Broadridge Business Process Outsourcing, LLC
(An Indirect Subsidiary of Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc.)
Notes to Statement of Financial Condition
As of June 30, 2023

1. Organization and Business Activities

Broadridge Business Process Outsourcing, LLC (the “Company”) was formed on April 6, 2001 as a Delaware Limited Liability Company and is wholly-owned by Broadridge BPO Holding LLC (the “Parent”). The Parent is owned by Broadridge Securities Processing Solutions, LLC (“BSPS”) and Broadridge Fixed Income Liquidity Solutions, LLC (“BFILS”). BSPS is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc. (“Broadridge”), a global fintech leader providing investor communications and technology-driven solutions to banks, broker-dealers, mutual funds and corporate issuers. BFILS is a majority-owned subsidiary of Broadridge. The Company is headquartered in Edgewood, New York. The Company is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”).

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation - The financial statement has been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”). As discussed in Notes 1 and 6, the Company is part of an affiliated group of entities. Accordingly, these affiliations and other related-party disclosures must be taken into consideration when reviewing the accompanying statement of financial condition, which was prepared on the basis that the Company is a going concern and will continue in operation for the foreseeable future and will be able to realize assets and discharge liabilities in the normal course of operations.

Use of Estimates - The preparation of the financial statement in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the Company’s financial statement and accompanying notes thereto. These estimates are based on management’s best knowledge of current events, historical experience, actions that the Company may undertake in the future and on various other assumptions and judgments that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates. The use of estimates in specific accounting policies is described further in the notes to the financial statement, as appropriate. Significant estimates include the Company’s accounts receivable related to its mutual fund processing business and related administrative fee payable, and bonus accrual.

Cash and Cash Equivalents - Cash includes demand deposits held in banks. The Company has no restrictions on cash deposits. Cash equivalents include certain highly liquid investments with original maturities of 90 days or less. At June 30, 2023 the Company had no cash equivalents.

Cash Segregated Under Federal Regulations - At June 30, 2023 cash of $1,065 thousand and $213 thousand had been segregated in special reserve accounts for the exclusive benefit of customers and proprietary accounts of broker-dealers, respectively, exceeding actual requirements by $1,065 thousand and $213 thousand, respectively, in accordance with Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Current Expected Credit Losses (CECL) & Allowance for Doubtful Accounts - The Company estimates expected credit losses over the life of its financial assets and certain off-balance sheet exposures as of the reporting date based on relevant information about past events, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts of future economic conditions and events. For financial assets on the balance sheet, the allowance for credit losses is reported as a valuation account that adjusts the asset's basis. The Company reviews its accounts receivable balances on a monthly basis. Aged receivables are identified and researched, and related clients are notified and requested to submit payment. The Company analyzes each open receivable specifically to determine whether there is risk of non-payment. The Company books allowances for those open receivables for which payment in full is not expected based on historical experience, current credit ratings and other factors. As of June 30, 2023, the Company had no allowance for doubtful accounts relating to its accounts receivable balances.

Affiliate Transaction Balances and Settlement - The Company receives services from, and provides services to, various Broadridge business units for which the Company is charged or bills on a monthly basis and settles monthly. Such services are formalized under service level agreements which document specific service requirements and pricing. Several of the Company's obligations for settlement are facilitated by the Parent, even when the Company is performing work for other affiliates. As such, these are receivables from, and payables to Broadridge and are disclosed on a net basis in the statement of financial condition as Receivable from affiliates, net. The Company pays administrative fees to an affiliate for further distribution to institutions such as banks, trust companies, third-party administrators, retirement plans, broker-dealers and registered investment advisors to perform certain services that the Company is contractually obligated to perform for the mutual fund families. Payables related to such administrative fees are disclosed in the statement of financial condition as Administrative fees payable to an affiliate (see Note 6).

Deferred Client Conversion Costs - For the Company's operations outsourcing line of business, direct costs that are incurred to set up or convert a client's systems to function with the Company's technology are generally deferred and recognized on a straight-line basis over the service term of the contract, which commences after client acceptance and when the processing term begins.

