Item 1 - DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

First Valley Bancorp, Inc. (the "Company"), a Connecticut corporation was formed in 2005, for the purpose of becoming the one-bank holding company of Valley Bank (the "Bank"), a wholly-owned subsidiary. The Company's activity is currently limited to the holding of the Bank's outstanding common stock and the Bank is the Company's primary investment. The Company's net income is largely derived from the business of the Bank.

The Bank commenced operations as a Connecticut state-chartered commercial bank on November 15, 1999. The Bank is an insured bank under the Federal Deposit Insurance Act up to its applicable limits. Like most state-chartered commercial banks in Connecticut, it is not a member of the Federal Reserve System.

On November 21, 2006, the Company entered into a definitive merger agreement in which the Company will merge with and into New England Bancshares Acquisition, Inc. in exchange for cash and common stock of New England Bancshares, Inc. ("NEB"). NEB is a Maryland corporation based in Enfield, Connecticut and is the holding company for Enfield Federal Savings and Loan Association in Enfield, Connecticut. At the effective time of the merger, the separate corporate existence of the Company shall cease, and Valley Bank, the Company's subsidiary, will become a subsidiary of NEB. Per the definitive merger agreement, Valley Bank will continue as a separate subsidiary for a minimum of five years after the effective date, absent the occurrence of certain unexpected events.

The transaction is valued at approximately $25.6 million. The terms of the definitive merger agreement call for each outstanding share of the Company to be converted into the right to receive .8907 shares of NEB common stock and $9.00 in cash.

The transaction is subject to approval by the shareholders of the Company as well as the customary regulatory approvals.

The Bank conducts its business from four locations serving the greater Bristol community, its main office at Four Riverside Avenue, Bristol, Connecticut, 06010, and three additional full-service offices at 8 South Main Street in the Terryville section of Plymouth, Connecticut, 06786, at 98 Main Street in Southington, Connecticut, 06489, and at 888 Farmington Avenue, Bristol, Connecticut 06010.

The Bank is engaged principally in the business of attracting deposits from the general public and investing those deposits in small business, commercial real estate, residential real estate and consumer loans. In connection with both loans and deposits, the Bank does a substantial amount of business with individuals as well as customers in commercial and professional businesses. The Bank offers safe deposit boxes at all full-service locations, and other customary bank services to its customers. The Bank has drive-up facilities and automated teller machines which are connected to the NYCE, SUM and PLUS networks.

In January 2006, the Board of Directors authorized the Bank to begin offering full-time access to advisory and investment services to consumers and businesses on retirement planning, individual investment portfolios, and strategic asset management. The new services to be provided by the Bank (d/b/a Riverside Investment Services) would include mutual funds, life insurance options, tax and estate planning, and investment portfolio analysis. In April 2006, the Bank hired Thomas O. Barnes, Jr. as the Manager of Riverside Investment Services and began to provide these services. Riverside Investment Services is located on the second floor of the Bank's main office on Four Riverside Avenue, Bristol, Connecticut.

In April 2006, the Bank entered into a broker/dealer relationship with LPL (Linsco/Private Ledger) in Boston.

Prior to April 2006, the Bank had offered its customers investment services on a part-time basis through a relationship with Tracy Driscoll, Inc., a local insurance agency, and Bannon, Ohanesian & Lecours, Inc., a full-service, independent broker/dealer headquartered in West Hartford, Connecticut.

The officers and employees of the Bank have engaged in marketing activities, including the evaluation and development of new products and services, in order to enable the Bank to retain and improve its competitive position in its market. The incremental cost to the Bank for these marketing activities, which occur largely in the course of general duties by such officers and employees, cannot be calculated with any degree of certainty.

Neither the Company nor the Bank hold any patents, trademarks, licenses, franchises or concessions materially important to the Bank, other than those required or granted by regulatory authorities.

The retail nature of the Bank's operations allows for full diversification of depositors and borrowers. Most of the Bank's deposits are from individuals and small to medium size business-related sources. No material portion of the Bank's loans is concentrated within a single industry or group of related industries. No loans are made to foreign companies or governments. The Bank generally finances real estate within its market area.

At December 31, 2006, the Bank had 52 full time equivalent employees.

The Bank competes with virtually all banks and savings institutions, which offer services in its market area. The Bank directly competes in its service areas with branches of most of Connecticut's largest banks, each of which has greater financial and other resources to conduct large advertising campaigns and to allocate their investment assets in areas of highest yield and demand. These banks have higher lending limits than does the Bank by virtue of greater total capitalization and generally perform certain other functions, such as private banking and international banking services, which the Bank is not equipped to offer directly. To attract business in this competitive environment, the Bank relies heavily on local promotional activities and personal contact by its officers, directors, staff and shareholders, and on its ability to provide personalized service in a unique banking environment.

The Bank's business is affected not only by competition and general economic conditions, but also by governmental, tax, monetary and fiscal policies.

The Bank faces significant competition from other banking institutions as well as non-banks operating in the Bank's market area. Connecticut currently allows institutions from outside Connecticut to establish operations in Connecticut either through newly chartered or acquired Connecticut institutions. In recent years, institutions based in other states have opened facilities in the Bank's market area. It is uncertain what effect competition from such institutions, generally having much larger resources than the Bank, will have on the Bank.

As a bank holding company, the Company's operations are subject to regulation, supervision and examination by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve Board (the "FRB"). The FRB has established capital adequacy guidelines for bank holding companies that are similar to the FDIC's capital guidelines applicable to the Bank. The Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended (the "BHC Act"), limits the types of companies that a bank holding company may acquire or organize and the activities in which it or they may engage. In general, bank holding companies and their subsidiaries are only permitted to engage in, or acquire direct control of, any company engaged in banking or in a business so closely related to banking as to be a proper incident thereto. Federal legislation enacted in 1999 authorizes certain entities to register as financial holding companies. Registered financial holding companies are permitted to engage in businesses, including securities and investment banking businesses, which are prohibited to bank holding companies. While the creation of financial holding companies is evolving, to date there has been no significant impact on the Company.

