of a Common Stock bonus under the Union Stock Plan does not involve a “sale” of a security and thus is not subject to registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

On January 15, 2003, the Company granted 3,124 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, to the members of the Roadway Express, Inc. Medical Board. These transactions were exempt from the registration provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 pursuant to Section 4(2) of such Act.

Item 4. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders

The Company’s Annual Meeting of Shareholders was held on March 26, 2003. Three matters were voted upon at this meeting:

- 1. The election of eight members to the Board of Directors
- 2. Approving an amendment to the Roadway Corporation 2001 Employee Stock Purchase Plan
- 3. Ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent auditors.

There were 17,849,946 shares voted of the 19,580,662 shares outstanding and entitled to vote. The following table shows the results of the vote.
