Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2023

(1) Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

The Company was formed as CapFinancial Securities, LLC, (the "Company"), a North Carolina limited liability company, on November 21, 2013. The Company operates in North Carolina and as of December 31, 2023 is authorized as a foreign LLC in 34 other states plus Washington, DC. The Company is a wholly-owned subsidiary of The CapFinancial Group, LLC ("Group" or "Parent"), who is a successor by merger to The CapFinancial Group, Inc., and is a broker-dealer in securities registered in 50 states plus Washington, DC, and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. ("FINRA"). The Company's securities are cleared through a clearing broker-dealer. The Company does not maintain customers' security accounts nor does it perform custodial functions related to customer securities. On January 1, 2015, the Company succeeded the broker/dealer operations of CapFinancial Partners, LLC ("Partners"), also a majority-owned subsidiary of Group. Until December 31, 2014, Partners, doing business as CAPTRUST Financial Advisors, was registered as an investment advisor under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and as a broker/dealer under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (as a "dual registrant"). Due to a corporate restructuring, on January 1, 2015, the Company succeeded the broker/dealer business of Partners upon a "succession by amendment" filing.

Basis of Presentation

The Company's policy is to prepare its financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the financial statements, cash and cash equivalents include cash, deposits in interest-bearing accounts, and other financial instruments with original maturities of less than three months.

Revenue Recognition

The Company's revenue is recognized based on contracts with clients. The Company generally recognizes revenue pursuant to the terms of its investment advisory agreements or portfolio management account agreements on a quarterly basis at the beginning of each calendar quarter and such revenue is amortized over the quarter as the performance obligation is satisfied. Some revenue is invoiced and recognized on a monthly basis. Revenue related to commissions, money market interest and securities transactions are recognized as revenue as services are provided, which are simultaneously received and consumed by the client.

(1) Organization and Significant Accounting Policies, Continued

Accounts Receivable

The Company carries its accounts receivable at cost less an allowance for doubtful accounts. The Company maintains and continually assesses the adequacy of the allowance for credit losses representing the Company's estimate for losses resulting from the inability of customers to pay amounts due to the Company. This estimated allowance is based on historical experience of uncollected accounts, the level of past due accounts, the overall level of outstanding accounts receivable, information about specific customers with respect to their inability to make payments and expectations of future conditions that could impact the collectability of accounts receivable. Future changes in the Company's customers' operating performance and cash flows, or in general economic conditions, could have an impact on their ability to fully pay these amounts, which could have a material impact on the Company's operating results. The allowance for doubtful accounts as of December 31, 2023 was $0.

Income Taxes

The Company is treated as a disregarded entity for income tax purposes and its parent entity, Group, is taxed as a partnership under the Internal Revenue Code whereby its income is taxed to its members. Therefore, there is no provision for income taxes for the Company. Management does not believe the financial statements include any significant uncertain tax positions.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates due to risks and uncertainties.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash and cash equivalents and accounts receivable. Cash and cash equivalents are maintained at financial institutions and, at times, balances may exceed federally insured limits. Accounts are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to at $250,000 at each financial institution. The Company's uninsured cash balance was $3,388,234 at December 31, 2023.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Board of Directors
CapFinancial Securities, LLC:

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report, in which (1) CapFinancial Securities, LLC (the "Company") identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. § 15c3-3(k) under which the Company claimed exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3: (2)(ii) (exemption provisions), and (2) the Company stated that the Company met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. The Company's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
