GOLD FIELDS BOARD URGES SHAREHOLDERS TO REJECT HARMONY OFFER AND TO VOTE FOR THE REVERSE TAKEOVER OF IAMGOLD TO CREATE GOLD FIELDS INTERNATIONAL

Statement by the Gold Fields Board

NOVEMBER 19TH 2004,

"GOLD FIELDS IS A COMPELLING INVESTMENT WITH SIGNIFICANT OPPORTUNITY"

The Board of Gold Fields (the 'Board') wishes to re-affirm its commitment to a sustainable and active strategy for growth and value creation for shareholders. Gold Fields is in robust financial health: liquid, unhedged and internationally diversified.

Our sustainable cost reduction and revenue enhancement programmes in South Africa, introduced earlier this year and designed to generate annual cost savings of R300 million and a revenue uplift of R400 million, are already beginning to generate improved margins and higher operating profits.

Our international portfolio is developing rapidly. We have a low risk, high impact project pipeline as well as a highly prospective exploration programme with projects in all of the major exploration regions of the world. We are well positioned to produce an additional 1.5 million ounces per annum within five years from our existing pipeline of international growth projects.

The prospects for the continued, sustainable generation of further shareholder value through the growth of Gold Fields, both in South Africa and internationally, are exciting. Therefore the Board is committed to providing Gold Fields shareholders with alternative options to the unsolicited and value destroying offer from Harmony, and to continue to maximise value for all Gold Fields' shareholders.

The proposed reverse takeover of IAMGold by Gold Fields, to create Gold Fields International as the 70% owned and controlled international subsidiary and growth vehicle of Gold Fields, is part of the ongoing internationalisation strategy of Gold Fields, aimed at creating a truly competitive global player in the gold industry. The Board is unwavering in its belief in the benefits, strategic rationale and value of the proposed transaction for Gold Fields' shareholders.

However, given the recent unexpected relaxation of South African exchange control legislation, it is clear that some shareholders now have reservations about the terms of the proposed transaction. Shareholders should also be aware that Norilsk Nickel has provided Harmony with an irrevocable undertaking to vote their 20% stake in Gold Fields against the completion of the transaction.

Based on our agreement with IAMGold, dated 30th September 2004, Gold Fields is committed to bringing the transaction to a vote of Gold Fields' shareholders and using its reasonable commercial endeavours to obtain shareholder approval by the required majority of 50%.

If the vote of shareholders on December 7th is in favour of the transaction, then IAMGold will be renamed Gold Fields International and become the 70% owned and controlled international subsidiary and growth vehicle of Gold Fields.

Although we remain committed to the creation of Gold Fields International through the reverse takeover of IAMGold, our internationalisation strategy does not depend on it.

Should Gold Fields' shareholders vote against the transaction, then, following the termination of Gold Fields' agreement with IAMGold in accordance with the terms of that agreement, and subject to the necessary approvals, the Board will move rapidly to implement alternative strategies to ensure that the inherent value of Gold Fields' international assets can be secured for Gold Fields' shareholders, rather than for the benefit of Harmony's shareholders.

In conclusion, Gold Fields acknowledges the concerns of the shareholders of both Gold Fields and Harmony; of our employees and their unions; and of the South African Government: that the current situation is bad for both companies, bad for employees, bad for the gold mining industry, and bad for South Africa. The Harmony offer in its current form is high risk for all stakeholders; value destroying for both Gold Fields and Harmony shareholders; and most certainly not in the best interests of Gold Fields shareholders. The offer is coercive and undermining of the most basic principles of shareholder democracy.

The Board has repeatedly called on Harmony to withdraw its two-stage offer and so to create an appropriate environment for constructive talks to take place. To date no such gesture of goodwill has been forthcoming from Harmony.

From 18 October, the date of the announcement of the hostile offer, to the close of business in Johannesburg on 16 November 2004, more than R10 billion rand of shareholder value has been destroyed as the share prices of both Harmony and Gold Fields have plummeted, despite the strongly rising gold price.

Your Board is committed to maximize value for Gold Fields' shareholders.

We urge you to support our continued efforts in this regard.

We urge you:

- to protect the value you have in your Gold Fields shares;
- to reject Harmony's derisory offer; and
- not to tender your shares to Harmony.
