On March 31, 2006, the prosecutor's office of the Canton of Zurich, Switzerland charged 19 people for their alleged roles in the events surrounding the bankruptcy of SAirGroup, the parent company of the former Swiss Air. The people charged were former officers, directors and advisers of SAirGroup, including Jacquelyn Fouse, Senior Vice President of Finance and Chief Financial Officer of Alcon, Inc. ("Alcon"). She was charged with alleged mismanagement, unfaithful business conduct and favoring creditors prior to bankruptcy. Ms. Fouse served as Chief Financial Officer of SAirGroup from July 2001 to May 2002. SAirGroup filed for bankruptcy pursuant to the laws of Switzerland on October 4, 2001, and was granted protection from creditors on October 5, 2001, approximately three months after Ms. Fouse joined the company as part of the reorganization management team. The matters referenced in the charges do not relate to Alcon and predate Ms. Fouse's employment with Alcon. Ms. Fouse has informed Alcon's management and board of directors that she intends to enter a plea of not guilty with the Swiss court.
