Dear Mr. Honglin:

We have reviewed your October 22, 2015 response to our comment letter and have the following comments. In some of our comments, we may ask you to provide us with information so we may better understand your disclosure.

Please respond to these comments within ten business days by providing the requested information, or advise us as soon as possible when you will respond. If you do not believe our comments apply to your facts and circumstances, please tell us why in your response.

After reviewing your response to these comments, we may have additional comments. Unless we note otherwise, our references to prior comments are to comments in our September 24, 2015 letter.

Exhibits

1. Please provided an expanded response to prior comment 1 to explain more clearly why you have not filed the agreements governing your loans and the instruments governing your medium notes and long term bonds as exhibits, given your financial condition as at and for the year ended December 31, 2014. Your response should address your aggregate medium and long term indebtedness and explain clearly why the indebtedness should not be consolidated for the purposes of disclosure and Instruction 2(b)(i).
