Gladstone Securities, LLC
Notes to the Financial Statements
For the Year Ended June 30, 2021

1. Organization

Gladstone Securities, LLC (the “Company”, formerly known until December 1, 2009 as Circadian Partners, LLC) was formed on April 4, 2003 as a limited liability company under the laws of the state of Connecticut. The Company became a broker-dealer on November 18, 2003 is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”). The Company is a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Gladstone Companies, Inc (the “Parent”).

The Company provides distribution and investment banking services for affiliated companies of the Parent, many of which are advised by Gladstone Management Corporation (“GMC”). The Company’s FINRA membership agreement also permits the Company to raise private equity capital for nonaffiliated third-parties. As further described in Note 3, the Company has claimed an exemption from Securities Exchange Act Rule 15c3-3 (17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3 or the “Customer Protection Rule”) under section (k)(2)(ii) of that rule for the portion of its business activities cleared via a clearing broker on a fully disclosed basis. For the remaining business activities, the Company does not claim exemption from the Customer Protection Rule but limits its business activities to those specified in Footnote 74 of SEC Release No. 34-70073.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The accounting policies that materially affect the determination of financial condition, results of operations and cash flows are summarized below. The accounting and reporting policies of the Company conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”).

Use of Estimates

The Company’s financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with GAAP. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. These estimates involve judgments with respect to, among other things, various future economic factors which are difficult to predict and beyond the control of the Company. Therefore, actual amounts could differ from these estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include demand deposits and investments in money market funds with maturities of three months or less when purchased. Money market funds are valued at the closing price reported by the fund sponsor from an actively traded exchange. These are classified as Level 1 in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board

Gladstone Securities, LLC
Notes to the Financial Statements
For the Year Ended June 30, 2021

Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements. All the Company's cash and cash equivalents are held in the custody of United States financial institutions. At times, amounts may exceed federally insured limits. The Company monitors the credit standing of these financial institutions and mitigates risk by depositing funds with major banking institutions.

Prepaid Expenses

Prepaid expenses consist of annual subscriptions and insurance premiums which are amortized on a straight-line basis over their respective useful lives.

Intangible Assets

Intangible assets are indefinite-lived and consist of the purchase price for the broker-dealer license, as well as capitalized regulatory fees. Pursuant to applicable GAAP, the Company performed a qualitative assessment as of June 30, 2021 to determine if there is a greater than 50% likelihood that the fair values of its intangible assets exceeded their carrying amounts. Based on this assessment, the Company concluded there was a greater than 50% probability that the fair value of each of its intangible assets exceeded its carrying value and therefore the Company was not required to perform a further quantitative assessment. Accordingly, no impairment was recognized for the year ended June 30, 2021.

Revenue Recognition

The Company accounts for revenue under ASC Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers.

A summary of the performance obligations and revenue recognition for each of the Company's business activities is included in the table below:

Revenue Stream	Performance Obligation	Revenue Recognition
Investment banking fees	To provide investment banking and related diligence services to portfolio companies of affiliates.	Fees are generated and earned at settlement date when paid.
Dealer management fees	To serve as the dealer manager in distribution of certain offerings of stock of affiliates.	Fees are generated and earned on a trade-date basis, when the Company's obligation to its customer is satisfied.
Real estate advisory fees	To provide mortgage placement services to affiliates.	Fees are generated and earned at mortgage settlement date when paid.

Gladstone Securities, LLC
Notes to the Financial Statements
For the Year Ended June 30, 2021

A further description of the Company's revenue streams are as follows:

Investment Banking Fees

Investment banking fee revenue includes investment banking fees and related diligence services derived from contractual agreements with portfolio companies of the Company's affiliates, Gladstone Investment Corporation ("Investment") and Gladstone Capital Corporation ("Capital"). Such fees are generally earned and received on the settlement date of portfolio company transactions. During the year ended June 30, 2021 the Company earned investment banking fees of $809,758 and $729,059 from transactions entered into by Capital and Investment, respectively.

Dealer Management Fees

The Company entered into a Dealer Manager agreement with Gladstone Land Corporation ("Land"), effective February 20, 2020, to serve as exclusive dealer-manager in connection with the primary offering of up to 20,000,000 shares of Land's 6.0% Series C Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Stock (the "Land Series C Preferred Stock"), and up to 6,000,000 shares of the Series C Preferred Stock pursuant to a dividend reinvestment plan ("DRIP"). The offering of the Land Series C Preferred Stock will terminate on the date that is the earlier of (1) June 1, 2025 (unless earlier terminated or extended by Land's Board of Directors) and (2) the date on which all 20,000,000 shares of the Land Series C Preferred Stock offered in the Primary Offering are sold. The offering period for the DRIP will terminate on the earlier of (1) the issuance of all 6,000,000 shares of the Land Series C Preferred Stock under the DRIP and (2) the listing of the Land Series C Preferred Stock on the Nasdaq Global Market ("Nasdaq") or another national securities exchange. Through June 30, 2021, 2,027,335 of the 20,000,000 shares offered in the primary offering and 2,258 of the 6,000,000 shares offered pursuant to the DRIP had been sold. During the year ended June 30, 2021, the Company earned dealer management fees of $3,806,556 related to this Dealer Manager agreement.

