FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus, any accompanying prospectus supplement and the documents we have incorporated by reference contain forward-looking statements as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. We rely on the safe harbor of the act in making such disclosures. Statements beginning with words such as “believes,” “intends,” “plans,” “anticipates,” “estimates” and “expects” include forward-looking statements that are based on management’s expectations given facts as currently known by management on the date this prospectus was filed with the SEC. Specifically, statements regarding our future operating costs, business prospects, growth and capital expenditures, including plans with respect to our fleet, are forward-looking statements. These statements reflect our plans and assumptions about future events and are subject to uncertainties, many of which are outside our control. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the expectations expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements include known and unknown risks. Some of the known risks that could significantly impact our revenues, operating results, and capacity include, but are not limited to: our dependence on our capacity purchase agreement with Continental Airlines, Inc. (“Continental Airlines”); our dependence on Continental Airlines’ financial and operational strength; the costs and other effects of enhanced security measures and other possible FAA requirements; labor costs and relations, including the results of union contract negotiations; flight disruptions as a result of operational matters; deliveries of additional aircraft; our ability to implement our growth strategy; our high leverage; certain tax matters; competition and industry conditions; and the seasonal nature of the airline business.

For further discussions of these risks, please see the following risk factors incorporated by reference from our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002 – “—Risk Factors Relating to Our Capacity Purchase Agreement with Continental Airlines,” “—Risk Factors Relating to Our Business and Operations” and “—Risk Factors Relating to the Airline Industry.”

The statements in this prospectus are made as of August 8, 2003, and the events described in the forward-looking statements might not occur or might occur to a materially different extent than described in this filing. Except as otherwise required by law, we undertake no duty to update or revise any of our forward-looking statements contained in this prospectus, any accompanying prospectus supplement or in any documents we have incorporated by reference, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

RISK FACTORS

You should carefully consider the risk factors contained in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002 before investing in our common stock. Before deciding to invest in our common stock, you should also consider similar information contained in our Annual Report on Form 10-K or other documents we file with the SEC after the date of this prospectus.

OUR COMPANY

ExpressJet Holdings, Inc. was incorporated in Delaware in August 1996. We are the largest operator of regional jets in the world and the second-largest regional airline based on available seat miles. We are engaged in the business of transporting passengers, cargo and mail. Our principal asset is all of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of XJT Holdings, Inc., the sole owner of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of ExpressJet Airlines, Inc., which operates as Continental Express. As of June 30, 2003, we offered scheduled passenger service with approximately 1,100 average daily departures to 123 destinations in the United States, Canada, Mexico and the Caribbean, providing Continental Airlines all of its regional jet capacity at its hub airports in New York/Newark, Houston and Cleveland. We believe our operations complement Continental Airlines' operations by allowing more frequent service, including off-peak-time-of-day departures, to smaller cities than could be provided economically with large jet aircraft and by carrying traffic that connects with Continental Airlines' mainline jets. Our available seat miles have grown at a compounded annual rate of 23.9% from 2.6 billion in 1998 to 6.2 billion in 2002. We generated $626.9 million and $1.1 billion of revenue and $52.5 million and $84.3 million of net income applicable to common stockholders for the six months ended June 30, 2003 and the year ended December 31, 2002, respectively.

Our principal executive offices are located at 1600 Smith Street, Dept. HQSCE, Houston, Texas 77002 and our telephone number is (713) 324-2639. Our Internet address is www.expressjet.com. Information on our website is not incorporated into and is not a part of this prospectus.

USE OF PROCEEDS

All shares of common stock sold pursuant to this prospectus will be sold by the selling stockholders and we will not receive any of the proceeds from the sales.

SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

The selling stockholder named below may from time to time offer and sell pursuant to this prospectus any or all of the common stock. Our registration of the selling stockholder's shares of common stock does not mean that the selling stockholder will sell all or any of the shares of common stock.

The following table sets forth, to our knowledge, with respect to the selling stockholders:

- the number of shares of common stock beneficially owned as of August 7, 2003;
- the maximum number of shares of common stock which may be sold in this offering; and
- the number of shares of common stock which will be owned after the offering, assuming the sale of all the shares of common stock offered by this prospectus:

Selling Stockholder	Shares of Common Stock Owned Prior to the Offering		Number of Shares of Common Stock Offered Hereby	Shares of Common Stock to be Owned After the Offering (1)
	Number	%		Number	%
Continental Airlines, Inc.	24,681,004	45.1%	24,681,004	—	—

- (1) The information contained in this table is based on 54,681,004 shares of common stock outstanding as of August 7, 2003.

