Independent Auditors' Report

To the Partners of Behringer Harvard
Mid-Term Value Enhancement Fund I LP:

We have audited the accompanying statement of revenues and certain operating expenses (the "Historical Summary") of the ASC Building, an office building located in Richardson, Texas (the "Property") for the year ended December 31, 2004. This Historical Summary is the responsibility of the Property's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Historical Summary based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Historical Summary is free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Property's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the Historical Summary, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the Historical Summary. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The accompanying Historical Summary was prepared for purposes of complying with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (for inclusion in the Form 8-K/A of Behringer Harvard Mid-Term Value Enhancement Fund I LP) as described in Note 1 to the Historical Summary and is not intended to be a complete presentation of the Property's revenues and expenses.

In our opinion, the Historical Summary presents fairly, in all material respects, the revenues and certain expenses described in Note 1 to the Historical Summary of the Property for the year ended December 31, 2004, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

ASC Building
Notes to the Statements of Revenues and Certain Expenses
For the Nine Months Ended September 30, 2005 and
For the Year Ended December 31, 2004

1. Basis of Presentation

On December 21, 2005, Behringer Harvard Mid-Term Value Enhancement Fund I LP (the "Partnership") acquired a single-story suburban office building containing approximately 28,880 (unaudited) rentable square feet located on approximately 2.2 acres of land at 1401 North Plano Road in Richardson, Texas, a suburb of Dallas (the "ASC Building").

The statements of revenues and certain expenses (the "Historical Summaries") have been prepared for the purpose of complying with the provisions of Article 3-14 of Regulation S-X promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), which requires certain information with respect to real estate operations to be included with certain filings with the SEC. These Historical Summaries include the historical revenues and certain operating expenses of the ASC Building, exclusive of items which may not be comparable to the proposed future operations of the ASC Building.

The statement of revenues and certain operating expenses and notes thereto for the nine months ended September 30, 2005 included in this report are unaudited. In the opinion of management, all adjustments necessary for a fair presentation of such statement of revenues and certain operating expenses have been included. Such adjustments consisted of normal recurring items. Interim results are not necessarily indicative of results for a full year.

2. Principles of Reporting and Use of Estimates

The presentation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenue and certain expenses during the reporting period. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

3. Significant Accounting Policies

Revenue Recognition

The ASC Building's operations consist of rental income earned from its sole tenant under a lease agreement which provides for minimum rent payments. The lease has been accounted for as an operating lease. Rental income is recognized by amortizing the aggregate lease payments on a straight-line basis over the entire term of the lease, including the effect of any rent holidays, which amounted to an increase in rental income of approximately $10,965 (unaudited) for the nine months ended September 30, 2005, and an increase in rental income of approximately $14,620 for the year ended December 31, 2004.

Reimbursement income consists of recovery of certain basic operating costs over an established base amount. Recoveries are recognized as revenue in the period the applicable costs are incurred.

4. Leases

The aggregate annual minimum future rental income on the non-cancelable operating lease in effect as of December 31, 2004 is as follows:

2005	$	418,940
2006		418,940
2007		418,940
2008		418,940
2009		418,940

The minimum future rental income represents the base rent required to be paid under the terms of the leases exclusive of charges for contingent rents, electric services, real estate taxes and operating cost escalations.

5. Concentrations and Commitments

The ASC Building has a single tenant that represents 100% of the rental income of the building.

Unaudited Pro Forma Consolidated Financial Information

On December 21, 2005, we acquired the ASC Building, a single-story suburban office building containing approximately 28,880 rentable square feet, located on approximately 2.2 acres of land in Richardson, Texas, a suburb of Dallas, through our direct and indirect partnership interests in Behringer Harvard 1401 North Plano Road LP. The contract purchase price of the ASC Building was $3,950,000, excluding closing costs. We used proceeds from our public offering of limited partnership units, which ended on February 19, 2005, to pay the entire purchase price and all closing costs of the acquisition.

In the opinion of our management, all material adjustments necessary to reflect the effects of the above transaction have been made.

Unaudited Pro Forma Consolidated Balance Sheet

- a. Reflects our historical balance sheet as of September 30, 2005.
- b. Reflects the acquisition of the ASC Building by us for $4,095,768. We allocated its purchase price to the assets and liabilities below and estimated the remaining useful lives of its tangible and intangible assets as follows:

Description	Allocation	Estimated Useful Life
Land	$ 586,567
Building	2,917,910	25 years
Below market lease, net	(163,048)	4.83 years
Tenant improvements, leasing commissions & legal fees	381,754	4.83 years
In-place leases	144,181	4.83 years
Tenant relationship	238,645	9.83 years
Prepaid insurance	434
Prepaid rent	(10,675)
	$ 4,095,768

We allocated the purchase price to the above tangible and identified intangible assets based on their fair values in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141, “Business Combinations” and No. 142, “Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets” as follows:

The fair value of the tangible assets acquired, consisting of land and buildings, is determined by valuing the property as if it were vacant, and the “as-if-vacant” value is then allocated to land and buildings. Land values are derived from appraisals, and building values are calculated as replacement cost less depreciation or management’s estimates of the relative fair value of these assets using discounted cash flow analyses or similar methods. The value of the building is depreciated over the estimated useful life of 25 years using the straight-line method.

We determine the value of above-market and below-market in-place leases for acquired properties based on the present value (using an interest rate that reflects the risks associated with the leases acquired) of the difference between (i) the contractual amounts to be paid pursuant to the in-place leases and (ii) management’s estimate of current market lease rates for the corresponding in-place leases, measured over a period equal to the remaining non-cancelable terms of the respective leases. We record the fair value of above-market and below-market leases as intangible assets or intangible liabilities, respectively, and amortize them as an adjustment to rental income over the remaining non-cancelable terms of the respective leases.

The total value of identified real estate intangible assets acquired is further allocated to in-place lease values, in-place tenant improvements, in-place leasing commissions and tenant relationships based on our evaluation of the specific characteristics of each tenant’s lease and our overall relationship with that respective tenant. The aggregate value for tenant improvements and leasing commissions is based on estimates of these costs incurred at inception of the acquired leases, amortized through the date of acquisition. The aggregate value of in-place leases acquired and tenant relationships is determined by applying a fair value model. The estimates of fair value of in-place leases include an estimate of carrying costs during the expected lease-up periods for the respective spaces considering current market conditions. In estimating the carrying costs that would have otherwise been incurred had the leases not been in place, we include such items as real estate taxes, insurance and other operating expenses as well as lost rental revenue during the expected lease-up period based on current market conditions. The estimates of the fair value of tenant relationships also include costs to execute similar leases including leasing commissions, legal and tenant improvements as well as an estimate of the likelihood of renewal as determined by management on a tenant-by-tenant basis.

We amortize the value of in-place leases and in-place tenant improvements to expense over the initial term of the respective leases. The value of tenant relationship intangibles is amortized to expense over the initial term and any anticipated renewal periods, but in no event does the amortization period for intangible assets exceed the remaining depreciable life of the building. Should a tenant terminate its lease, the unamortized portion of the in-place lease value and tenant relationship intangibles would be charged to expense.
