AMD Capital, LLC

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2023

1. Nature of Business

AMD Capital, LLC (The Company) is in the business of capital raising advisory services. The Company was formed March 1, 2002 and will continue operations perpetually unless terminated in accordance with the operating agreement.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

Cash and equivalents

For the purposes of the Statement of Cash Flows, the Company considers all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from these estimates.

Property and Equipment

Property and Equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation is computed using the straight line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets. The cost of repairs and maintenance is expensed as incurred. Depreciation expense was $2,464 for the year ended December 31, 2023.

Income Taxes

The Company has elected to be taxed as a partnership under the Internal Revenue Code. Under those provisions, the Company does not pay federal income taxes, instead, the limited liability members include their respective shares of the Company's income in their individual income tax returns.

The Company files income taxes in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and various state jurisdictions. The Company is no longer subject to the U.S. federal income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2019.

The Company has elected to remit the Illinois Pass-Through Entity tax on behalf of its partners. This election allows the company to remit the individual partners income tax liability based on their respective share of the company's annual income. The company remitted $560,000 of Illinois Pass Through Entity tax for the 2023 tax year.

Revenue Recognition

AMD Capital will represent and market each Client Firm's services and products to large institutions, investment consultants, intermediaries, and others – for the direct purpose of increasing assets under management with the Client Firm. AMD Capital will receive a portion of the asset management fees generated as its fee. AMD Capital may also receive a retainer or fee for consulting services. Fees are not receivable until the Client Firm is successful in collecting fees for the investor.

Accounts Receivable

The Company uses the specific identification method to determine uncollectable accounts receivable. At December 31, 2023 the Company considers all accounts receivable to be collectable.

3. Commitments

The Company no longer leases any office space.

4. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Security and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1). Under this rule, the Company is required to maintain net capital equivalent of $5,000 or 6-2/3 percent of aggregate indebtedness, whichever is greater

AMD Capital, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2023

Net Capital and Aggregate indebtedness changes daily but at December 31, 2023, the Company has adjusted Net Capital and Net Capital requirements of $18,227 and $5,000, respectively.

5. Major Customers

At December 31, 2023, there were no significant accounts receivable concentrations. During 2023, two clients accounted for 62.5% and 32.8% of total revenue, respectively. No other client accounted for more than 10% of 2023 revenue.

6. Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company maintains cash balances at a Chicago financial institution. The account is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. At December 31, 2023, the entire balance was insured.

7. Retirement Plans

During 2006, the Company formed two retirement plans, a cash balance profit sharing plan and a 401(k) plan. Contributions to the cash balance profit sharing plan are based on the annual earnings of the Company's members and employees, subject to maximum earnings amount determined by the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions to the 401(k) plan include participant deferrals and a discretionary company contribution. There were contributions of $125,500 in discretionary contributions for 2023.

8. Subsequent Events

The Company did not have any subsequent events through January 29, 2024, which was the date the financial statements were available to be issued for events requiring recording or disclosure in the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2023.