Under the BHC Act, the Company is required to file annually with the FRB a report of its operations. The Company is subject to examination by the FRB. In addition, the Company will be required to obtain prior approval of the FRB to acquire, with certain exceptions, more than five percent of the outstanding voting stock of any bank or bank holding company, to acquire all or substantially all of the assets of a bank, or to merge or consolidate with another bank holding company. Moreover, the Company and the Bank are prohibited from engaging in certain tying arrangements in connection with any extension of credit or provision of any property or services. The Bank is also subject to certain restrictions imposed by the Federal Reserve Act on issuing any extension of credit to the Company or making any investments in the stock or other securities thereof and on the taking of such stock or securities as collateral for loans to any borrower. If the Company wants to engage in businesses permitted to financial holding companies but not to bank holding companies, it would need to register with the FRB as a financial holding company.

The FRB has issued a policy statement on the payment of cash dividends by bank holding companies, which expresses the FRB's view that a bank holding company should pay cash dividends only to the extent that a bank holding company's net income for the past year is sufficient to cover both the cash dividend and a rate of earnings retention that is consistent with the bank holding company's capital needs, asset quality and overall financial condition. The FRB has also indicated that it would be inappropriate for a company experiencing serious financial problems to borrow funds to pay dividends. Furthermore, under the prompt corrective action regulations adopted by the FRB pursuant to applicable law, the FRB may prohibit a bank holding company from paying any dividends if the bank holding company's bank subsidiary is classified as "undercapitalized."

A bank holding company is required to give the FRB prior written notice of any purchase or redemption of its outstanding equity securities if the gross consideration for the purchase or redemption, when combined with the net considerations paid for all such purchases or redemptions during the preceding twelve months, is equal to ten percent or more of its consolidated retained earnings. The FRB may disapprove such a purchase or redemption if it determines that the proposal would constitute an unsafe or unsound practice or would violate any law, regulation, FRB order, or any condition imposed by, or written agreement with, the FRB.

The Riegle-Neal Interstate Banking and Branching Efficiency Act of 1994 ("Riegle-Neal Act") was enacted to ease restrictions on interstate banking. Effective September 29, 1995, the Riegle-Neal Act allows the FRB to approve an application of an adequately capitalized and adequately managed bank holding company to acquire control of, or acquire all or substantially all of the assets of, a bank located in a state other than such holding company's state, without regard to whether the transaction is prohibited by laws of any state. The FRB may not approve the acquisition of a bank that has not been in existence for the minimum time period (not exceeding five years) specified by the statutory law of the host state. The Riegle-Neal Act also prohibits the FRB from approving an application if the applicant (and its depository institution affiliates) controls or would control more than 10% of the insured deposits in the United States or 30% or more of the deposits in the target bank's home state or in any state in which the target bank maintains a branch. The Riegle-Neal Act does not affect the authority of state to limit the percentage of total insured deposits in the state, which may be held or controlled by a bank or bank holding company to the extent that such limitation does not discriminate against out-of-state banks or bank holding companies. Individual states may also waive the 30% statewide concentration limits contained in the Riegle-Neal Act.

The Company is subject to capital adequacy rules and guidelines issued by the FRB, and the Bank is subject to capital adequacy rules and guidelines issued by the FDIC. The substantially parallel rules and guidelines require the Company to maintain certain minimum ratios of capital to adjusted total assets and/or risk-weighted assets. Under provisions of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp Improvement Act of 1991, the Federal regulatory agencies are required to implement and enforce these rules in a stringent manner. The Company is also subject to applicable provisions of Connecticut law insofar as they do not conflict with, or are not otherwise preempted by, Federal banking law.

The Company is subject to the reporting requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), and, in accordance with the Exchange Act, files periodic reports, proxy statements and other information with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC").

The Bank's operations are subject to regulation, supervision and examination by the FDIC and the State of Connecticut Department of Banking.

Federal and state banking regulations regulate, among other things, the scope of the business a bank, a bank holding company, or a financial holding company, the investments a bank may make, deposit reserves a bank must maintain, the nature and amount of collateral for certain loans a bank makes, the establishment of branches and the activities of a bank with respect to mergers and acquisitions. The Bank is subject to the federal regulations promulgated pursuant to the Financial Institutions Supervisory Act to prevent banks from engaging in unsafe and unsound practices, as well as various other federal and state laws and consumer protection laws.

The earnings and growth of the Company, the Bank and the banking industry are affected by the monetary and fiscal policies of the United States government and its agencies, particularly the FRB. The Open Market Committee of the FRB implements national monetary policy to curb inflation and combat recession. The FRB uses its power to adjust interest rates in United States Government securities, the Discount rate and the deposit reserve retention rates. The actions of the FRB influence growth of bank loans, investment and deposits. They can also affect interest rates charged on loans and paid on deposits. The nature and impact of any future changes in monetary policies cannot be predicted.

