Item 9. Regulation FD Disclosure

We are furnishing herewith data being presented by certain of our executive officers on February 4, 2004 at the Goldman Sachs 19th Annual Transportation Conference.

Beginning Wednesday, February 4, 2004, an audio webcast of their remarks and accompanying graphic presentation will be made available under the Investor Relations section of our website at www.expressjet.com.

This report contains forward-looking statements that are not limited to historical facts, but reflect our current beliefs, expectations or intentions regarding future events. There are a number of factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. Some of the known risks that could significantly impact our results include, but are not limited to, our dependence on our capacity purchase agreement with Continental Airlines; our dependence on Continental Airlines' financial and operational strength; labor costs and relations, including the results of union contract negotiations; flight disruptions as a result of operational matters; deliveries of additional aircraft; our ability to implement our growth strategy; regulatory developments and costs, including the costs and other effects of enhanced security measures and other possible regulatory requirements; our high leverage; and competition and industry conditions. Additional information concerning risk factors that could affect our actual results are described in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002. The events described in the forward-looking statements might not occur or might occur to a materially different extent than described herein. We undertake no duty to update or revise any of our forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
