1. NATURE AND CONTINUANCE OF BUSINESS

The Company was previously in the mining business, operating as a junior mining company. On April 6, 2001, the Company changed its name from Royal Rock Ventures Inc. to Bi-Optic Ventures Inc. The Company is evaluating other business interests and projects. The financial statements have been prepared on the basis of accounting principles applicable to a going concern, which assumes that the Company will continue its operations and will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent upon, among other things, the continued financial support of the related parties and its ability to obtain the necessary financing for working capital, and ultimately upon its ability to generate future profitable operations.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

a) Amortization

Capital assets are recorded at cost and are amortized over their estimated useful lives at 20% - 30% declining basis. Further, only one-half the amortization is taken on assets acquired during the year.

b) Financial Instruments

The company's financial instruments consist primarily of cash, GST recoverable, accounts receivable, prepaid expenses, amounts due by related parties and accounts payable, and have their fair market values approximating their carrying values.

c) Loss Per Share

Loss per share has been calculated based on the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per share considers the dilutive impact of the conversion of outstanding stock options and warrants as if the events had occurred at the beginning of the period.

d) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

3. SHARE CAPITAL

a) Authorized

100,000,000 Common shares without par value.

b) Issued and fully paid

	Number of shares	Amount

c) Shares held in Escrow

As at May 31, 2002, there were no shares held in escrow
(Feb. 28, 2002-Nil).

d) Share Purchase Warrants

Pursuant to the private placement of 1,200,000 common shares at $0.10 per share, 1,200,000 non-transferable share purchase warrants were issued which entitle the holders to purchase 1,200,000 shares at $0.10 per share for a two year period to January 3, 2004.

e) Stock Options

There were no stock options outstanding as at May 31, 2002, (Feb. 28, 2002-Nil).

4. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

a) During the period the Company paid management fees of $7,500 (2001 - $15,000), rent, accounting and professional services of $9,500 (2001 - $6,500) to companies controlled by directors.

b) The amount due to and loans from related parties are non-interest bearing, unsecured, and are repayable after March 31, 2003. The amount due by related parties of $1,500 is non interest bearing, unsecured, and repayable on demand.

5. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Subsequent to May 31, 2002, 250,000 share purchase warrants were exercised to net the Company $25,000.

6. DIFFERENCES BETWEEN GENERALLY ACCEPTED ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES IN CANADA AND THE UNITED STATES

The Company follows Canadian generally accepted accounting principles which are different in some respects from those applicable in the United States as follows:

(a) Loss Per Share

FASB 128 requires that the Company report basic loss per share, as well as diluted loss per share. Under US GAAP basic loss per share is calculated by dividing loss over the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the year. The weighted average number of common shares outstanding excludes any shares that remain in escrow, but may be earned out based on the Company meeting certain performance criteria. Under Canadian GAAP the calculation of basic loss per share is similar except that escrowed shares are included in determining the weighted average number of shares outstanding. Diluted loss per share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue common stock were exercised.

There were no outstanding stock options and shares held under escrow at May 31, 2002, February 28, 2002 and May 31, 2001.

	May 31, 2002	Feb 28, 2002	May 31, 2001

6. DIFFERENCES BETWEEN GENERALLY ACCEPTED ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES IN CANADA AND THE UNITED STATES - continued

b) Impairment Losses

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 121 (the statement) requires that long-lived assets and certain identifiable intangibles to be held and used by an entity be reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. In performing the review for recoverability, the Company should estimate future cash flows expected to result from the asset and its eventual disposition. If the sum of the expected future undiscounted cash flows is less than the carrying amount of the asset, an impairment loss is recognized. Impairment losses resulting from the application of the statement should be reported in the period in which the recognition criteria are met. The Company's long lived assets are capital assets.

c) Stock Options

The Company follows APB 25 for options granted to employees and directors. For employees and directors, compensation expense is recognized under the intrinsic value method. Under this method, compensation cost is the excess, if any, of the quoted market price at grant date over the exercise price. Such expense is reflected over the service period; if for prior services, expensed at date of grant; if for future services, expensed over vesting period. There were no stock options granted or outstanding at May 31, 2002 and 2001, and at February 28, 2002.
