Dear Mr. Hallam:

We have reviewed your filing and have the following comments. We have limited our review to only your financial statements and related disclosures and do not intend to expand our review to other portions of your documents. Please provide a written response to our comments. Please be as detailed as necessary in your explanation. In some of our comments, we may ask you to provide us with information so we may better understand your disclosure. After reviewing this information, we may raise additional comments.

Form 20-F/A for the Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2006

Engineering Comments

General

1. In certain of your responses, you propose providing additional or expanded disclosure in your 2007 20-F or equivalent document. For each comment and item which you propose to resolve through future disclosure, provide us with a complete, detailed example of the proposed disclosure. The example disclosure should include, but not be limited to, any maps, tables or similar information.

2. We note your response to our comment 5 regarding additional description of your mineral rights and properties. As your mineral interests are your primary assets, more information should be disclosed in regard to mining claims, exploration and exploitation concessions or other methods establishing your control of the mineral rights, surface lands, and access to these properties. The terms mining claims, mineral concessions, exploration concessions, and exploitation concessions are sometimes used interchangeably, implying complete control, without describing other forms of surface ownership, such as farming, ranching, timber, or water interests which may compete for primacy at the same location. Please discuss these other considerations and clarify whether your mining properties consist of multiple concessions, listing them in a table, and provide the area of each concession with property totals. Please provide a draft of the pertinent sections you intend to insert into your 2007 40-F filing.
