Note 1: NATURE OF BUSINESS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Business

RCX Capital Group, LLC (the “Company”) was organized in September 2000 as a California limited liability company. The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. (“FINRA”) and Securities Investors Protection Corporation (“SIPC”).

The Company’s operations consist primarily of offering and selling of interests in private placements of securities on a best-efforts basis for a related party sponsor and management and acquisition services in the real estate industry.

The Company is considered a Non-Covered Firm exempt from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3 relying on Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5. The Company limits its business activities exclusively to merger and acquisition advisory services, private placements of securities on a best-efforts basis, and broker or dealer selling tax shelters or limited partnerships in primary distributions on a best-efforts basis.

Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Use of Estimates

The presentation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition

The recognition and measurement of revenue is based on the assessment of individual contract terms. Significant judgment is required to determine whether performance obligations are satisfied at a point in time or over time; how to allocate transaction prices where multiple performance obligations are identified; when to recognize revenue based on the appropriate measure of the Company’s progress under the contract; and whether constraints on variable consideration should be applied due to uncertain future events.

RCX Capital Group, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2021

Revenue Recognition (continued)

The Company participates in the private placement offerings on a best-efforts basis for a related party sponsor in the real estate industry. Each time a customer enters into a buy transaction, the Company charges a commission. Commissions are recognized on the trade date (the date that the Company fills the trade order, receives the customer subscription funding and confirms the trade with the customer). The Company believes that the performance obligation is satisfied on the trade date because that is when the underlying private placement interest is identified, the pricing is agreed upon and the risks and rewards of ownership have been transferred to the customer.

Revenue from management and acquisition services is generally recognized at the point in time that performance under the arrangement is completed, the closing date of the transaction.

Retainer fees are generally recognized at the point in time that performance under the arrangement is completed (the closing date of the transaction) or the contract is canceled. Retainers and other advisory fees received from customers prior to recognizing revenue are reflected as contract liabilities and are recognized at a point in time the performance under the arrangement is completed or the contract is canceled.

Income Taxes

The Company is treated as a partnership for federal income tax purposes. Consequently, federal income taxes are not payable by, or provided for, the Company. Members are taxed individually on their share of the Company's earnings. The Company's net income or loss is allocated among the members in accordance with their ownership interest in the Company.

The Company is subject to state income taxes.

As of December 31, 2021, open Federal tax years subject to examination include the tax years ended December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2020.

Leases

The Company accounts for its leases in accordance with FASB ASC 842, Leases. The Company determines if an arrangement is a lease, or contains a lease, at inception of a contract and when the terms of an existing contract are changed.

RCX Capital Group, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2021

Leases (continued)

The Company has elected, for all underlying classes of assets, to not recognize right of use assets and lease liabilities for short-term leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less at lease commencement, and do not include an option to purchase the underlying asset that the Company is reasonably certain to exercise. The Company recognizes lease cost associated with its short-term leases on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Note 2: SUBORDINATED LIABILITIES

The liabilities subordinated to the claims of general creditors consists of a subordinated loan of $1,311,635, which bears an interest rate of 1% per annum, and the related accrued interest payable of $126,509. The maturity date is June 20, 2022, and the subordinated loan can be automatically extended annually. Interest expense totaled $13,116 for the year ended December 31, 2021. The lender and the Company have the right, but not the obligation, to mutually agree to convert the loan and any accrued interest into an equity interest in the Company.

The subordinated loan is covered by agreements approved by FINRA and are thus available in computing net capital under the SEC's uniform net capital rule. To the extent that such borrowings are required for the Company's continued compliance with minimum net capital requirements, the borrowings may not be repaid. The parties to the agreement have elected to have all eligible accrued interest on the loan treated as additional subordinated capital. The balance due shown on the Statement of Financial Condition includes all interest accrued since the inception of the loan.

Note 3: NOTE PAYABLE

In May 2020, the Company received loan proceeds of $87,500 under the Paycheck Protection Program ("PPP"). On July 2, 2021, the Small Business Administration (SBA) approved the Company's application for full forgiveness of the loan. The income attributable to the forgiveness of $87,500 is recognized in the statement of operations as revenue. The SBA retains the right to audit the appropriateness of borrowers' participation in the program for a period of six years from forgiveness.

Note 4: COMMITMENT AND CONTINGENCIES

Commitments

The Company leases office space under an operating lease expiring June 2022. Rent under the lease is currently $1,072 per month. Office rent expense for the year was $27,436, which included the current lease in The Woodlands, Texas. In addition, the Company had an office space in Denver, Colorado for three months ending December 31, 2021.

RCX Capital Group, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2021

Note 4: COMMITMENT AND CONTINGENCIES (continued)

Contingencies

There are currently no asserted claims or legal proceedings against the Company, however, the nature of the Company's business subjects it to various claims, regulatory examinations, and other proceedings in the ordinary course of business. The ultimate outcome of any such future action against the Company could have an adverse impact on the financial condition, results of operations, or cash flows of the Company.

Note 5: CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISKS

At various times during the year the Company maintains cash balances at one national bank in excess of federally insured amounts. Cash balances fluctuate on a daily basis. At December 31, 2021, the uninsured balance was approximately $490,000.

Note 6: NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. Rule 15c3-1 also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2021, the Company had net capital of $321,683, which was $237,020 in excess of its net capital requirement of $84,663. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 3.95 to 1.

Note 7: RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

A substantial portion of the Company's revenue is earned through private placement offerings of a related party. It should be noted, however, that the related party is, and historically has been, the largest sponsor of Delaware Statutory Trusts (DSTs) and offers a greater number of asset classes in the market. The Company has, over the last few years, added several new sponsors to its platform to diversify offerings for investors and to reduce its exposure to any one sponsor.

Note 8: SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company performed an evaluation of events that have occurred subsequent to December 31, 2021, and through March 30, 2022, the date this report was available to be issued. There have been no material subsequent events that occurred during such period that would require disclosure in this report or would be required to be recognized in the financial statements as of December 31, 2021.
