Section 4 – Matters Related to Accountants and Financials Statements

Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant

- a. On October 14, 2005, the Company's independent auditors, Morgan & Co., resigned. The auditor's report for the past two fiscal years did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, and was not modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles. As of October 14, 2005, there were no disagreements with the former accountant on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure. The Board of Directors approved a change in accountants on October 14, 2005. The Company has provided a copy of the disclosures made in this Form 8-K to the former accountant no later than the day of filing with the SEC, and has requested that the accountant furnish a letter addressed to the Commission stating whether it agrees with the statements made herein, and if not, stating the respects in which it does not agree.
- b. On October 14, 2005, the Company retained the services of Staley Okada and Partners as independent accountants for the Company. The Company did not consult with the new accountant prior to this date regarding the application of accounting principals or the type of audit that might be rendered on its financial statements.
