Consolidated Income Statements, page 46

1. We have reviewed your response to prior comment 1 and the information provided in our conference call on July 18, 2018. We continue to believe your presentation of netting net allowance charges against income recognized on finance receivables is not appropriate as net allowance charges are not a component of revenues. Furthermore, your presentation does not comply with the guidance in Article 5 or Article 9 of Regulation S-X, as neither permits the provision for doubtful accounts and notes, or provision for loan losses, respectively, to be netted against the revenue line item. Please revise future filings to