Deferred Client Concessions - For the Company's operations outsourcing line of business, concessions granted as incentive for clients to enter into new or renewal contracts are generally deferred and recognized on a straight-line basis over the service term of the contract as a reduction to revenue, which commences after client acceptance and when the processing term begins.

Internal Use Software - Expenditures for software purchases, perpetual software licenses and software developed or obtained for internal use are capitalized and amortized over a three- to five-year period on a straight-line basis. During the year ended June 30, 2023, the Company capitalized $198 thousand related to internal use software projects. For software developed for internal use, the Company's accounting policy provides for the capitalization of external direct costs of materials and services associated with developing or obtaining internal use computer software. In addition, the Company also capitalizes payroll and payroll-related costs for employees who are directly associated with internal use software projects. The amount of capitalizable payroll costs with respect to these employees is limited to direct time spent on such projects.

Fixed Assets, Net - Fixed assets, which are included in other assets, consist primarily of communication and data processing equipment and are stated at cost less accumulated amortization and depreciation.

Income Taxes - The Company is a Limited Liability Company (LLC) and a disregarded entity for income tax purposes. Accordingly, taxable income and losses of the Company are reported in the income tax return of the Parent and no provision for income taxes has been recorded in the accompanying statement of financial condition. The Company, as a single-member LLC, is not allocated income taxes from the Parent because it does not have a tax-sharing agreement.

Concentration of Risk - Five customers accounted for 32% of the Company's accounts receivable. The Company's largest single client accounted for 12% of its accounts receivable.

3. Revenue Recognition

The Company's revenues from clients are primarily generated from fees for providing technology-enabled services and solutions. Revenues are recognized for the Company's three lines of business as follows:

- Mutual Fund Processing - The Company performs broker-dealer functions that consist primarily of effecting and facilitating the unsolicited purchase and redemption of various mutual fund shares submitted by institutions such as banks, trust companies, third-party administrators, retirement plans, broker-dealers and registered investment advisers throughout the United States. Purchases and redemptions of mutual funds are settled through an affiliate, Matrix Trust Company ("Matrix Trust"), a trust member of the National Securities Clearing Corporation, in a bank account registered in the name of Matrix Trust. The Company serves as the broker-dealer of record on the mutual fund accounts, which are registered as Matrix Trust Company for the benefit of customers or in nominee name of financial institutions such as banks, third-party administrators, retirement plans, broker-dealers and registered investment advisers.
- Operations Outsourcing - The Company also provides operations outsourcing solutions that allow a client to outsource certain middle and back-office administrative functions relating to clearing and settlement to the Company, from order entry to trade matching and settlement, while maintaining their ability to finance and capitalize their business. The Company's operations outsourcing clients execute and clear their own securities transactions and engage the Company to perform a number of related administrative back-office functions, such as record-keeping and reconciliations. In this capacity, the Company is not the broker-dealer of record.
- LTX® - The Company provides access to an interactive data and electronic system and communications platform for securities, derivatives and other interests enabling buy-side firms to receive aggregated liquidity from multiple buyers on the same block trade in real time. LTX utilizes an AI-powered RFQ+ protocol and BondGPTSM powered by OPENAI GPT-4 to enable dealers to distribute corporate bonds across their customer network, amplifying the buy-side's opportunity to maximize liquidity and achieve improved best execution, by using LTX's powerful artificial intelligence to identify potential natural buyers of bonds within their customer network. Customers invited to participate in the trade are able to bid for their preferred amount of bonds and improve their price as needed to fulfill their order.

Contract balances

The following table provides information about contract assets and contract liabilities:

($ in thousands)	Opening Balance July 1, 2022	Closing Balance June 30, 2023
Contract assets	$ 113	$ 141
Contract liabilities	2,692	2,457

The Company's contract assets represent arrangements in which an estimate of variable consideration has been included in the transaction price and thereby recognized as revenue that precedes the contractual due date. Revenue is recognized when all material conditions for completion have been met and it is probable that a significant revenue reversal will not occur in a future period. Contract liabilities represent consideration received or receivable from clients before the transfer of control occurs (deferred revenue). Contract balances are reported in a net contract asset and liability position on a contract-by-contract basis at the end of each reporting period in the statement of financial condition under Other assets and Contract liabilities, respectively.