In addition to other laws and regulations, the Bank is subject to the Community Reinvestment Act (the "CRA"), which requires the Federal bank regulatory agencies, when considering certain applications involving the Company or Bank, to consider the Bank's record of helping to meet the credit needs of the entire community, including low- and moderate-income neighborhoods. The CRA was originally enacted because of concern over unfair treatment of prospective borrowers by banks and over unwarranted geographic differences in lending patterns. Existing banks have sought to comply with CRA in various ways; some banks have made use of more flexible lending criteria for certain types of loans and borrowers (consistent with the requirement to conduct safe and sound operations), while other banks have increased their efforts to make loans to help meet identified credit needs within the consumer community, such as those for home mortgages, home improvements and small business loans. For example, this may include participation in various government insured lending programs, such as Federal Housing Administration insured or Veterans Administration guaranteed mortgage loans, Small Business Administration loans, and participation in other types of lending programs such as high loan-to-value conventional mortgage loans with private mortgage insurance. To date, the market area from which the Bank draws much of its business is Bristol, Burlington, Farmington, Plainville, Plymouth, Southington and Wolcott. As the Bank expands further, the market areas served by the Bank will continue to evolve. The Company and the Bank have not and will not adopt any policies or practices, which discourage credit applications from, or unlawfully discriminate against, individuals or segments of the communities served by the Bank. The Bank's current CRA rating is satisfactory.

On October 26, 2001, the United and Strengthening America by Providing Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001, or the USA Patriot Act, was enacted to further strengthen domestic security following the September 11, 2001 attacks. The USA Patriot Act amends various federal banking laws, particularly the Bank Secrecy Act (the "BSA") with the intent to curtail money laundering and other activities that might be undertaken to finance terrorist actions. The USA Patriot Act also requires that financial institutions in the United States enhance already established anti-money laundering policies, procedures and audit functions and ensure that controls are reasonably designed to detect instances of money laundering through certain correspondent and private bank accounts. Verification of customer identification, maintenance of said verification records, and cross-checking names of new customers against government lists of known or suspected terrorists is also required. The Patriot Act was recently re-authorized and modified with the enactment of the USA Patriot Act Improvement and Reauthorization Act of 2005.

On July 20, 2002, the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (the "SOX Act") was enacted, the primary purpose of which is to protect investors through improved corporate governance and responsibilities of and disclosures by public companies. The SOX Act contains provisions for the limitations of services that external auditors may provide as well as requirements for the credentials of the Audit/Compliance Committee members. In addition, the principal executive and principal financial officers are required to certify in quarterly and annual reports that they have reviewed the report; and based on the officers' knowledge, the reports accurately present the financial condition and results of operations of the company and contain no untrue statement or omission of material fact. The officers also certify their responsibility for establishing and maintaining a system of internal controls, which insure that all material information is made known to the officers; this certification also includes the evaluation of the effectiveness of disclosure controls and procedures and their impact upon financial reporting. Section 404 of the SOX Act entitled Management Assessment of Internal Controls, requires that each annual report include an internal control report which states that it is the responsibility of management for establishing and maintaining an adequate internal control structure and procedures for financial reporting, as well as an assessment by management of the effectiveness of the internal control structure and procedures for financial reporting. This section further requires that the external auditors attest to, and report on, the assessment made by management. On December 15, 2006, the SEC extended the Section 404 compliance dates for non-accelerated filers (those issuers with non-affiliated public float of less than $75 million) to (a) fiscal years ending on or after December 15, 2007 for management's assessment regarding internal control over financial reporting and (b) fiscal years ending on or after December 15, 2008 for the auditor attestation due to the burdens on smaller companies in designing and implementing compliance with this section.

The Company does not anticipate that compliance with applicable federal and state banking laws will have a material adverse effect on its business or the business of the Bank. Compliance by the Company and the Bank with federal, state and local provisions which have been enacted or adopted regulating or otherwise relating to the discharge of material into the environment is not expected to have a material effect upon the capital expenditures, earnings or competitive position of the Company.

Item 2 - DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY

The main office of the Company and the Bank at Four Riverside Avenue in Bristol is leased by the Bank. The Bank leases the premises under an operating lease with an original term that expires in November 2014.

All of the Bank's full-service offices have available five teller windows and drive-up windows and are also equipped with ATM machines.

Item 5 - MARKET FOR COMMON EQUITY, RELATED STOCKHOLDER MATTERS AND SMALL BUSINESS ISSUER PURCHASES OF SECURITIES

Market Information

The Common Stock of the Company is not listed on an exchange nor is it quoted on the NASDAQ Stock Market. The market for the Common Stock is illiquid and the stock up to now has not traded frequently. In March 2004, the Bank filed an application, which was approved by Advest, Inc. Brokerage Services, for Advest to act as a market maker in the Bank's stock and to list the stock on the Over The Counter Bulletin Board (the "OTCBB"). In 2005, The Advest Group, Inc., a subsidiary of AXA Financial, was purchased by Merrill Lynch.

In July 2005, the Bank was reorganized into a bank holding company structure, resulting in the formation of the Company and the Bank becoming the wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company through a one-for-one, tax-free exchange of the Bank's common stock for common stock of the holding company. The Company's stock is listed at www.otcbb.com under the symbol "FVLY".

The OTCBB is a regulated quotation service that displays real-time quotes, last-sale prices, and volume information in over-the-counter equity securities. An over-the-counter equity security generally is any equity security that is not listed or traded on the NASDAQ Stock Market or a national securities exchange.

Holders

There were approximately 513 shareholders of record of Company common stock as of December 31, 2006.

Dividends

The Company has not paid any dividends and is unlikely to do so in the foreseeable future. Item 6 - MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR PLAN OF OPERATION

Cautionary Statement

This Annual Report on Form 10-KSB contains and incorporates by reference statements relating to future results of First Valley Bancorp, Inc. and its subsidiary, Valley Bank, that are considered "forward-looking" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements relate to, among other things, expectations concerning loan demand, growth and performance, simulated changes in interest rates and the adequacy of our allowance for loan losses. Actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied as a result of certain risks and uncertainties, including but not limited to, changes in political and economic conditions, interest rate fluctuations, personal and corporate customers' bankruptcies, inflation, acquisitions and integrations of acquired businesses, the cost and successful operations of new branches, technological fluctuations, success in gaining regulatory approvals when required as well as other risks and uncertainties reported from time to time in our filings with the SEC.

