Item 9. Changes in and Disagreements with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure, page 42

1. We note your disclosure regarding your disagreement with your predecessor auditors. Please provide us with a more detailed discussion of the nature of your disagreement. In your response, tell us how you accounted for your Series D Convertible Preferred Stock and explain to us how that accounting differs from your accounting for your Series E, E-1 and E-2 Convertible Preferred Stock. We urge all who are responsible for the accuracy and adequacy of the disclosure in the filing to be certain that the filing includes the information the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and all applicable Exchange Act rules require. Since the company and its management are in possession of all facts relating to a company's disclosure, they are responsible for the accuracy and adequacy of the disclosures they have made.

In responding to our comments, please provide a written statement from the company acknowledging that:

- the company is responsible for the adequacy and accuracy of the disclosure in the filing;
- staff comments or changes to disclosure in response to staff comments do not foreclose the Commission from taking any action with respect to the filing; and
- the company may not assert staff comments as a defense in any proceeding initiated by the Commission or any person under the federal securities laws of the United States.

You may contact Howard Efron, Staff Accountant, at (202) 551-3439 or the undersigned at (202) 551-3438 if you have questions regarding comments on the financial statements and related matters.

Sincerely,
