Item 8.01 Other Events

On January 13, 2010, Morris Publishing Group, LLC (the “Company”) issued a press release announcing (a) that it has terminated its offer to exchange $100 million in aggregate principal amount of new second lien secured notes due in 2014 to be issued by the Company and its co-issuer, Morris Publishing Finance Co., for all of the $278,478,000 in aggregate principal amount of outstanding 7% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2013 (the “Existing Notes”), plus accrued and unpaid interest on the Existing Notes, and (b) the vote by holders of Existing Notes in support of the Company’s prepackaged plan of reorganization. The exchange offer expired at 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on January 12, 2010.

At the deadline to submit votes for or against the prepackaged plan of reorganization, at 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on January 12, 2010, the Company had received votes from holders of Existing Notes in favor of the prepackaged plan of reorganization representing approximately 98.7% of the principal amount held by those who voted, and more than 92.7% of the holders who voted, significantly in excess of the required threshold for a successful vote.

A copy of the Company’s press release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

MORRIS PUBLISHING ANNOUNCES SUPPORT OF ITS PREPACKAGED PLAN OF REORGANIZATION

MORRIS TO ASK COURT TO APPROVE EXCHANGE OF NOTES

AUGUSTA, GA — JANUARY 13, 2010 — Morris Publishing Group, LLC (the “Company”) announced today that it received overwhelming support for its prepackaged plan of reorganization, which will be filed on or before Jan. 19, 2010.

If accepted, the plan will allow Morris Publishing to exchange $100 million in new debt for $278.5 million in existing debt. The plan of reorganization is not expected to have any noticeable impact on Morris’ ongoing operations.

Morris had offered to exchange $100 million in new second-lien secured notes for $278.5 million in outstanding 7% senior subordinated notes, but that offer required that 99 percent of existing notes be tendered. That condition was not met by a Jan. 12 deadline, so Morris has terminated the offer.

The Prepackaged Plan of Reorganization

Under the terms of a restructuring support agreement among the Company and holders of approximately 75%, or $209 million, of the Existing Notes, the Company agreed to file voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code on or prior to January 19, 2010 to seek confirmation of a prepackaged plan of reorganization (the “Plan”). If the Plan is confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court, 100% of the Existing Notes, plus all accrued and unpaid interest, will be canceled, and holders will receive their pro rata share of New Notes.

Simultaneously with the exchange offer, the Company solicited holders of the Existing Notes to accept the Plan.

The holders of the Existing Notes represent the only impaired class of claims under the Plan. For a class of impaired claims to accept the Plan, the Bankruptcy Code requires acceptance by at least two-thirds (2/3) in amount and more than one-half (1/2) in number of holders of claims of such class who vote on the Plan.

At the deadline to submit votes for or against the Plan, the Company had received votes from holders of Existing Notes significantly in excess of the required threshold for a successful vote.

For Additional Information

The information agent for the exchange offer is Ipreo Holdings LLC. Holders of Existing Notes with questions regarding the return of their Existing Notes should contact the information agent at (877) 746-3583 (toll free) or (201) 499-3500.