Continental Airlines presently is able to control or influence the vote on all matters submitted to stockholders, including the election of directors and the approval of extraordinary corporate transactions, such as mergers. Continental Airlines also owns the sole share of our special voting preferred stock, which provides it with the right to elect a designated number of our directors based on the percentage of shares of our common stock that it owns. Continental currently has the right to nominate four directors and will continue to have that right so long as it owns at least 40% of the common stock. Three of the directors designated by Continental Airlines, Messrs. Bethune, Kellner and Smisek, are also current executive officers of Continental Airlines, and Mr. McLean is a former executive officer of Continental Airlines.

As of June 30, 2003, we had $227.0 million of indebtedness outstanding under a note payable to Continental Airlines, an amount equal to approximately 52.2% of our total consolidated assets. During 2002, we made payments of principal and interest on the note in the aggregate amount of $240.5 million. During the first six months of 2003, we made payments of principal and interest on this note of $102.6 million. Principal and interest payments in the amount of $27.9 million are due quarterly until the earlier of March 31, 2007 or the principal balance and any accrued unpaid interest are paid in full.

We derived substantially all of our revenue in 2002, and currently expect to derive substantially all of our revenue in 2003, from payments for services we provide under our capacity purchase agreement with Continental Airlines, which is described below. Our total revenue for the six months ended June 30, 2003 was $626.9 million, an amount equal to approximately 15% of Continental Airlines' consolidated gross revenue for the same period.

Under the capacity purchase agreement, Continental Airlines purchases all of our capacity and pays us specified rates per scheduled block hour for our aircraft together with certain incentive payments and reimbursements. Continental Airlines controls scheduling, ticket prices and seat inventories with respect to our operations, performs all sales and ticketing functions for us, and receives cash directly for the sale of our tickets. In connection with the capacity purchase agreement, we have also entered into various aircraft leases and subleases, a master facility and ground handling agreement, an administrative support and information services agreement and a fuel purchasing agreement with Continental Airlines.

We currently lease or sublease all of our aircraft under long-term operating leases from Continental Airlines. We also lease or sublease, under various operating leases, ground equipment and substantially all of our ground facilities, including facilities at public airports, from Continental Airlines. Our total operating lease expense related to leases with Continental Airlines was approximately $231.0 million in 2002 and $137.3 million for the six months ended June 30, 2003.

Continental Airlines provides various services to us and charges us the rates specified in the capacity purchase agreement. For the six months ended June 30, 2003, such charges included $29.8 million related to customer services such as ground handling, and $7.7 million for other services including technology, legal, accounting, tax, treasury, human resources and risk management services. Continental Airlines also purchased or provided payment for certain items totaling $13.7 million for the six months ended June 30, 2003, such as insurance, certain payroll expenditures and related benefits, and charges us the amounts specified in the capacity purchase agreement.

We have entered into various agreements for purposes of governing our ongoing relationship with Continental Airlines. These agreements include provisions relating to our employee benefit obligations, including flight travel benefits for employees of ExpressJet and Continental Airlines, the registration of the shares of our common stock held by Continental Airlines and the allocation of federal, state and local tax liabilities between Continental Airlines and us. All of these agreements, as well as the capacity purchase agreement and related operating agreements and leases described above, were made in the context of a parent-subsidiary relationship in which we were not separately advised by legal or financial advisors, and their terms may be more or less favorable to us than if they had been negotiated with unaffiliated third parties.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We are registering the shares to be sold under this prospectus on behalf of the initial selling stockholder named in this prospectus and any subsequent selling stockholder named in a prospectus supplement. We will receive no proceeds from this offering. When used below, the term “selling stockholders” includes the initial selling stockholder and any transferee specifically designated in writing by the initial selling stockholder.

The selling stockholders may sell the shares at any time and from time to time. The selling stockholders will act independently of us in making decisions with respect to the timing, manner and size of each sale. The sales may be made on one or more exchanges or in the over-the-counter market or otherwise, at prices and at terms then prevailing or at prices related to the then current market price, or in negotiated transactions. The selling stockholders may effect such transactions by selling the shares to or through broker-dealers. The shares may be sold by one or more of, or a combination of, the following:

- a block trade in which the broker-dealer so engaged will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;
- purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by such broker-dealer for its account pursuant to this prospectus;
- an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of such exchange;
- ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker solicits purchasers;
- privately negotiated transactions;
- exchange or conversion of securities issued by the selling stockholder; and
- a sale of securities issued by the selling stockholder that are exchangeable for, or convertible into, such shares.

To the extent required, this prospectus may be amended or supplemented from time to time to describe a specific plan of distribution. In effecting sales, broker-dealers engaged by the selling stockholders may arrange for other broker-dealers to participate in the resales.

