Scenario Analysis and Hypothetical Examples of Payment at Maturity

The table below illustrates the payment at maturity for a $10.00 Note principal amount for a hypothetical range of performance for the Index return from -100% to +100% and assumes an Index Starting Level of 1228.30 and an Absolute Return Barrier of 17.75% (the actual Index Starting Level will be determined on the Trade Date). The following results are based solely on the hypothetical example cited. You should consider carefully whether the Notes are suitable to your investment goals. The numbers appearing in the table below have been rounded for ease of analysis.

Hypothetical Examples of Amounts Payable at Maturity

The following hypothetical examples illustrate how the total returns set forth in the table above are calculated.

Example 1: The Absolute Peak Index Level of 1375.70 represents a 12% increase above the Index Starting Level of 1228.30, and the Index Closing Level never exceeds the Upper Index Barrier or falls below the Lower Index Barrier on any trading day during the Observation Period. Because the Index Closing Level never exceeds the Upper Index Barrier or falls below the Lower Index Barrier, the final payment at maturity is equal to $11.20 per $10.00 Note principal amount, representing a total return of 12% on the Notes.

Payment at maturity per $10.00 Note principal amount = $10.00 + Absolute value of $($10.00 \times [(1375.70 - 1228.30) / 1228.30]) = \11.20

Example 2: The Absolute Peak Index Level of 1080.90 represents a 12% decline from the Index Starting Level of 1228.30, and the Index Closing Level never exceeds the Upper Index Barrier or falls below the Lower Index Barrier on any trading day during the Observation Period. Because the Index Closing Level never exceeds the Upper Index Barrier or falls below the Lower Index Barrier, the final payment at maturity is equal to $11.20 per $10.00 Note principal amount, representing a total return of 12% on the Notes.

Payment at maturity per $10.00 Note principal amount = $10.00 + Absolute value of $($10.00 \times [(1080.90 - 1228.30) / 1228.30]) = \11.20

Example 3: The level of the Index closes above the Upper Index Barrier on at least one trading day during the Observation Period and the Absolute Peak Index Return is 10%. Because the level of the Index has closed above the Upper Index Barrier on at least one trading day during the Observation Period, the final payment at maturity is equal to $9.70 per $10.00 Note principal amount regardless of the Absolute Peak Index Return.

Payment at maturity per $10.00 Note principal amount = $9.70

Example 4: The level of the Index closes below the Lower Index Barrier on at least one trading day during the Observation Period and the Absolute Peak Index Return is 10%. Because the level of the Index has closed below the Lower Index Barrier on at least one trading day during the Observation Period, the final payment at maturity is equal to $9.70 per $10.00 Note principal amount regardless of the Absolute Peak Index Level.

Payment at maturity per $10.00 Note principal amount = $9.70

What are the tax consequences of the Notes?

You should review carefully the section in the accompanying product supplement entitled “Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences.” The notes should be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as short-term debt obligations. No statutory, judicial or administrative authority directly addresses the treatment of the notes or similar instruments for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and we do not plan to request a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”). As a result, certain aspects of the tax treatment of an investment in the notes are uncertain.

Under current law, the United Kingdom will not impose withholding tax on payments made with respect to the notes.

For a discussion of certain German tax considerations relating to the notes, you should refer to the section in the accompanying prospectus supplement entitled “Taxation by Germany of Non-Resident Holders.”

Neither we nor UBS Financial Services Inc. provides any advice on tax matters. You should consult your tax adviser regarding all aspects of the U.S. federal tax consequences of investing in the notes, as well as any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, local or non-U.S. taxing jurisdiction.

Selected Purchase Considerations

- ◆ PRESERVATION OF CAPITAL AT MATURITY—You will receive at least 97% of the principal amount of your Notes, subject to the credit of the issuer, provided that you hold the Notes to maturity, regardless of the performance of the Index. Because the Notes are our senior unsecured obligations, payment of any amount at maturity remains subject to our ability to pay our obligations as they become due.
- ◆ EXPOSURE TO ABSOLUTE RETURN—If the Index closing level never exceeds the Upper Index Barrier and never falls below the Lower Index Barrier, in addition to return of your principal, at maturity you will receive, for each $10.00 Note principal amount, a payment equal to $10.00 x the Absolute Peak Index Return. The Absolute Peak Index Return is the greatest absolute Index return achieved on any trading day during the Observation Period, and thus is positive regardless of whether the Index return is positive or negative. Thus, the Notes provide higher returns when the Index Closing Levels during the Observation Period remain between the Upper Index Barrier and the Lower Index Barrier (i.e., within the Absolute Return Barrier) than when there are large movements, whether positive or negative, in the Index level that cause the Index Closing Level to exceed the Upper Index Barrier or fall below the Lower Index Barrier on any trading day during the Observation Period.
- ◆ RETURN LINKED TO THE PERFORMANCE OF THE S&P 500® INDEX—The return on the Notes is linked to the performance of the S&P 500® Index. The S&P 500® Index is intended to provide a performance benchmark for the U.S. equity market.