Overview

The Company, a Connecticut corporation, is a bank holding company for the Bank, a Connecticut state-chartered, commercial bank and Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") insured commercial bank headquartered in Bristol, Connecticut. The Company's principal business consists of the business of the Bank. The Company and the Bank were formed in 2005 and 1999, respectively. The Bank, which has its main office in Bristol, opened a second full service office in the Terryville section of Plymouth in 2002. In the first quarter of 2007, the Bank opened its third and fourth full service offices in Southington, Connecticut and at 888 Farmington Avenue in Bristol. The Bank provides banking services to commercial and individual customers primarily in the town of Bristol and the neighboring communities of Burlington, Farmington, Plainville, Plymouth, Southington and Wolcott. The Bank offers to its business customers demand, savings and time deposit accounts and the granting of various types of commercial loans and commercial real estate loans. The services provided by the Bank to consumers include checking, savings and time deposit accounts, as well as mortgage loans and consumer loans.

The Bank (d/b/a/ Riverside Investment Services) provides full-time access to advisory and investment services to consumers and businesses on retirement planning, individual investment portfolios, and strategic asset management. Riverside Investment Services offers mutual funds, life insurance options, tax planning, estate planning and investment portfolio analysis.

In December 2004, the Bank's Board of Directors approved reorganizing the Bank into a bank holding company structure. It was the Board's belief that the reorganization would increase the corporate flexibility of the Bank, would allow the Bank to better take advantage of additional business opportunities, and would provide the Bank with operational and competitive benefits. The reorganization received all regulatory approvals and became effective in July 2005. As a result of the reorganization, the Bank became the wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company through a one-for-one, tax free exchange of the Bank's common stock for common stock of the holding company. The Company's stock is listed at www.otcbb.com under the symbol "FVLY".

In December 2005, the Company's Board of Directors declared a 1 for 10 stock split of the Company's Common Stock (i.e. each shareholder received one (1) additional share of Common Stock for each ten (10) shares owned). The stock split had a record date of December 30, 2005 and a payment date of January 30, 2006. All stock shares and per share amounts prior to the split have been restated to give effect to the stock split.

On November 21, 2006, the Company entered into a definitive merger agreement in which the Company will merge with and into New England Bancshares Acquisition, Inc. in exchange for cash and common stock of New England Bancshares, Inc. ("NEB"). NEB is a Maryland corporation based in Enfield, Connecticut and is the holding company for Enfield Federal Savings and Loan Association in Enfield, Connecticut. At the effective time of the merger, the separate corporate existence of the Company shall cease, and Valley Bank, the Company's subsidiary, will become a subsidiary of NEB. Per the definitive merger agreement, Valley Bank will continue as a separate subsidiary for a minimum of five years after the effective date, absent the occurrence of certain unexpected events.

The transaction is valued at approximately $25.6 million. The terms of the definitive merger agreement call for each outstanding share of the Company to be converted into the right to receive .8907 shares of NEB common stock and $9.00 in cash.

The transaction is subject to approval by the shareholders of the Company as well as the customary regulatory approvals.

The following discussion and analysis presents a review of the operating results and financial condition of the Company and the Bank, as applicable, for the years ended December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004. The discussion below should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and other financial data presented in the Company's 2006 Financial Statements.

Capital Resources

During 2006, capital accounts increased by $831,000, or 8.6%, to $10.5 million, while book value per share increased from $8.18 at December 31, 2005 to $8.82 at December 31, 2006. The increase in capital accounts resulted from net income of $573,000, proceeds from stock issued under the stock option plan of $40,000, proceeds from shares issued through the exercise of stock options of $46,000 and net unrealized gains of $172,000 on securities available for sale, net of income taxes.

The Company and the Bank are subject to minimum capital requirements established, respectively, by the Federal Reserve Board ("FRB") and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC"). The FRB capital requirements for bank holding companies generally parallel the capital requirements applicable to state non-member banks, such as the Bank, under regulations promulgated by the FDIC. At December 31, 2006, the Company's Tier I leverage ratio was 7.5% and its Tier I and total risk-based capital ratios were 9.5% and 10.8%, respectively. At the end of 2005, these ratios were 8.8%, 11.6% and 12.8%, respectively. The Company is deemed to be "well capitalized" under applicable FRB regulations on the basis of its current capital measures. The Bank's capital ratios as of December 31, 2006 were a Tier I leverage ratio of 7.8%, and Tier I and total risk-based capital ratios of 9.9% and 11.1%, respectively. At the end of 2005, these ratios were 8.8%, 11.6% and 12.9%, respectively. The capital ratios of the Bank at December 31, 2005 were considered "well capitalized" for regulatory purposes.

At December 31, 2005, the Company had a total of 1,194,550 shares outstanding and approximately 513 shareholders.

Liquidity

A primary function of the Bank's asset/liability management process is to provide the Bank with adequate funds for loan requests, deposit outflows and other recurring financial obligations. The Bank's primary sources of liquidity include cash on hand and due from banks, federal funds sold, money market accounts, maturities and principal and interest payments on loans and securities, deposits and Federal Home Loan Bank of Boston ("FHLBB") advances. The Bank monitors its liquidity position carefully, so that it might identify trends that could impact its liquidity/cash flow position.

At December 31, 2006, approximately 27% of the Bank's assets were held in cash and cash equivalents and securities and 69% of the Bank's assets were held in loans. The Bank's ratio of loans to deposits, which is used as a general guideline in managing its asset/liability mix, was 81% at December 31, 2006.

The Bank has other liquidity related policy targets and thresholds which are reviewed on a regular basis by the Asset/Liability Committee ("ALCO"). The Bank reviews and sets deposit rates weekly based upon the Bank's need for funds, competition in the market area, and the availability and pricing of other funding sources.

