I believe that my audit provides a reasonable basis for my opinion.

The Company's tax returns and the amount of income or loss allocable to the member are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities. Certain transactions may be subject to accounting methods for federal and state income tax purposes which differ from the accounting methods used in preparing the financial statements. Accordingly, the net income or loss of the member and the resulting balances in the members' capital account reported for federal and state income tax purposes may differ from the balances reported for those same items in these financial statements.

(h) Fair Value Hierarchy

FASB ASC 820 defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value, and establishes a fair value hierarchy which prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. A fair value measurement assumes that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability occurs in the principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market. Valuation techniques that are consistent with the market, income or cost approach, as specified by FASB ASC 820, are used to measure fair value.

The fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels:

- Level 1.* Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Company has the ability to access at the measurement date.
- Level 2.* Inputs other than quoted prices included in level 1 that are observable for the assets or liability either directly or indirectly.
- Level 3.* Inputs are unobservable for the assets or liability.

The availability of observable inputs can vary from security to security and is affected by a wide variety of factors, including, for example, the type of security, the liquidity of markets, and other characteristics particular to the security. To the extent the valuation is based on models or inputs that are less observable or unobservable in the market, the determination of fair value requires more judgment. Accordingly, the degree of judgment exercised in determining the fair value is greatest for instruments categorized in level 3.

The inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, for disclosure purposes, the level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement falls in its entirety is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety.

For further discussion of fair value, see “Note 6 Fair Value”

3 Net Capital Requirements

The Company, as a registered broker-dealer in securities is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1). REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To: The Member
Cadman Securities, LLC

I have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Rule 15c3-3 Exemption Statement, in which (1) Cadman Securities, LLC (the "Company") stated that the Company does not hold customers' cash or securities on behalf of customers and limits its business to activities to private placement of securities, therefore has no obligations under Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 pursuant to Footnote 74 of SEC Release 34-70073. In addition, as a result of the Company's having no obligations under SEC Rule 15c3-3, it may file an Exemption Report and (2) the Company stated that it had no exceptions under SEC Rule 15c3-3 throughout the year ended December 31, 2023. The Company did not directly or indirectly receive, hold or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers, did not carry accounts of or for customers, and did not carry PAB accounts as defined in Rule 15c3-3. Management is responsible for compliance with 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3 and its statements. My review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, I do not express such an opinion. Based on my review, I am not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

STATEMENT OF EXEMPTION FROM SEC RULE 15c3-3

For the Year Ended December 31, 2023

Cadman Securities, LLC (the “Company”) is a registered broker-dealer subject to Rule 17a-5 promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5, “Reports to be made by certain brokers and dealers”). This Exemption Report was prepared as required by 17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5(d)(1) and (4). To the best of its knowledge and belief, the Company states the following:

- (1) The Company does not claim an exemption under paragraph (k) of 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3, and
- (2) The Company is filing this Exemption Report relying on Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5 because the Company limits its business activities exclusively to (1) private placement of securities where the funds are payable to the issuer or its agent and not to the Company; and the Company does not hold customers' cash or securities on behalf of customers, and, therefore has no obligations under SEC Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Further, the Company did not directly or indirectly receive, hold or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers, did not carry accounts of or for customers, and did not carry PAB accounts as defined in Rule 15c3-3. In addition, as a result of the Company having no obligations under SEC Rule 15c3-3, it may file an Exemption Report. The Company had no exceptions under SEC Rule 15c3-3 throughout the year ended December 31, 2023.

Cadman Securities LLC

I, Scott Ilario, swear (or affirm) that, to my best knowledge and belief, this Exemption Statement is true and correct.