Key Risks

- ◆ MARKET RISK—The return on the Notes at maturity, if any, is linked to the performance of the Index and will depend on whether the Index Closing Level ever exceeds the Upper Index Barrier or falls below the Lower Index Barrier during the Observation Period and the magnitude of the Absolute Peak Index Return. YOU WILL RECEIVE ONLY 97% OF THE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF YOUR NOTES AT MATURITY, SUBJECT TO THE CREDIT OF THE ISSUER, IF THE INDEX CLOSING LEVEL EXCEEDS THE UPPER INDEX BARRIER OR FALLS BELOW THE LOWER INDEX BARRIER ON ANY TRADING DAY DURING THE OBSERVATION PERIOD.
- ◆ THE NOTES MAY NOT PAY MORE THAN 97% OF THE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT, SUBJECT TO THE CREDIT OF THE ISSUER—You may receive a lower payment at maturity than you would have received if you had invested in the Index, the component stocks underlying the Index or contracts related to the Index. If the Index Closing Level exceeds the Upper Index Barrier or falls below the Lower Index Barrier on any trading day during the Observation Period, you will receive only 97% of your principal amount at maturity, subject to the credit of the issuer.
- ◆ THE ABSOLUTE RETURN BARRIER FEATURE WILL LIMIT YOUR RETURN ON THE NOTES AND MAY AFFECT YOUR PAYMENT AT MATURITY—Your investment in the Notes may not perform as well as an investment in a security with a return based solely on the performance of the Index. Your ability to participate in the performance of the Index is limited by the Absolute Return Barrier feature of the Notes. If the Index Closing Level exceeds the Upper Index Barrier or falls below the Lower Index Barrier on any trading day during the Observation Period, the return on the Notes will not be determined by reference to the Absolute Peak Index Return even though the Absolute Peak Index Return may reflect significant appreciation or depreciation in the Index over the term of the Notes (the Absolute Peak Index Return is the greatest absolute Index return achieved on any trading day during the Observation Period, and thus is positive regardless of whether the Index return is positive or negative). Because the Absolute Return Barrier will be 17.75% of the Index Starting Level, the maximum return on the Notes is limited to 17.75% of the principal amount.
- ◆ NO PERIODIC INTEREST OR DIVIDEND PAYMENTS OR VOTING RIGHTS—As a holder of the Notes, you will not receive periodic interest payments, and you will not have voting rights or rights to receive cash dividends or other distributions or other rights that holders of the component stocks underlying the Index would have.
- ◆ THE NOTES HAVE CERTAIN BUILT IN COSTS—While the payment at maturity described in this term sheet is based on the full principal amount of your Notes, the original issue price of the Notes includes the agent’s commission and the cost of hedging our obligations under the Notes through one or more of our affiliates. As a result, the price, if any, at which Deutsche Bank AG or our affiliates or agents will be willing to purchase Notes from you, prior to maturity, in secondary market transactions, if at all, will likely be lower than the original issue price and any such sale prior to the maturity date could result in a substantial loss to you. The Notes are not designed to be short-term trading instruments. Accordingly, you should be willing and able to hold your Notes to maturity.
- ◆ LACK OF LIQUIDITY—The Notes will not be listed on any securities exchange. Deutsche Bank AG or its affiliates or agents intend to offer to purchase the Notes in the secondary market but are not required to do so and may cease such market making activities at any time. Even if there is a secondary market, it may not provide enough liquidity to allow you to trade or sell the Notes easily. Because other dealers are not likely to make a secondary market for the Notes, the price at which you may be able to trade your Notes is likely to depend on the price, if any, at which Deutsche Bank AG or its affiliates or agents are willing to buy the Notes.

