MEDIA RELEASE

Overwhelming majority of Gold Fields' Shareholders say "No" to Harmony

Johannesburg, 29 November 2004. The Board of Directors (the "Board") of Gold Fields Limited (GFI:JSE and NYSE) today welcomed the fact that the overwhelming majority of its long term shareholders had opted to reject Harmony's Early Settlement Offer which closed on Friday 26th September.

Ian Cockerill, Chief Executive Officer of Gold Fields, commented:

"The low take-up of this offer is a clear indication that our shareholders recognise that Harmony's Offer falls woefully short on value. The fact that only 10.8% of shares were tendered signals that Harmony will never be successful in gaining control of the company with such an undervalued and ill-conceived offer. I would like to thank shareholders for this expression of their support."

"Investors in Gold Fields own an impressive array of assets with great prospects, domestically and internationally. They are not going to give these up for a 'low ball' offer."

"Harmony is in a no-win situation. They cannot vote any of the shares they have acquired. Their offer does not provide our long-term shareholders anything that resembles value, just Harmony's over valued shares, no cash and no control premium. Harmony should withdraw the offer and concentrate on addressing its own problems and not seek to transfer them to our shareholders."

On Friday, the Competition Appeal Court interdicted and restrained Harmony or any third party from voting or exercising any rights attaching to any Gold Fields shares which Harmony may acquire under the early settlement offer or otherwise until approval for the early settlement offer has been obtained from the competition authorities.