The Company also entered into a Dealer Manager agreement with Gladstone Commercial Corporation ("Commercial"), effective February 20, 2020, to serve as exclusive dealer-manager in connection with the primary offering of up to 20,000,000 shares of Commercial's 6.0% Series F Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Stock (the "Commercial Series F Preferred Stock"), and up to 6,000,000 shares of the Commercial Series F Preferred Stock pursuant to a DRIP. The terms of termination of the offering of the Commercial Series F Preferred Stock are consistent with those of the Land Series C Preferred Stock described above. Through June 30, 2021, 162,723 of the 20,000,000 and 36 of the 6,000,000 shares of the Commercial Series F Preferred Stock had been sold under the primary offering and DRIP, respectively. During the year ended June 30, 2021, the Company earned dealer management fees of $336,893 related to this Dealer Manager agreement.

Gladstone Securities, LLC
Notes to the Financial Statements
For the Year Ended June 30, 2021

Under each of these dealer manager agreements, Gladstone Securities provides certain sales, promotional and marketing services in connection with the offerings, and the securities issuer pays Gladstone Securities (i) selling commissions of up to 6.0% of the gross proceeds from sales of the shares in the offerings and (ii) a dealer manager fee of up to 3.0% of the gross proceeds from sales of the shares in the offerings (the "Dealer Manager Fee"). As the exclusive dealer manager, the Company has primary responsibility for marketing, soliciting, and distributing Land's Series C Preferred Stock and Commercial's Series F Preferred Stock. The Company has control over the selection and use of third parties, such as participating dealers or wholesalers, in performing these services and has pricing discretion with these third parties. Therefore, the Company records both dealer manager revenue from the issuers and the associated costs from participating dealers and wholesalers on a gross basis on the Company's statement of operations. Likewise, amounts due to and due from these transactions are recorded gross on the Company's statement of financial position.

Real Estate Advisory Fees

Real estate advisory fee revenue is earned from mortgage acquisition services provided by the Company to Commercial and Land, both affiliates of the Company.

The Company entered into an agreement with Commercial, effective June 18, 2013, for the Company to act as a non-exclusive agent to assist Commercial with arranging mortgage financing for properties. In connection with this engagement, the Company may solicit the interest of various commercial real estate lenders or recommend third party lenders to Commercial. Commercial pays the Company a real estate advisory fee in connection with the services it provides for securing mortgage financing. The amount of these financing fees, which are earned and payable upon closing of the financing, are based on a percentage of the amount of the mortgage, generally ranging from up to 0.5% to a maximum of up to 1.0% of the mortgage obtained. The amount of the financing fees may be reduced or eliminated, as determined by the Company and Commercial after taking into consideration various factors, including, but not limited to, the involvement of any third-party brokers and market conditions. During the year ended June 30, 2021 the Company earned real estate advisory fees of $56,000 related to this agreement.

The Company entered into an agreement with Land, effective April 12, 2017, for the Company to act as a non-exclusive agent to assist Land with arranging mortgage financing for properties. The terms of the agreement are substantively similar to the agreement between the Company and Commercial. During the year ended June 30, 2021 the Company earned real estate advisory fees of $290,500 related to this agreement.

Both agreements were renewed on July 12, 2021 by Commercial and Land; the new termination dates for these agreements are August 31, 2022.

Gladstone Securities, LLC
Notes to the Financial Statements
For the Year Ended June 30, 2021

Income Taxes

The Company is a single member limited liability company which is wholly owned by its Parent. The Company's results will be reported on its Parent's federal and state income tax returns. The Company is a disregarded entity for both U.S. federal and state income tax purposes and there is no tax sharing agreement between the Company and its Parent. The Company has no obligation or commitment to fund any tax liability held by its Parent and accordingly, no tax recognition is reflected in the Company's financial statements.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

On July 1, 2020, the Company adopted ASU 2016-13 Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (ASU Topic 326), which replaced the incurred loss model with the current expected credit loss (CECL) model. The CECL impairment model utilizes historical information and forecasts of future economic conditions to determine expected credit losses over the contractual life of a given instrument. The measurement of expected credit losses under the CECL methodology is applicable to financial assets measured at amortized cost. The Company evaluated this guidance and determined that this standard does not have an impact on the financial statements.

