(1) The following Insuring Clause is added:

FRAUDULENT TRANSFER INSTRUCTIONS

Loss resulting directly from the ASSURED having, in good faith, transferred money on deposit in a Customer's account, or a Customer's Certificated Security or Uncertificated Security, in reliance upon a fraudulent instruction transmitted to the ASSURED via telefacsimile, telephone or electronic mail; provided, however, that:

- A. the fraudulent instruction purports, and reasonably appears, to have originated from:
 - i. such Customer, or

- B. the sender of the fraudulent instruction verified the instruction with the password, PIN, or other security code of such Customer; and
- C. the sender was not, in fact, such Customer, was not authorized to act on behalf of such Customer, and was not an Employee; and
- D. the instruction was received by an Employee specifically authorized by the ASSURED to receive and act upon such instructions; and
- E. for any transfer exceeding the amount set forth in paragraph (8) of this endorsement, the ASSURED verified the instructions via a call back to a predetermined telephone number set forth in the ASSURED's written agreement with such Customer or other verification procedure approved in writing by the COMPANY; and

- F. the ASSURED preserved a contemporaneous record of the call back, if any, and the instruction which verifies use of the authorized password, PIN or other security code of the Customer.

(2) For the purposes of the coverage afforded by this endorsement, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

Certificated Security means a share, participation or other interest in property of, or an enterprise of, the issuer or an obligation of the issuer, which is:

- (3) either one of a class or series or by its terms divisible into a class or series of shares, participations, interests or obligations.

Uncertificated Security means a share, participation or other interest in property of or an enterprise of the issuer or an obligation of the issuer, which is:

- (2) of a type commonly dealt in on securities exchanges or markets, and
- (3) either one of a class or series or by its terms divisible into a class or series of shares, participations, interests or obligations.

(3) It shall be a condition precedent to coverage under this Insuring Clause that the ASSURED assert any available claims, offsets or defenses against such Customer, any financial institution or any other party to the transaction.

(4) Solely with respect to the Fraudulent Transfer Instruction Insuring Clause, the following Exclusions are added:

- A. Loss resulting directly or indirectly from a fraudulent instruction if the sender, or anyone acting in collusion with the sender, ever had authorized access to such Customer's password, PIN or other security code; and
- B. Loss resulting directly or indirectly from the fraudulent alteration of an instruction to initiate an automated clearing house (ACH) entry, or group of ACH entries, transmitted as an electronic message, or as an attachment to an electronic message, sent via the internet, unless:
 - i. each ACH entry was individually verified via the call back procedure without regard to the amount of the entry; or
 - ii. the instruction was formatted, encoded or encrypted so that any alteration in the ACH entry or group of ACH entries would be apparent to the ASSURED.

(5) Solely with respect to the Fraudulent Transfer Instruction Insuring Clause, Exclusion 2.k. is deleted and replaced with the following:

k. loss resulting from voice requests or instructions received over the telephone, provided however, this Section 2.k. shall not apply to INSURING CLAUSE 7. or 9. or the Fraudulent Transfer Instruction Insuring Clause.

(6) For the purposes of the Fraudulent Transfer Instruction Insuring Clause, all loss or losses involving one natural person or entity, or one group of natural persons or entities acting together, shall be a Single Loss without regard to the number of transfers or the number of instructions involved.