The Bank is also a member of the FHLBB, which provides an alternative-funding source for the Bank's liquidity needs. There were $10.8 million of FHLBB advances outstanding at December 31, 2006 and $15.0 million of FHLBB advances outstanding at December 31, 2005. The Bank had additional borrowing capacity at the FHLBB of approximately $17 million at December 31, 2006.

The Company had $4.1 million of subordinated debt at December 31, 2006 that resulted from the trust preferred offering that was completed in July 2005. The debt bears an interest rate fixed at 6.42% for the first five years and a floating interest rate set at three-month LIBOR plus 190 basis points thereafter.

Each of the Bank's sources of liquidity is vulnerable to various uncertainties beyond the control of the Bank. Scheduled loan and security payments are a relatively stable source of funds, but prepayments on loans and securities, security calls, and deposit flows can all vary widely in reaction to market conditions, primarily prevailing interest rates. The Bank's financial condition is also affected by its ability to borrow at attractive rates and other market conditions.

The Bank considers its sources of liquidity to be adequate to provide for expected and unexpected balance sheet fluctuations and to provide funds for growth. Management closely monitors the Bank's liquidity/cash flow position and is not currently aware of any trends or uncertainties that would create liquidity problems in the near future.

Asset / Liability Management and Market Risk

Market risk is defined as the sensitivity of income to fluctuations in interest rates, foreign exchange rates, equity prices, commodity prices and other market-driven rates or prices. Based upon the nature of the Company's business, market risk is primarily limited to interest rate risk, which exposes the Company to risks caused by changes in interest rates affecting its loans, securities, deposits and borrowings.

The Company's ALCO is responsible for the financial management of net interest income, liquidity, capital, and other such activities. The primary objective of the Company's interest rate risk management process is to minimize the volatility to earnings from changes in interest rates. The Company manages interest rate risk by structuring its balance sheet to attempt to maximize overall profitability, increase revenue, and achieve a desired level of net interest income while managing interest rate sensitivity risk and liquidity.

The Company manages interest rate risk within limits approved by its Board of Directors using an earnings simulation model that simulates earnings over a specified time horizon to measure the amount of short-term earnings at risk under a variety of interest rate scenarios. The Company also utilizes balance sheet gap analysis to measure and monitor its short-, medium- and long-term interest rate positions and exposures. The Company's earnings analysis incorporates numerous assumptions about balance sheet changes, prepayments, product pricing and the behavior of interest rates. This type of earnings simulation includes assumptions that are inherently uncertain and, as a result, the model cannot precisely estimate the impact of higher or lower interest rates on net interest income. Actual results will differ from simulated results due to timing, magnitude and frequency of interest rate changes and changes in market conditions, and management's strategies, among other factors. The purpose of the earnings simulations is to provide management with a reasonably comprehensive view of the magnitude of the interest rate risk, the distribution of risk along the yield curve, the level of risk through time, and the amount of exposure to changes in certain interest rate relationships.

Impact of Inflation and Changing Prices

The Company's financial statements have been prepared in terms of historical dollars, without considering changes in relative purchasing power of money over time due to inflation. Unlike most industrial companies, virtually all of the assets and liabilities of a financial institution are monetary in nature. As a result, interest rates have a more significant impact on the financial institution's performance than the effect of general levels of inflation. Interest rates do not necessarily move in the same direction or the same magnitude as the prices of goods and services. Notwithstanding this, inflation can directly affect the value of loan collateral, in particular, real estate. Inflation, or disinflation, could significantly affect the Company's earnings in future periods.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

At December 31, 2006, the Bank had total unadvanced commercial and consumer lines of credit of $22.0 million and total commercial and consumer loan commitments of $8.8 million. In addition, the Bank had $2.1 million in standby letters of credit at December 31, 2006. The Bank had no arrangements with any other entities that have or are reasonably likely to have a material affect on financial condition, changes in financial condition, revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources. Note 11 of the Company's 2006 Financial Statements contains information on off-balance sheet arrangements.

Contractual Obligations

At December 31, 2006, the Bank had $10.8 million in fixed rate advances from the FHLBB. Payments of the advances include monthly principal and interest payments as well as principal payments that are due at maturity. The Company had $4.1 million in subordinated debentures at December 31, 2006, which are at a fixed rate of interest until 2010 after which the notes will become floating rate. Note 6 of the Company's 2006 Financial Statements includes a schedule of borrowings by maturity.

Investments

The Bank's investment portfolio is comprised primarily of U.S. agency obligations and mortgage-backed securities. The Bank also has corporate and municipal bonds and variable rate preferred securities in its investment portfolio. Note 2 of the Company's 2006 Financial Statements identifies the composition and maturity structure of the investment portfolio.

Note 3 of the Company's 2006 Financial Statements shows the composition of the loan portfolio and also gives a breakout of the Bank's investment in fixed and adjustable rate loans based upon term to maturity.

In managing the growth of its loan portfolio, the Bank has focused on: (i) the application of prudent underwriting criteria; (ii) active involvement by executive Bank officers and the Loan Committee in the approval process; and (iii) active monitoring of loans to ensure that repayments are made in a timely manner and to identify potential loan problems. YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2006 COMPARED TO YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2005

Earnings Review

Net income for the year ended December 31, 2006 was $573,000, or $0.48 basic income per share and $0.45 income per diluted share, compared to net income of $749,000, or $0.63 basic income per share and $0.60 income per diluted share, for the prior year, a decrease of $176,000, or 23%, in net income.

The decline in 2006 net income is attributable to one-time expenses of $345,000 incurred in the last quarter of the year related to the Company's proposed merger with New England Bancshares, Inc. Excluding the one-time expenses related to the proposed merger, net income would have been $918,000, or $0.73 per diluted share, for the year. The increase in 2006 net income excluding the merger related expenses is primarily attributable to higher levels of net interest income, which more than offset the growth in noninterest expenses.

