Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Members of Innovation Advisors LLC

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Innovation Advisors LLC, as of December 31, 2022 and the related notes (collectively referred to as the “financial statement”). In our opinion, the financial statement present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company, as of December 31, 2022 in conformity with the accompanying principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company’s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company’s financial statement based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (“PCAOB”) and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements is free of material misstatements, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

We have served as the Company’s auditors since 2014.

See accompanying notes to financial statements.

NOTE 1. ORGANIZATION AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Innovation Advisors, LLC (the "Company") is a single member limited liability company. The single member is Innovation Advisors Holdings LLC, a Delaware limited liability Company. The Company was organized under the laws of the State of New York on June 9, 2003. The Company is a broker-dealer in securities registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA") and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC").

The Company provides investment banking services to middle-market technology companies. It also provides strategic advisory services related to merger and acquisitions as well as assisting IT companies' efforts to raise capital through private placements.

NOTE 2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Revenue Recognition

The Company's revenue from investment banking and service fees is based on established agreements between the Company and its clients. Revenue is recognized at a point in time based on identified performance obligations in the contract, a determined transaction price for each performance obligation, and the satisfaction of each performance obligation.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from the estimates.

Treatment of Leases

The Company does not apply the recognition requirements of ASC 842 to short-term leases. A short-term lease has a term at commencement of twelve months or less and does not include a purchase option.

NOTE 3. CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT AND MARKET RISK

The Company maintains its cash in a bank account that, at times, may exceed the federal insurance limit of $250,000.

NOTE 4. RELATED-PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company has an expense sharing agreement with its member whereby certain overhead expenses, are allocated to the Company. The Company has paid the member in advance for these costs, and maintains a prepaid balance with the member, which totals $3,600 on December 31, 2022, reflected in Prepaid Expenses and other Assets on the Statement of Financial Condition. During the year $7,200 was charged to the Company as follows:

Miscellaneous services	$7,200
Total	$7,200

NOTE 5. INCOME TAXES

The Company is a single-member limited liability company and is treated as a "disregarded entity" for federal and New York State income tax purposes. The Company's assets, liabilities, and items of income, deduction, and tax credits are treated as those of its member owner, who is responsible for any taxes thereon. The Company's allocated share of local taxes, if any, is included in the accompanying statement of operations.

The Company recognizes and measures its unrecognized tax benefits in accordance with FASB ASC 740, Income Taxes. Under that guidance, the Company assesses the likelihood, based on their technical merit, that tax positions will be sustained upon examination based on the facts, circumstances and information available at the end of each period. With few exceptions, the measurement of unrecognized tax benefits is adjusted when new information is available, or when an event occurs that requires a change.

NOTE 6. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the SEC's Uniform Net Capital Rule ("SEC Rule 15c3-1"), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2022, the Company had net capital of $58,056, which exceeded the Company's minimum net capital requirement of $5,000 by $53,056. The Company's percentage of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 0.38 to 1 at December 31, 2022.
