The Company is exempt from SEC customer protection under Paragraph (k)(2)(i) of SEC Rule 15c3-3.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The Company concentrates on private placements of securities and advisory services. The Company's income is based on commission for the services provided. The Company does not carry customers' accounts. The financial statements reflect their service activities.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Accounting Method

The Company prepares its financial statements on the accrual basis of accounting.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue from placement fees upon completion of the private placement offering and advisory fees, over the life of the underlying agreement, at the time work is performed and services are rendered.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purposes of balance sheet classification and statement of cash flows presentation, the Company has defined cash equivalents as highly liquid investments, with original maturities of less than three months that are not held for sale in the ordinary course of business. The Company currently maintains a cash balance at a bank that is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Fair Value Measurement

FASB ASC 820 defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value, and establishes a fair value hierarchy which prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. A fair value measurement assumes that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability occurs in the principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market. Valuation techniques that are consistent with the market, income or cost approach, as specified by FASB ASC 820, are used to measure fair value. The fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels:

- Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities the Company has the ability to access.
- Level 2 inputs are inputs (other than quoted prices included within level 1) that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly. Observable inputs reflect the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability and are developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the Company.
- Level 3 are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability and rely on management's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability. (The unobservable inputs should be developed based on the best information available in the circumstances and may include the Company's own data.)

As at December 31, 2017, the Company reported cash, accounts receivable, prepaid expenses and accounts payable, and accrued liabilities at carrying values that approximate fair values because of the short maturity.

3. Prepaid Expenses and Other Current Assets

Prepaid expenses as at December 31, 2017 included $1,303 paid in advance to FINRA as annual membership fee for 2018 and $63 relating to insurance premium paid for January 2018.

Other Current Assets as at December 31, 2017 includes $13,500 receivable from David Garrity, a Registered Representative (RR) of the Company in respect to a legal fee paid by the Company to Dechert LLP on his behalf for representing a legal proceeding.
