Portions of the above contain forward-looking statements as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements reflect our expectations about future events and are subject to uncertainties, many of which are outside our control. Some of the known risks that could significantly impact revenues, operating results and capacity include, but are not limited to, our dependence on our capacity purchase agreement with Continental Airlines; our dependence on Continental Airlines' financial and operational strength; labor costs and relations, including the results of union contract negotiations; flight disruptions as a result of operational matters; deliveries of additional aircraft; our ability to implement our growth strategy; regulatory developments and costs, including the costs and other effects of enhanced security measures and other possible Federal Aviation Administration requirements; our high leverage; certain tax matters; competition and industry conditions; and the seasonal nature of the airline business. Additional information concerning these risk factors are described in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002. In light of these uncertainties, the events described in the forward-looking statements of this news release might not occur or might occur to a materially different extent than described above. We undertake no duty to update or revise any of our forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
