Form 8-K Filed March 18, 2009

1. We note your fourth quarter goodwill impairment charge was driven by the decline in enterprise value caused by your reduced common stock price. Please tell us how you considered the decline in enterprise value below book value when determining no impairment test was necessary for previous quarterly periods in 2008. Refer to paragraph 28 of SFAS 142.
2. We note you took an after-tax charge of $5.7 million for impairment of two investment securities. Please provide us with the following additional information concerning these securities:
 - provide us with a table detailing the following information for the impaired securities: nature of the investments (US Government agency securities, mortgage-backed securities or other securities), book value, fair value and unrealized gain/loss as of 12/31/08 and 12/31/07 and each of the quarterly periods in 2008 (9/30/08, 6/30/08, 3/31/08).
 - provide us a full detailed analysis of these securities' impairment as of each quarterly period in 2008 that identifies all available evidence, explains the relative significance of each piece of evidence, and identifies the primary evidence on which you relied upon to support management's determination that there was no other than temporary impairment for these specific securities; and
 - tell us why you did not disclose in your Form 8-K filed on January 30, 2009 that the company's year-end valuations with respect to investment securities were not final.
