LAFISE SECURITIES CORPORATION

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2020

NOTE 1. ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF OPERATIONS

The Company was incorporated under the laws of the State of Florida on June 1, 2001, for the purpose of selling investment products and securities and other financial and business services. The Company's customer base is located worldwide.

NOTE 2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Customers, Broker-Dealers and Marketable Securities

The Company is a registered broker-dealer and maintains its brokerage accounts on a settlement date basis; however, the accompanying financial statements are prepared on a trade date basis using the accrual method of accounting. The Company is an introducing broker, and as such, clears all transactions through a correspondent broker who carries all customer and company accounts and maintains physical custody of customer and company securities. Pursuant to the clearing agreement, the Company is required to maintain a deposit of $100,000 with the clearing broker.

All securities are valued at the quoted market price and unrealized gains and losses are included in "trading loss" in the statement of operations. The Company does not own any restricted or non-marketable securities at December 31, 2020.

Revenue Recognition

For brokerage commissions the Company buys and sells securities on behalf of its customers. Each time a customer enters into a buy or sell transaction, the Company charges a commission. Commissions and related clearing expenses are recorded on a trade date basis (the date that the Company fills the trade order by finding and contracting with a counterparty and confirms the trade with the customer). The Company believes that the performance obligation is satisfied on the trade date because that is when the underlying financial instrument or purchaser is identified, the pricing is agreed upon and the risks and rewards of ownership of the securities have been transferred to/from the customer.

For distribution fees the Company enters into arrangements with managed accounts or other pooled investment vehicles (funds) to distribute shares to investors. The Company may receive distribution fees paid by the fund up front, over time, upon the investor's exit from the fund (that is, a contingent deferred sales charge), or as a combination thereof. The Company believes that its performance obligation is the sale of securities to investors and as such this is fulfilled on the trade date and variable amounts are recognized to the extent it is probable that a significant revenue reversal will not occur once the uncertainty is resolved. For variable amounts, as the uncertainty is dependent on the value of the shares at future points in time as well as the length of time the investor remains in the fund, both of which are highly susceptible to factors outside the Company's influence, the Company does not believe that it can overcome this constraint until the market value of the fund and the investor balances are known, which are usually monthly or quarterly. Distribution fees recognized in the current period are primarily related to performance obligations that have been satisfied in prior periods.

Government and Other Regulation

The Company's business is subject to significant regulation by various government agencies and self-regulatory organizations. Such regulation includes, among other things, periodic examinations by these regulatory bodies to determine whether the Company is conducting and reporting its operations in accordance with the applicable requirements of these organizations.

As a registered broker-dealer, the Company is subject to the SEC's net capital rule (Rule 15(c) 3-1), which requires that the Company maintain a minimum net capital, as defined.

Furniture and Fixtures

Furniture and fixtures are recorded at cost and depreciated on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives, which is five years.

The costs of maintenance and repairs of furniture and fixtures are charged to expense as incurred. Costs of renewals and betterments are capitalized in the proper accounts. When furniture and fixtures are replaced, retired, or otherwise disposed of, the cost of such furniture and fixtures and accumulated depreciation are deducted from the asset and depreciation reserve accounts. The related profit or loss, if any, is recorded in the statement of operations. Depreciation was $1,383 for the year ended December 31, 2020, and is included in other operational expenses in the statement of operations.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company maintains deposits at financial institutions that, from time to time, may exceed federally insured limits. The exposure of the Company from these transactions is solely dependent upon daily account balances and the financial strength of the respective institution. At December 31, 2020, the Company had no deposits in excess of federally insured limits. Amounts due from clearing broker are deemed collectible by management and no reserve for doubtful accounts is required.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles "GAAP", requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Although these estimates are based on management's knowledge of current events and actions it may undertake in the future, they may ultimately differ from actual results.

Financial Instruments with Off-Balance-Sheet Risk

The Company, under its correspondent agreement with its clearing broker, has agreed to indemnify the clearing broker from damages or losses resulting from customer transactions. The Company is therefore exposed to off-balance-sheet risk of loss in the event that customers are unable to fulfill contractual obligations including their obligations under margin accounts. The Company has never been required to make a payment under this indemnification. In addition, the Company believes that it is unlikely it will have to make a material payment under this indemnity and accordingly has not recorded any contingent liability in its financial statements.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The financial position of the Company at December 31, 2020 includes certain financial instruments that may have a fair value that is different from the value currently reflected in the financial statements. In reviewing the financial instruments of the Company, certain assumptions and methods were used to determine the fair value of each category of financial instruments for which it is practicable to estimate that value.

The carrying amounts of the Company's financial instruments generally approximate their fair values at December 31, 2020.

Income Taxes

For income tax purposes, the Company maintains its accounts using the accrual method of accounting. There are no deferred tax assets and liabilities as of December 31, 2020. The Company files its returns under U.S. Federal and State jurisdictions. These returns are subject to income tax examinations by major taxing authorities for the year 2020 and three preceding years.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consists of deposits with banks and all highly liquid investments, with maturities of three months or less.