- ♦ WE AND OUR AFFILIATES AND AGENTS MAY PUBLISH RESEARCH, EXPRESS OPINIONS OR PROVIDE RECOMMENDATIONS THAT MAY BE INCONSISTENT WITH INVESTING IN OR HOLDING THE NOTES. ANY SUCH RESEARCH, OPINIONS OR RECOMMENDATIONS COULD AFFECT THE LEVEL OF THE INDEX TO WHICH THE NOTES ARE LINKED OR THE MARKET VALUE OF THE NOTES—Deutsche Bank AG, its affiliates and agents publish research from time to time on financial markets and other matters that may influence the value of the Notes, or express opinions or provide recommendations that may be inconsistent with purchasing or holding the Notes. Any research, opinions or recommendations expressed by Deutsche Bank AG, its affiliates or agents may not be consistent with each other and may be modified from time to time without notice. Investors should make their own independent investigation of the merits of investing in the Notes and the Index to which the Notes are linked.
- ♦ POTENTIAL CONFLICTS—We and our affiliates play a variety of roles in connection with the issuance of the Notes, including acting as calculation agent and hedging our obligations under the Notes. In performing these duties, the economic interests of the calculation agent and other affiliates of ours are potentially adverse to your interests as an investor in the Notes.
- ♦ MANY ECONOMIC AND MARKET FACTORS WILL IMPACT THE VALUE OF THE NOTES—In addition to the level of the Index on any day, the value of the Notes will be affected by a number of complex and interrelated economic and market factors that may either offset or magnify each other, including:
 - ♦ whether the Index has closed above the Upper Index Barrier or below the Lower Index Barrier;
 - ♦ the expected volatility of the Index;
 - ♦ the time to maturity of the Notes;
 - ♦ the market price and dividend rate on the component stocks underlying the Index;
 - ♦ interest and yield rates in the market generally and in the markets of the component stocks underlying the Index;
 - ♦ a variety of economic, financial, political, regulatory or judicial events;
 - ♦ the composition of the Index and any changes to the component stocks underlying it;
 - ♦ supply and demand for the Notes; and
 - ♦ our creditworthiness, including actual or anticipated downgrades in our credit ratings.
- ♦ THE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF AN INVESTMENT IN THE NOTES ARE UNCLEAR—No statutory, judicial or administrative authority directly addresses the treatment of the notes or similar instruments for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and we do not plan to request a ruling from the IRS. As a result, certain aspects of the tax treatment of an investment in the notes are uncertain. You should consult your tax adviser regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of investing in the notes, as well as any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, local or non-U.S. taxing jurisdiction. Please read carefully the section of the accompanying product supplement entitled “Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences.”

The S&P 500® Index

"The S&P 500® Index" is published by Standard & Poor's, a division of The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc. As discussed more fully in underlying supplement No. 1, the S&P 500® Index is intended to provide a performance benchmark for the U.S. equity markets. The calculation of the value of the S&P 500® Index is based on the relative value of the aggregate market value of the common stock of 500 companies as of a particular time compared to the aggregate average market value of the common stocks of 500 similar companies during the base period of the years 1941 through 1943. Ten main groups of companies comprise the S&P 500® Index, with the number of companies included in each group as of July 14, 2008 indicated below: Consumer Discretionary (84); Consumer Staples (41); Energy (39); Financials (89); Health Care (52); Industrials (55); Information Technology (71); Materials (29); Telecommunications Services (9); and Utilities (31).

You can obtain the level of the S&P 500® Index at any time on the Bloomberg Financial Markets Page "SPX<Index><GO>" or from the S&P website at www.standardandpoors.com.

The graph below illustrates the performance of the S&P 500® Index from January 1, 1998 to July 14, 2008. The historical levels of the S&P 500® Index should not be taken as an indication of future performance. The Upper Index Barrier and Lower Index Barrier are shown on the graph assuming an Index Starting level of 1228.30, which was the closing level of the S&P 500® Index on July 14, 2008, and an Absolute Return Barrier of 17.75% (the actual Index Starting Level will be determined on the Trade Date).

The information on the S&P 500® Index provided in this free writing prospectus should be read together with the discussion under the heading "The S&P 500® Index" in underlying supplement No. 1. Information contained in the S&P website and Bloomberg Financial Markets page referenced above is not incorporated by reference herein.

Supplemental Underwriting Information