Total assets increased by $32.2 million, or 20%, during 2006. Over the same period, the Company's loan portfolio grew by $23.9 million, or 22%, while deposits increased by $35.6 million, or 28%. The Company's investment securities portfolio declined by $7.2 million, or 21%, in 2006 while borrowed money decreased by $4.2 million, or 22%.

Net Interest Income

Net interest income for the year ended December 31, 2006 amounted to $5.8 million compared to $4.9 million in 2005. The growth in 2006 is due to the increase in average interest-earning assets that more than offset a reduction in the Company's net interest margin. The net interest margin for 2006 was 3.53% compared to 3.64% in the previous year. The decline in net interest margin reflects the rising short-term interest rate environment during 2006 and a corresponding increase in the Bank's cost of funds.

Interest Income

Total interest income for 2006 was $10.8 million compared to $7.6 million in 2005. The increase in 2006 reflects both growth in average interest-earning assets, which increased by $30.9 million, and a higher average yield on interest earning assets from 5.68% in 2005 to 6.54% in 2006. The increase in average interest-earning assets was almost entirely in loans.

Interest Expense

Total interest expense for 2006 increased by $2.3 million from $2.7 million in 2005 to $5.0 million in 2006. The increase in interest expense reflects $28.5 million of growth in average interest bearing deposits and borrowed funds and a 110 basis point increase in the average cost of funds. The average cost of interest-bearing liabilities for 2006 was 3.50% compared to 2.40% in 2005.

Provision for Loan Losses

The provision for loan losses was $321,000 in 2006 compared to $348,000 in 2005. Management performs a quarterly review of the loan portfolio and based on this review, sets the level of provision it deems necessary to maintain an adequate possible loan loss allowance. At December 31, 2006, the allowance for loan losses totaled $1,860,000, or 1.37% of total loans outstanding, compared to $1,546,000, or 1.39% of total loans outstanding, at December 31, 2005. The Company had nonaccrual loans totaling $270,000 at December 31, 2006 compared to $337,000 at December 31, 2005.

Noninterest Income

Noninterest income in 2006 totaled $406,000 compared to $385,000 in 2005, an increase of $21,000, or 5%. The 2006 total includes an $86,000 realized loss on the sale of investment securities. Excluding the loss on sale of investment securities, total noninterest income in 2006 was $492,000, an increase of 28% over the prior year. The growth in 2006 excluding the loss on sale of investments reflects fees from Riverside Investment Services and growth in loan fees earned.

Noninterest Expense

Total noninterest expenses for 2006, which include $345,000 of one-time expenses relating to the Company's proposed merger with New England Bancshares, Inc., increased by $1.0 million, or 28%. Excluding the one-time merger expenses, noninterest expenses were higher by $693,000, or 19%. In addition to the merger expenses, the overall increase is primarily due to higher expenses for salaries, benefits and taxes, including pre-opening costs related to staff hired for the Bank's two new branch offices that opened in the first quarter of 2007, and occupancy and equipment expenses including those related to the new operations center in Bristol and full-service branch office in Southington. Total 2005 expenses included $98,000 of one-time expenses related to the formation of the Company.

Income Taxes

The Company had a total income tax expense of $574,000 in 2006 compared to $452,000 in 2005. The increase reflects the fact that the Company does not receive an income tax benefit for the $345,000 of merger related expenses incurred in the last quarter of 2006. The effective tax rates for 2006 and 2005 were 50.0% and 37.6%, respectively.

The net interest margin for 2005 was 3.64% compared to 3.72% in the previous year. The decline in net interest margin reflects the rising short-term interest rate environment during 2005 and a corresponding increase in the Bank's cost of funds.

Interest Income

Total interest income for 2005 was $7.6 million compared to $5.9 million in 2004. The increase in 2005 reflects both growth in average interest-earning assets, which increased by $21.8 million, and a higher average yield on interest earning assets from 5.28% in 2004 to 5.68% in 2005. The increase in average interest-earning assets was almost entirely in loans.

At December 31, 2005, the allowance for loan losses totaled $1,546,000, or 1.39% of total loans outstanding, compared to $1,295,000, or 1.63% of total loans outstanding, at December 31, 2004. The Company had nonaccrual loans totaling $337,000 at December 31, 2005 compared to no nonaccrual loans at December 31, 2004.

Noninterest income in 2005 totaled $385,000 compared to $333,000 in 2004, an increase of $52,000, or 16%. The growth in 2005 reflects higher fees from deposit accounts, ATM fees, and loan fees earned.

Noninterest Expense

Total noninterest expenses for 2005 increased by $493,000, or 15%. The increase is primarily attributable to higher expenses for salaries, employee benefits and taxes and reflects the overall growth in the Company and the staffing required to service a larger loan portfolio and a greater number of deposit accounts. Total 2005 expenses also include $98,000 of one-time expenses related to the formation of the Company. Excluding the holding company formation expenses, total noninterest expenses increased by $395,000, or 12%.

Income Taxes

The Company had a total income tax expense of $452,000 in 2005 compared to $367,000 in 2004. The increase reflects the higher net income in the current year. The effective tax rates for 2005 and 2004 were 37.6% and 39.1%, respectively.

Rate/Volume Analysis

The following table sets forth the effects of changing rates and volumes on our net interest income for the periods indicated. Item 12 - CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS, AND DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE

Item 404 Transactions with Related Persons, Promoters and Certain Control Persons

In the ordinary course of business, the Bank has made loans to officers and directors (including loans to members of their immediate families and loans to companies of which a director owns 10% or more). The total amount of loans to officers and directors outstanding as of December 31, 2006 was $2.9 million. In the opinion of management, all of such loans were made in the ordinary course of business of the Bank on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral requirements, as those then prevailing for comparable transactions with other persons and did not involve more than the normal risk of collectibility or present other unfavorable features.