Contract Costs

For the Company's operations outsourcing line of business, direct costs that are incurred to set up a client are generally deferred and recognized on a straight-line basis over the service term of the contract, which commences after client acceptance and when the processing term begins. The Company evaluates the carrying value of deferred client conversion and start-up costs for impairment on the basis of whether these costs are fully recoverable from the expected future undiscounted net operating cash flows of the client to which the deferred costs relate.

The Company defers incremental costs to obtain a client contract that it expects to recover, which consists of sales commissions incurred, only if the contract is executed. Deferred sales commission costs are amortized on a straight-line basis using a portfolio approach consistent with the pattern of transfer of the goods or services to which the asset relates, which also considers expected customer lives. The Company evaluates the carrying value of deferred sales commission costs for impairment on the basis of whether these costs are fully recoverable from the expected future undiscounted net operating cash flows of the portfolio of clients to which the deferred sales commission costs relate.

Administrative Fees Payable to an Affiliate - The Company pays administrative fees to an affiliate for further distribution to institutions such as banks, trust companies, third-party administrators, retirement plans, broker-dealers and registered investment advisers to perform certain services that the Company is contractually obligated to perform for the mutual fund families. Any such claims that are decided against the Company could harm the Company's business. The Company is also subject to periodic regulatory audits and inspections which could result in fines or other disciplinary actions. Unfavorable outcomes in such matters may result in a material impact on the Company's financial position. As of June 30, 2023, there were no matters that the Company is aware of that would have a material impact on its financial statement.

Conflict in Ukraine - We are monitoring the events related to Russia's invasion of Ukraine and have been actively managing any exposure we may have through a cross-functional taskforce that includes members of our senior management. We have no presence in Russia or Ukraine, and do not process any client data in Russia or Ukraine. We are monitoring and believe we are in compliance with all global sanctions arising out of Russia's invasion of the Ukraine. We have taken actions to enhance our information security defenses in response to the Ukraine conflict. We do not expect the Ukraine conflict and the actions we are taking in response to have a material impact on our core operations or financial results.

8. Regulatory Requirements

Although the Company's FINRA membership agreement allows the Company to engage in clearing and the retailing of corporate securities in addition to mutual fund retailing on a wire order basis, the Company does not clear customer transactions, process any retail business or carry customer accounts, and the Company is exempt from the customer protection requirements of Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Rule 15c3-3") under the provisions of 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3(k)(2)(ii). In addition, the Company's other business activities contemplated by Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5 are limited to receiving transaction-based compensation for providing technology or platform services.

As a registered broker-dealer and member of FINRA, the Company is subject to the Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Rule 15c3-1"). The Company computes its net capital under the alternative method permitted under 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-1, which requires the Company to maintain minimum net capital equal to the greater of $250 thousand or 2% of aggregate debit items arising from customer transactions. At June 30, 2022 the Company's required minimum net capital was $250 thousand. FINRA may require a member firm to reduce its business if its net capital is less than 4% of aggregate debit items, or may prohibit a member firm from expanding its business or paying cash dividends if resulting net capital would be less than 5% of aggregate debit items. As of June 30, 2023, the Company had net capital of $3,982 thousand, which exceeded the minimum requirement by $3,732 thousand.

Effective May 31, 2023, the Company withdrew as a member of the Options Clearing Corporation ("OCC") due to an OCC Rule Change allowing non-members to provide operations outsourcing services. The Company had previously maintained its OCC Clearing Membership so that it could act as a Managing Clearing Member to provide Facilities Management services to other OCC members pursuant to former OCC Rule 309 and previous provisions of the OCC's by-laws. With the removal of those provisions and the subsequent adoption of OCC Rule 303, it is no longer necessary for the Company to maintain its OCC membership. The Company will continue to provide services to OCC members as a third party service provider, as contemplated by new OCC Rule 303.

9. Subsequent Events