3. Regulatory Requirements

The Company operates three lines of business: investment banking, real estate advisory, and dealer management services. The Company's investment banking and real estate advisory businesses are forms of mergers and acquisitions advisory services while dealer management services are distribution services conducted either via a clearing broker or pursuant to SEC Rule 15c2-4 (see Note 2).

As disclosed in Note 1, the Company claims exemption from the Customer Protection Rule under paragraph k(2)(ii) for the portion of its dealer management business cleared on a fully disclosed basis through its clearing firm, RBC Capital Markets, LLC ("RBC") (see Note 6). This portion of the business represented approximately 70% of dealer manager revenue during the year ended June 30, 2021.

The Company does not claim exemption from the Customer Protection Rule for its investment banking, real estate advisory, and the remaining portion of its dealer management lines of business (representing the remaining 30% of dealer management revenue during the year ended June 30, 2021). The Company operates as a non-covered firm consistent with Footnote 74 of SEC Release No. 34-70073 and associated SEC Staff Guidance.

As the Company claims exemption from the Customer Protection Rule for certain lines of business it is not required to prepare the Computation for Determination of Reserve

Gladstone Securities, LLC
Notes to the Financial Statements
For the Year Ended June 30, 2021

Requirements Pursuant to Rule 15c3-3 nor is it required to prepare the Information Relating to the Possession or Control Requirements Under Rule 15c3-3.

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, should not exceed 15:1.

The Company had basic net capital of $740,414 at June 30, 2021, which was $687,536 in excess of its required minimum net capital.

The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital at June 30, 2021 was 1.0712:1.

4. Commitments and Contingencies

Contingencies include the usual obligations of a broker dealer. The Company seeks to minimize the risks associated with its activities through policies and procedures designed to monitor the investment recommendations of its licensed representatives as well as the contractual terms and conditions of its agreements with customers. While the Company has exposure to these risks in its normal course of business, there are no significant unrecorded or undisclosed commitments or contingencies as of June 30, 2021. Additionally, there are no liabilities subject to subordination, and thus, the Statement of Changes in Liabilities Subordinated to Claims of General Creditors has been omitted.

5. Related-Party Transactions

The Company is a member of a group of affiliated entities, including GMC and Gladstone Administration, LLC ("Administration"). GMC and Administration, pursuant to a written expense sharing agreement, have agreed to provide certain administrative services to the Company and the Company has agreed to reimburse its affiliates for the costs of such services. As provided in this expense sharing agreement, the Company has allocated these expenses on a reasonable basis that equates the proportional cost of the service or product to the proportional use of or benefit derived from the service or product. Generally, this proportionate use is derived based on employee hourly activity.

During the year ended June 30, 2021, the Company incurred the following expenses from affiliates as follows:

The Company has receivables of $256,416 due from RBC for cleared and settled trades for which RBC had yet to remit payment to the Company. At June 30, 2021 the Company had $50,000 on deposit with RBC.

7. Risks and Uncertainties – COVID-19

The Company continues to monitor and work with the management teams of the affiliated companies to which we provide services to navigate the significant market, operational and economic challenges created by the continuing COVID-19 pandemic. This has impacted the companies to which we provide services and the broader financial markets in general. The investment portfolio of these affiliated companies continues to be focused on a diversified mix of industries and sectors, and the Company believes they have effectively and efficiently responded to the challenges posed by COVID-19 and related orders imposed by state and local governments. At this point, the extent to which COVID-19 may impact the Company's financial condition or results of operations is uncertain, but the Company believes it has a sufficient level of liquidity to support its capital needs.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Board of Managers of Gladstone Securities, LLC

We have reviewed Gladstone Securities, LLC's assertions, included in the accompanying Gladstone Securities, LLC's Exemption Report, in which:

- (1) The Company identified 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3(k)(2)(ii) as the provision under which the Company claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3 (the "exemption provision").
- (2) The Company stated that it met the identified exemption provision throughout the year ended June 30, 2021 without exception.
- (3) The Company stated that it is also filing its Exemption Report because the Company's other business activities contemplated by Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5 are limited to the Company's investment banking, real estate advisory, and dealer management services for transactions not cleared through its clearing firm, and the Company (1) did not directly or indirectly receive, hold, or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers; (2) did not carry accounts of or for customers; and (3) did not carry PAB accounts (as defined in Rule 15c3-3) throughout the year ended June 30, 2021 without exception.

The Company's management is responsible for the assertions and for compliance with the identified exemption provision and the provisions of Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5 throughout the year ended June 30, 2021.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with the exemption provision and the provisions of Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's assertions. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's assertions referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3 and the provisions of Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5.