Mr. David J. Preleski, a Director of Company and the Bank, is a partner of the law firm of Vitrano, Preleski & Wynne, LLC, which provides legal services to Company and the Bank. In the opinion of the Board, the services of Attorney Preleski's firm to Company and the Bank are provided on terms at least as favorable as could be obtained from independent parties. Company and the Bank expect to continue to use the services of this firm in the future. In 2006, Company and the Bank paid the firm $12,488.00 for services provided.

Mr. Thomas O. Barnes, a Director of the Bank, is a one-third owner of Bristol Holding, L.L.C. In 1999, the Bank entered into a fifteen-year lease with Carpenter Realty Corp., The S. Carpenter Construction Corp. and Bristol Holding, L.L.C. The lease is at market rates based on similar properties in this market area. The annual rent at December 31, 2006, was $161,986.00.

Item 407(a) Director Independence

It is the policy of the Board of Directors that a majority of its directors be independent within the meaning of applicable laws and regulations and the listing standards of NASDAQ. Although not required under the applicable rules and regulations of the Over The Counter Bulletin Board, the Board of Directors uses the corporate governance standards of the NASDAQ Stock Market in making its determinations of director's independence. Our Board of Directors has affirmatively determined that all of the directors, except Messrs. Messier and Blum are independent. Our Board has also affirmatively determined that three of the Board's committees, the Audit/Compliance, Governance and Salary/Personnel Committees are comprised entirely of independent directors within the meaning of applicable laws and regulations and the listing standards of NASDAQ.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders
First Valley Bancorp, Inc.
Bristol, Connecticut

We have audited the accompanying consolidated statements of financial condition of First Valley Bancorp, Inc. (the "Company") and subsidiary as of December 31, 2006 and 2005, and the related consolidated statements of income, changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flows for each of the years ended December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Companies Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of First Valley Bancorp, Inc. and subsidiary at December 31, 2006 and 2005, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years ended December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Business

First Valley Bancorp, Inc. (the Company) is a state chartered holding company formed in 2005 for the purpose of acquiring all of the common stock of Valley Bank. Existing shares in Valley Bank common stock were exchanged for an equal and proportionate amount of shares of Company stock.

Valley Bank (the Bank) is a state chartered commercial bank which commenced operations on November 15, 1999. The Bank is engaged principally in the business of attracting deposits from the general public and investing those deposits in small business, real estate, residential and consumer loans. The Bank is subject to competition from other financial institutions throughout the region.

Both the Company and the Bank are subject to the regulations of certain state and federal agencies and undergoes periodic examinations by those regulatory authorities.

Basis of presentation and principles of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of First Valley Bancorp, Inc. and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Valley Bank. Significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. Prior to the formation of the Company the amounts reflected are those of the Bank.

The accounting and reporting policies of the Company conform to generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America and to general practices within the banking industry. Such policies have been followed on a consistent basis.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities as of the date of the balance sheet, and income and expenses for the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Material estimates that are particularly susceptible to significant change in the near-term relate to the determination of the allowance for losses on loans. While management uses available information to recognize losses on loans, future additions to the allowance may be necessary based on changes in economic conditions, particularly in Connecticut.

Cash and cash equivalents

For purposes of reporting cash flows, cash and cash equivalents include cash and amounts due from depository institutions, federal funds sold, and money market accounts.

Investment securities

The Company's investments are categorized as available-for-sale. Available-for-sale securities are securities that are held for indefinite periods of time and are carried at fair value with unrealized gains and losses reported as a separate component of capital, net of estimated income taxes.

Mortgage-backed securities, which include collateralized mortgage obligations (CMO's), are either U.S. Government Agency securities or are rated in one of the top two ratings categories by at least one of the major rating agencies at the time of purchase. One of the risks inherent when investing in mortgage-backed securities and CMO's is the ability of such instruments to incur prepayments of principal prior to maturity. Because of prepayments, the weighted-average yield of these securities may also change, which could affect earnings.

Gains or losses on the sales of securities are recognized at trade date utilizing the specific identification method.

Loans receivable and allowance for loan losses

Loans receivable are stated at unpaid principal balance less deferred loan fees, and the allowance for loan losses.

Uncollected interest on loans receivable is accrued as earned based on rates applied to principal amounts outstanding. Recognition of income on the accrual basis is generally discontinued after 90 days past due. Payments ultimately collected are allocated to reduce principal and accrued interest unless there are doubts concerning collectibility. If there are any doubts regarding collectibility all payments are used to reduce principal and any accrued interest is reversed to reduce interest income.

Loan origination fees and certain direct loan origination costs are being deferred and the net amount amortized on a level-yield basis as an adjustment to the related loan yield over its contractual life. Unamortized net fees are recognized upon early repayment of the loans.

The allowance for loan losses is established by a provision charged to earnings and is maintained at a level considered adequate to provide for potential loan losses based on management's evaluation of known and inherent risks in the loan portfolio. When a loan or portion of a loan is considered uncollectible, it is charged against the allowance for loan losses. Recoveries of loans previously charged-off are credited to the allowance when collected.

Management makes regular evaluations of the loan portfolio to determine the adequacy of the level of the allowance for loan losses. Numerous factors are considered in the evaluation, including a review of certain borrowers' current financial status and credit standing, available collateral, loss experience in relation to outstanding loans, the overall loan portfolio quality, management's judgment regarding prevailing and anticipated economic conditions, and other relevant factors.

