Investment Philosophy

At the Adirondack Small Cap Fund (ADKSX), we incorporate independent thinking, patience, and strict value criteria to choose companies as investments in the Fund.

As contrarians, we believe that the best opportunities are found in smaller companies that have fallen out of favor with investors. We look for companies that have good balance sheets, solid cash flows and highly motivated management teams with clear and measurable plans to return the business back to optimal operating performance.

We use a 'middle-down' research approach which identifies attractive industries for investment, eventually paring down to the few companies in those industries that make attractive additions to the Fund.

By assembling a diverse portfolio of these opportunities, we believe we can offer our shareholders compelling risk-adjusted returns over the long run.

** According to Lipper Research

The Fund commenced operation on April 6, 2005. This data reflects past performance. Total return measures aggregate change. Past performance does not guarantee future results. Investment return and principal value will fluctuate so that shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Returns do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on distributions or redemptions. Please consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses of The Adirondack Small Cap Fund before investing. For a prospectus containing details on risks, fees and expenses, please call 1-888-686-2729. Read it carefully before you invest. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance data quoted.
