REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Stockholder's of T3 Securities, Inc.

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of T3 Securities, Inc. (the "Company") (a New York company), as of December 31, 2017, and the related notes to the financial statements. In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of T3 Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2017, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statements based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. As part of our audit, we are required to obtain an understanding of internal control over financial reporting but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.

Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

T3 SECURITIES, INC.
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENT
DECEMBER 31, 2017

1. Organization and Description of Business

T3 Securities, Inc. (the "Company") is a broker-dealer wholly-owned by T3 Companies, LLC (the "Parent"). The Company is a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"), and a member of National Future Association ("NFA"). It was formed on May 16, 2003 as a New York corporation. The Company was purchased by the Parent on September 4, 2015. The Company's name was changed from Liquid Prime Services, Inc. on September 30, 2015.

The Company engages primarily in securities commission transactions. For the year ended December 31, 2017, its main businesses were the referral of retail customers to other broker-dealers and agency commission business.

The Company operates under the exemptive provisions of SEC Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(ii). The Company does not maintain possession or control of any customer funds or securities and is exempt from requirements of SEC Rule 15c3-3.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP").

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to significant concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash balances which at times may be in excess of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation insured limits, which was $250,000 at December 31, 2017.

Revenue Recognition

In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606), which will supersede nearly all existing revenue recognition guidance under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The core principle of this ASU is that revenue should be recognized for the amount of consideration expected to be received for promised goods or services transferred to customers. This ASU also requires additional disclosure about the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from customer contracts, including significant judgments, and assets recognized for costs incurred to obtain or fulfill a contract. ASU 2014-09 was scheduled to be effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2016, including interim periods within that reporting period. Early application is not permitted. In August 2015, the FASB issued ASU 2015-14, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606): Deferral of Effective Date, which defers the effective date of ASU 2014-09 by one year and allows entities to early adopt, but no earlier than the original effective date. ASU 2014-09 will now be effective for the Company for the annual reporting period beginning January 1, 2018. This update allows for either full retrospective or modified retrospective adoption. In April 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-10, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606): Identifying Performance Obligations and Licensing, which amends guidance previously issued on these matters in ASU 2014-09. The effective date and transition requirements of ASU 2016-10 are the same as those for ASU 2014-09. In May 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-12, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606): Narrow Scope Improvements and Practical Expedients, which clarifies certain aspects of the guidance, including assessment of collectability, treatment of sales taxes and contract modifications, and providing certain technical corrections. The effective date and transition requirements of ASU 2016-12 are the same as those for ASU 2014-09.

The Company has evaluated the new guidance and the adoption is not expected to have a significant impact on the Company's financial statements and a cumulative effect adjustment under the modified retrospective method of adoption will not be necessary.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The Company derives revenue from commission sharing transactions. Commission income and related expenses are recorded on a trade date basis.

Fair Value Measurements

FASB ASC 820, Fair Value Measurement has no material effect on these financial statements.

Income Taxes

The Company uses the asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes pursuant to Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification Topic 740, Income Taxes (ASC 740). Under the asset and liability method of ASC 740, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets, including tax loss and credit carryforwards, and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary difference are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities are individually classified as current and noncurrent based on their characteristics. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when, in the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will be realized.

In accordance with ASC 740, the Company recognizes the effect of the income tax positions only if those positions are more likely than not of being sustained. A tax position that fails to meet this threshold will result in a reduction of the current and deferred tax assets, and/or recording of current or deferred tax liabilities. The Company recognizes accrued interest and penalties, if applicable, related to income taxes as a component of income tax expense.

3. Due from broker

The Company clears its transactions through other broker Dealers on fully disclosed basis. Amount due from clearing brokers consist of the following at December 31, 2017.

Due from broker:	$ 330,974

4. Commissions Receivable

The Company has a commission sharing agreement for customer referrals with other broker-dealers. During the year ended December 31, 2017, related commission revenue was $228,669; of which $21,327 was receivable as of December 31, 2017. There was also commission receivable from customers of $209,077 as of December 31, 2017.

5. Related Party Transactions

The Company is one of several affiliated companies that are commonly owned by the Parent. The Company has a services agreement with affiliates for services provided to the Company, including: office space; management; general and administrative services; computer and certain other expenses. During the year ended December 31, 2017, these expenses amounted to $578,791.

6. Income Taxes

The company is subject to federal, state and local income tax.

As of December 31, 2017, the Company has a deferred tax asset of $ 675,491 for Federal, $60,098 for New York State and $98,597 for New York City, which is primarily related to net operating loss carryforwards. The Company has record a valuation allowance of $834,186, resulting in a recognized deferred tax asset of zero due to uncertainty regarding the Company's ability to realize the benefit of the deferred tax asset.

7. Commitments and Contingent Liabilities

The Company had no lease or equipment rental commitments, no underwriting commitments, no contingent liabilities and had not been named as defendant in any lawsuit at December 31, 2017 or during the year then ended.

8. Guarantees

FASB ASC 460, Guarantees, requires the Company to disclose information about its obligations under certain guarantee arrangements. FASB ASC 460 defines guarantees as contracts and indemnification agreements that contingently require a guarantor to make payments to the guaranteed party based on changes in an underlying factor (such as an interest or foreign exchange rate, security or commodity price, an index or the occurrence or non-occurrence of a specified event) related to an asset, liability, or equity security of a guaranteed party. This guidance also defines guarantees as contracts that contingently require the guarantor to make payments to the guaranteed party based on another entity's failure to perform under an agreement as well as indirect guarantees of the indebtedness of others.

The Company had issued no guarantees at December 31, 2017 or during the year then ended.

9. Net Capital Requirement

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1) which requires the Company to maintain a minimum net capital of the greater of 6 2/3% of aggregate indebtedness or $100,000, and a ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital not exceeding 15 to 1, both as defined. At December 31, 2017, the Company's net capital was $143,297, which was $43,297 in excess of its required net capital of $100,000. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 1.61 to 1.

10. Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated subsequent events and no events have been identified by management which require disclosure.
