Saxon Capital, Inc. Announces Third Quarter 2005 Dividend and Payment Information

GLEN ALLEN, VA. (October 18, 2005) - Saxon Capital, Inc. ("Saxon" or the "Company") (NYSE: SAX), a residential mortgage lending and servicing real estate investment trust (REIT), today announced that its Board of Directors has declared a quarterly cash dividend for the quarter ended September 30, 2005 of $0.50 per share of common stock. The dividend is payable on November 10, 2005 to shareholders of record at the close of business on October 28, 2005.

As a REIT, the Company is required to distribute at least 90% of its taxable income to the shareholders annually. For the fourth quarter of 2005, Saxon expects to estimate its taxable income and declare a dividend in December. From time to time special dividends may be distributed in order to remain in compliance with REIT requirements. This schedule is subject to change, and specific record and payable dates will be announced each time dividends are declared by the Board of Directors.

Saxon expects that a portion of its 2005 dividends will be characterized as excess inclusion income. Therefore,

- Tax-exempt shareholders will be subject to unrelated business taxable income (commonly referred to as UBTI) with respect to such excess inclusion income;
- Non-U.S. shareholders will be subject to the 30 percent U.S. federal withholding tax on this income without reduction under any otherwise applicable income tax treaty; and
- U.S. shareholders, including taxpaying entities, will not be able to offset such excess inclusion income with net operating losses.

Shareholders in any of these categories should consult a tax advisor.