Leases

The Company accounts for leases in accordance with FASB ASC 842, Leases. This requires a lessee to account for long-term leases as finance or operating leases. Both types of leases result in the lessee recognizing a right-of-use asset and a corresponding lease liability on its statement of financial condition. The Company has elected to adopt an exemption from the recognition and measurement requirements of ASC 842 for short-term leases. Therefore, leases with an initial term of twelve months or less are not recorded on the statement of financial condition. The Company has no long-term leases, and as such, was not required to recognize a right-of-use asset and corresponding lease liability.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2020

NOTE 3. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENT

As a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Company must comply with the provisions of the Commission's "Net Capital" rules, which provide that "aggregate indebtedness", as defined, shall not exceed 15 times "Net Capital", as defined, and the "Net Capital", shall not be less than $100,000. At December 31, 2020, the Company's net capital was $3,316,012, which was $3,216,012 in excess of its required net capital of $100,000. At December 31, 2020, the Company's net capital ratio was .1237 to 1.

NOTE 4. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

The carrying amounts reported in the accompanying statement of financial condition for cash and cash equivalents, due from clearing broker, marketable securities, other assets, accounts payable and accrued expenses, approximate fair value due to the short-term nature of these accounts.

In accordance with GAAP, fair value is defined as the exit price, or the amount that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants as of the measurement date.

GAAP also establishes a hierarchy for inputs used in measuring fair value that maximizes the use of observable inputs and minimizes the use of unobservable inputs by requiring that the most observable inputs be used when available. Observable inputs are inputs market participants would use in valuing the asset or liability and are developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the Company. Unobservable inputs are inputs that reflect the Company's assumptions about the factors market participants would use in valuing the asset or liability. The guidance establishes three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

Level 1 — Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities the Company can access at the measurement date.

Level 2 — Inputs (other than quoted market prices included within Level 1) that are observable, for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly, such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities; quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.

Level 3 — Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability that are supported by little or no market activity and rely on management's assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

A description of the valuation techniques applied to the Company's trading securities owned measured at fair value on a recurring basis is as follows:

Exchange-Traded and Equity Securities: Exchange-traded equity securities are generally valued based on quoted prices from the exchange. To the extent these securities are actively traded, valuation adjustments are not applied, and they are categorized in level 1 of the fair value hierarchy; otherwise they are categorized in level 2 or level 3 of the fair value hierarchy.

Corporate and Foreign Bonds: The fair value of corporate and foreign bonds is determined using recently executed transactions, market price quotations (when observable) and bond spreads obtained from independent external parties, such as vendors and brokers. The spread data used are for the same maturity as the bond. When position-specific external price data are not observable, fair value is determined based on benchmarking to similar instruments or cash flow models with yield curves. Corporate and municipal bonds are generally categorized in level 2 of the fair value hierarchy.

Assets and liabilities are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurements. The Company reviews the fair value hierarchy classification on an annual basis. Changes in the observability of valuation inputs may result in a reclassification of levels for certain securities within the fair value hierarchy.

Trading securities owned are as follows:

Exchange traded and equity securities	$ 497,922
Corporate and foreign bonds	2,460,108
	$2,958,030

Exchange traded and equity securities owned at December 31, 2020, as shown in the accompanying financial statements are valued at market prices and are categorized in level 1 of the fair value hierarchy. Corporate and foreign bonds owned at December 31, 2020, as shown in the accompanying financial statements are valued at market prices, other than quoted market prices included within Level 1 and are categorized in level 2 of the fair value hierarchy.

NOTE 5. FULLY DISCLOSED CLEARING AGREEMENT

The Company has a clearing agreement with its clearing broker to provide execution and clearing services on behalf of its customers on a fully disclosed basis. All customer records and accounts are maintained by the clearing broker. The Company maintains a deposit with its clearing broker in the amount of $100,000, which is included in the "Deposit with Clearing Broker" line of the statement of financial condition. A termination fee may apply if the Company were to terminate its relationship with the current clearing broker. No other deposits are required. The Company does not carry accounts for customers or perform custodial functions related to customers' securities. The Company introduces all of its customer transactions, which are not reflected in these statements to its clearing broker, which maintains the customers accounts and clears such transactions. The off-balance-sheet risks to the Company under this agreement are more fully discussed in Note 2.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2020

NOTE 6. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

In August, 2018 the Company relocated its offices to a temporary location and is renting space on a month to month basis.

Rent expense for the year ended December 31, 2020 amounted to $24,528, which is included in occupancy expense in the statement of operations.

In the ordinary course of business, incidental to the Company's operations, the Company retains outside counsel to address claims with which the Company is involved. As of December 31, 2020, the Company was not aware of any legal proceedings, which management has determined to be material to its business operations.

NOTE 7. DATE OF MANAGEMENT'S REVIEW

Management has evaluated events that have occurred subsequent to December 31, 2020 and through February 25, 2020, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. There have been no subsequent events as of the date of the financial statements were available to be issued which need to be recognized or disclosed in the accompanying financial statements as of December 31, 2020.

NOTE 8. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTION

In January 2019, the Company entered into an expense sharing agreement with a certain affiliate, whereby the Company would reimburse the affiliate for certain expenses $10,000 per month. During the year ended December 31, 2020, the Company reimbursed the affiliate $120,000 under this agreement. In addition during the year ended December 31, 2020, the Company reimbursed this same affiliate 321,520 in general operating expenses which have been included in their respective expense categories.

NOTE 9. COVID-19

On March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization declared the coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak a pandemic. While it is premature to accurately predict how COVID-19 will ultimately affect the Company's operations long-term, the Company's ongoing profitability may experience instability and estimates included in the financial statements may be adversely impacted due to current political and economic conditions as a result of public health concerns related to COVID-19. The duration and intensity of these impacts and resulting disruption to which these events affect the Company's business will depend on future developments, which are highly uncertain and cannot be predicted at this time.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about Lafise Securities Corporation's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