The selling stockholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers in connection with distributions of the shares or otherwise. In such transactions, broker-dealers may engage in short sales of the shares in the course of hedging the positions they assume with selling stockholders. The selling stockholders also may sell shares short and redeliver the shares to close out such short positions. The selling stockholders may enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers which require the delivery to the broker-dealer of the shares. The broker-dealer may then resell or otherwise transfer such shares pursuant to this prospectus. The selling stockholders also may loan or pledge the shares to a broker-dealer. The broker-dealer may sell the shares so loaned, or upon a default the broker-dealer may sell the pledged shares pursuant to this prospectus.

Broker-dealers or agents may receive compensation in the form of commissions, discounts or concessions from selling stockholders. Broker-dealers or agents may also receive compensation from the purchasers of the shares for whom they act as agents or to whom they sell as principals, or both. Broker-dealers or agents and any other participating broker-dealers or the selling stockholders may be deemed to be “underwriters” within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act of 1933 in connection with sales of the shares. In connection with the sale of the securities, underwriters may receive compensation from the selling stockholders or from the purchasers of the securities, for whom they may act as agents, in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions, which will not exceed 8% of the proceeds from the sale of the securities.

Accordingly, any such commission, discount or concession received by them and any profit on the resale of the shares purchased by them may be deemed to be underwriting discounts or commissions under the Securities Act. Because selling stockholders may be deemed to be “underwriters” within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act, the selling stockholders will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act.

In addition, any securities covered by this prospectus that qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act may be sold under Rule 144 rather than pursuant to this prospectus.

The shares will be sold only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers if required under applicable state securities laws. In addition, in certain states the shares may not be sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale in the applicable state or an exemption from the registration or qualification requirement is available and is complied with.

Under applicable rules and regulations under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 any person engaged in the distribution of the shares may not simultaneously engage in market making activities with respect to our common stock for a period of two business days prior to the commencement of such distribution. In addition, each selling stockholder will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the associated rules and regulations under the Exchange Act, including Regulation M, which provisions may limit the timing of purchases and sales of shares of our common stock by the selling stockholders. We will make copies of this prospectus available to the selling stockholders and have informed them of the need for delivery of copies of this prospectus to purchasers at or prior to the time of any sale of the shares.

We will file a supplement to this prospectus, if required, pursuant to Rule 424(b) under the Securities Act upon being notified by a selling stockholder that any material arrangement has been entered into with a broker-dealer for the sale of shares through a block trade, special offering, exchange distribution or secondary distribution or a purchase by a broker or dealer. Such supplement will disclose:

- the name of each such selling stockholder and of the participating broker-dealer(s);
- the number of shares involved;
- the price at which such shares were sold;
- the commissions paid or discounts or concessions allowed to such broker-dealer(s), where applicable;
- that such broker-dealer(s) did not conduct any investigation to verify the information set out or incorporated by reference in this prospectus; and
- other facts material to the transaction.

We will bear all costs, expenses and fees in connection with the registration of the shares. The selling stockholders will bear all commissions and discounts, if any, attributable to the sales of the shares. The selling stockholders may agree to indemnify any broker-dealer or agent that participates in transactions involving sales of the shares against certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act.

LEGAL MATTERS

John F. Wombwell, Vice President and General Counsel of ExpressJet Holdings, Inc will pass upon the validity of the common stock for us. If the common stock is being distributed in an underwritten offering, legal matters will be passed upon for the underwriters by counsel identified in the related prospectus supplement.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

ExpressJet Holdings, Inc. is incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware. Section 145 (“Section 145”) of Title 8 of the Delaware Code gives a corporation power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys’ fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the person’s conduct was unlawful.

Section 145 also gives a corporation power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys’ fees) actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Delaware Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Delaware Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper. Section 145 further provides that, to the extent that a present or former director or officer of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any such action, suit or proceeding, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys’ fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

Section 145 also authorizes a corporation to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would otherwise have the power to indemnify him under Section 145.

ExpressJet Holdings' restated certificate of incorporation and restated bylaws provide for the indemnification of officers and directors to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware Code. The underwriting agreement also provides for the indemnification of the directors and officers in certain circumstances.

All of ExpressJet Holdings' directors and officers will be covered by insurance policies maintained by Continental Airlines against certain liabilities for actions taken in their capacities as such, including liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933.

Item 17. Undertakings

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of the prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in this registration statement;

Provided, however, That paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the SEC by the registrant pursuant to section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(h) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers, and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(i) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that:

(1) For purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, the information omitted from the form of prospectus filed as part of this registration statement in reliance upon Rule 430A and contained in a form of prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(1) or (4) or 497(h) under the Securities Act shall be deemed to be part of this registration statement as of the time it was declared effective.

(2) For the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each post-effective amendment that contains a form of prospectus shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
