MEDIA RELEASE

GOLD FIELDS WELCOMES DECISION BY SOUTH AFRICAN HIGH COURT

Johannesburg, 6 December, 2004. The Board of Directors of Gold Fields Limited (GFI: NYSE and JSE) welcomes today's decision by the High Court of South Africa in respect of its ability to vote ordinary shares underlying the American Depositary Shares (ADSs) for which no voting instructions have been received by the Bank of New York ("BoNY").

The Court's favourable ruling today, means that Gold Fields is fully entitled to vote the ordinary shares underlying any ADSs for which no voting instructions had been received by BoNY at the Gold Fields Extraordinary General Meeting on 7th December.

Gold Fields notes that Harmony Gold Mining Limited also had failed last week in a related application in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York to gain a temporary restraining order and a preliminary injunction to prevent BoNY from issuing Gold Fields with a discretionary proxy, covering its ADSs.

Gold Fields' Chief Executive Officer Ian Cockerill stated, "Today's decision in South Africa is in line with international practice, and it removes any vestige of doubt about the propriety of voting on behalf of our ADS holders who have not returned proxy votes. Our proxy forms state clearly that this is the procedure – as it is for most companies with American Depositary Shares on issue, and our ADS holders fully expect us to follow it."
