Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Sole Member
Ankura Capital Advisors, LLC

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Ankura Capital Advisors, LLC as of December 31, 2019 and the related statements of operations, changes in member's equity, and cash flows for the year then ended and the related notes (collectively referred to as the "financial statements"). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Ankura Capital Advisors, LLC as of December 31, 2019 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of Ankura Capital Advisors, LLC's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on Ankura Capital Advisors, LLC's financial statements based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to Ankura Capital Advisors, LLC in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Supplemental Information

The accompanying supplemental information in schedules I and II has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of Ankura Capital Advisors, LLC's financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of Ankura Capital Advisors, LLC's management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming our opinion on the supplemental information, we evaluated whether the supplemental information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with 17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5. In our opinion, the supplemental information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Plante & Morse, PLLC

We have served as Ankura Capital Advisors, LLC's auditor since January 2018.

The accompanying notes are an integral part of these financial statements.

1. Organization and Business

Ankura Capital Advisors, LLC (the "Company") is a wholly owned subsidiary of Thoreau HoldCo, LLC ("Thoreau"). The Company, is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA").

The Company provides financial advisory services in connection with mergers, acquisitions and divestitures and placement agent services in connection with the private placement of securities.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

These financial statements were prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America which requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Basis of Accounting

Revenues and expenses are recorded on the accrual basis of accounting.

Cash

All cash deposits are held by one financial institution and therefore are subject to the credit risk at that financial institution. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and does not believe there to be any significant credit risk with respect to these deposits.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable consists of retainers and reimbursable expenses billed to customers but not yet paid. Management determines an allowance for doubtful accounts based on its assessment of the current status of individual accounts.

Deferred Contracts

Deferred contract costs consist of wages and other costs related to the fulfillment of a contract. Such costs are capitalized to the extent they are explicitly reimbursable by the customer and expensed when the related revenue is recognized.

Income Taxes

The Company is a single-member limited liability company and is treated as a disregarded entity for income tax reporting purposes. The Internal Revenue Code provides that any income or loss is passed through to the ultimate beneficial individual members for federal, state, and certain local income taxes. Accordingly, the Company has not provided for federal and state income taxes. There are no uncertain tax positions to be accounted for in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board guidance on income taxes as of December 31, 2019.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The guidance requires an entity to follow a five-step model to (a) identify the contract(s) with a customer, (b) identify the performance obligations in the contract, (c) determine the transaction price, (d) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract, and (e) recognize revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation. In determining the transaction price, an entity may include variable consideration only to the extent that it is probable that a significant reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognized would not occur when the uncertainty associated with the variable consideration is resolved.

The Company provides financing and mergers and acquisitions advisory services. Revenue for advisory arrangements is generally recognized at the point in time that performance under the arrangement is completed (closing date of the transaction) or the contract is cancelled. However, for certain contracts, revenue is recognized over time for advisory arrangements in which the performance obligations are simultaneously provided by the Company and consumed by the customer.

Significant Judgments

Revenue from contracts with customers includes commission income and fees from investment banking and asset management services. The recognition and measurement of revenue is based on the assessment of individual contract terms. Significant judgment is required to determine whether performance obligations are satisfied at a point in time or over time; how to allocate transaction prices where multiple performance obligations are identified; when to recognize revenue based on the appropriate measure of the Company's progress under the contract; and whether constraints on variable consideration should be applied due to uncertain future events.

Contract Assets and Contract Liabilities

The Company had contract assets in the amount of $141,281 and $167,454 at January 1, 2019 and December 31, 2019 respectively. It had contract liabilities in the amount of $239,414 and $248,815 at January 1, 2019 and December 31, 2019 respectively.

3. Regulatory Requirements

The Company is subject to SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2019, the Company had net capital of approximately $958,000 which exceeded the required net capital by approximately $940,000.

The Company does not hold customers' cash or securities; therefore, it is not affected by SEC Rule 15c3-3.

4. Related-Party Transactions

The Company has a service agreement with Ankura Consulting Group, LLC ("ACG"), an entity related through common ownership. Under the Agreement, the Company is provided with consulting personnel; office space; office-related equipment; administrative support such as technical, accounting, and bookkeeping; and such other services as the parties may agree to from time to time. Some of the personnel are registered with FINRA as representatives and principals of the Company to the extent required under FINRA rules. During 2019, $223,904 of expenses were allocated pursuant to the Agreement and included consulting services at cost plus fringe benefits $178,601, facilities $25,278 and operating expenses $20,025. Expenses directly attributable to the Company are paid by the Parent and charged to the Company. During 2019, directly attributable expenses were $288,948 and included reimbursable expenses, audit fees, insurance and compliance service costs.

In addition, the Company has a policy that assigns to ACG revenues for services that do not culminate in a securities transaction. Cash receipts for these services by the Company result in the Company owing ACG for amounts received. In certain situations, ACG may receive cash receipts on behalf of the Company related to revenue earned by the Company.

The net amount receivable from ACG related to the transactions described above was $44,031 at December 31, 2019.

5. Subsequent Events

The Company has performed an evaluation of events that have occurred subsequent to December 31, 2019 through the date these financial statements were issued. There have been no material subsequent events during such period that would require recognition or disclosure in this report as of December 31, 2019.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Sole Member
Ankura Capital Advisors, LLC

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report, in which (1) Ankura Capital Advisors, LLC indicated that Ankura Capital Advisors, LLC may file an Exemption Report because it had no obligations under 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3, and Ankura Capital Advisors, LLC does not handle cash or securities on behalf of customers (the "exemption provisions"), and (2) Ankura Capital Advisors, LLC stated that Ankura Capital Advisors, LLC met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. Ankura Capital Advisors, LLC's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about Ankura Capital Advisors, LLC's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
