MEDIA RELEASE

GOLD FIELDS SELLS ITS VENEZUELA ASSETS FOR US$532 MILLION

Johannesburg, 12 October 2007: Gold Fields Limited (Gold Fields) (NYSE, JSE, DIFX: GFI) is pleased to announce that agreement has been reached in terms of which Gold Fields will effectively dispose of its assets in Venezuela to Rusoro Mining Ltd. (Rusoro) (TSXV: RML), for a total consideration of approximately US$532* million.

Rusoro will pay Gold Fields a minimum of US$150 million in cash, US$30 million in convertible debt, and 140 million Rusoro shares, which will be approximately 38% of the outstanding shares of that Company after the transaction has been concluded.

The transaction includes Rusoro acquiring Gold Fields' stake in the Choco 10 gold mine, as well as the contiguous mineral rights owned by Gold Fields.

Ian Cockerill, Chief Executive Officer of Gold Fields said:

"Additional capital investment is required to realise the full potential of the Choco 10 gold mine. However, after careful consideration we have concluded that, given the current environment, this investment is better made by others, with Gold Fields retaining exposure to the upside inherent in the assets."

"The offer from Rusoro has presented us with an attractive opportunity to achieve this objective, as well as a return of approximately 25% on our total investment of US$425 million."

The proceeds from the sale will be reinvested to create value for Gold Fields' shareholders. Options under consideration include, inter alia, debt reduction and the funding of Gold Fields' extensive capital investment portfolio.

Cockerill added that while this sale reduced Gold Fields' international footprint, the Company remained fully committed to its strategy of international growth: "We have definitely not changed course and our aspiration to grow our international portfolio with appropriately sized, value adding assets, remain as strong as ever."

* Based on the 10-day VWAP of the Rusoro share price

The transaction is subject to various conditions, including South African Reserve Bank and Rusoro stock exchange approvals, the raising of the required funding by Rusoro, as well as approval by Rusoro shareholders, more than 50% of whom has given written irrevocable support to the transaction. Rusoro and Gold Fields expect the transaction to close in early December 2007.

Orion Securities Inc. acted as exclusive financial advisor and McCarthy Tétrault LLP acted as legal advisor to Gold Fields.
