Dear Mr. Ho Kang-Wing:

We have reviewed your filing and have the following comment. In our comment, we may ask you to provide us with information so we may better understand your disclosure.

Please respond to this comment within ten business days by amending your filing or by advising us as soon as possible when you will respond. If you do not believe our comment applies to your facts and circumstances, please tell us why in your response.

General

1. We note your disclosure that the holder of the majority of outstanding shares provided approval by written consent for the reverse stock split. However, according to your beneficial ownership table no party owns a majority of the shares. Please specify who provided written consent for this action and additionally revise the beneficial ownership table accordingly.

We urge all persons who are responsible for the accuracy and adequacy of the disclosure in the filing to be certain that the filing includes the information the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and all applicable Exchange Act rules require. Since the company and its management are in possession of all facts relating to a company's disclosure, they are responsible for the accuracy and adequacy of the disclosures they have made.