In addition, various regulatory agencies, as an integral part of their examination process, periodically review the Bank's allowance for loan losses. Such agencies may require the Bank to recognize additions to the allowance based on their judgments about information available to them at the time of their examination.

Loans held-for-sale

Loans held-for-sale are valued at the lower of cost or market as determined by outstanding commitments from investors. All loans sold by the Company are sold on a non-recourse basis. Gains or losses on the sale of loans are determined using the specific identification method.

Premises and equipment

Premises and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation computed on the straight-line method at rates based on estimated useful lives. Estimated lives are 39 years for buildings and 3 to 10 years for furniture, fixtures and equipment. Expenditures for replacements or major improvements are capitalized. Expenditures for normal maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred. Upon the sale or retirement of premises and equipment, the cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the respective accounts and any gain or loss is included in income.

Computation of fair values

The calculation of fair value estimates of financial instruments is dependent upon certain subjective assumptions and involves significant uncertainties. Changes in assumptions could significantly affect the estimates. These estimates do not reflect any possible tax ramifications, estimated transaction costs or any premium or discount that could result from offering the Company's entire holdings of a particular financial instrument.

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies - (Continued)

The following methods and assumptions were utilized by the Company in estimating the fair values of its on-balance sheet financial instruments:

Cash and cash equivalents - The carrying amounts reported in the statement of financial condition approximate these assets' fair value.

Investment securities - Fair values for investment securities are based on quoted market prices.

Loans receivable - For variable rate loans that reprice frequently and without significant change in credit risk, fair values are based on carrying values. The fair value of other loans is estimated by discounted cash flow analyses using interest rates currently being offered for loans with similar terms to borrowers of similar credit quality.

Accrued income receivable - The carrying value of accrued income receivable approximates fair value.

Deposits - For the present value calculation of non-maturity deposits, an assumption is required as to the maturity, or life, of these deposits. The Company is currently using the FDICIA 305 proposal recommended for this purpose. On non-maturity deposits, fair value is based on using a discounted cash flow technique that uses current interest rates and applies interest expense into the future compared to Federal Home Loan Bank current loan interest rates. Fair values for time certificates of deposit are estimated using a discounted cash flow technique that applies interest rates currently being offered to a schedule of aggregated expected monthly maturities on time deposits.

FHLBB Advances - Fair values are estimated using discounted cash flow analyses based on the Bank's current incremental borrowing rates for similar types of borrowing arrangements.

Subordinated debts - Fair value is determined using quoted market prices.

Mortgagors' escrow accounts - The carrying value of escrow accounts approximates fair value.

Income taxes

The Bank accounts for certain income and expense items differently for financial reporting purposes than for income tax purposes. Provisions for deferred taxes are being made in recognition of these temporary differences.

Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing income available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted earnings per share reflect the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue common stock were exercised or converted into common stock or resulted in the issuance of common stock that then shared in the earnings of the entity.

Related party transactions

Directors and officers of the Company and their affiliates have been customers of and have had transactions with the Bank, and it is expected that such persons will continue to have such transactions in the future. Management believes that all deposit accounts, loans, services and commitments comprising such transactions, were made in the ordinary course of business, on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other customers who are not directors or officers. In the opinion of management, the transactions with related parties did not involve more than normal risks of collectibility or favored treatment or terms, or present other unfavorable features.

Stock Based Compensation

As more fully described in Note 12, the Bank has a long-term incentive plan authorizing various types of market and performance based incentive awards that may be granted to directors, officers and employees. In December 2004, the Financial Accounting Standards Board revised Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation" ("SFAS 123R"). This Statement eliminated the alternative intrinsic value method of accounting, in accordance with the Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees" for recognizing the cost of employee services received in share-based payment transactions, thereby reflecting the economic consequences of those transactions in the financial statements. SFAS 123R requires all entities to follow the same accounting standard and account for such transactions using the fair-value-based method. On March 29, 2005, the SEC staff issued Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 107 ("SAB 107"). SAB 107 expresses the views of the SEC staff regarding SFAS 123R and certain rules and regulations and provides the SEC's views regarding the valuation of share-based payment arrangements for public companies. On April 14, 2005, the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") delayed the effective date for SFAS 123R, which allows companies to implement the statement at the beginning of their first fiscal year beginning after June 15, 2005, which would be January 1, 2006 for the Company. Previously, the Company applied APB Opinion 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees," and related interpretations in accounting for its long-term incentive plan.

The following table illustrates the effect on net income and earnings per share as if the fair value based method described in SFAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation" had been applied to the Bank's long-term incentive plan.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In July 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued FASB Interpretation No. 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Tax Positions." This interpretation clarifies the application of SFAS No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes," by establishing a threshold condition that a tax position must meet for any part of the benefit of that position to be recognized in the financial statements. In addition to recognition, FASB Interpretation No. 48 provides guidance concerning measurement, derecognition, classification, and disclosure of tax positions and is effective for fiscal years ending after December 15, 2006. Adoption of this Interpretation is not expected to have a significant impact on the results of operations and financial condition.

In March 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement No. 156,

"Accounting for Servicing of Financial Assets." Statement 156, which is an amendment to SFAS No. 140, simplifies the accounting for servicing assets and liabilities, such as those common with mortgage securitization activities. The new Standard clarifies when an obligation to service financial assets should be separately recognized as a servicing asset or a servicing liability; requires that a separately recognized servicing asset or servicing liability be initially measured at fair value, if practicable; and permits an entity with a separately recognized servicing asset or servicing liability to choose either the Amortization Method or Fair Value Method for subsequent measurement. Statement No. 156 is effective for separately recognized servicing assets and liabilities acquired or issued after the beginning of an entity's fiscal year that begins after September 15, 2006, with early adoption permitted. Adoption of this statement is not expected to have a material effect on results of operations or financial condition.

On July 28, 2005 the Company formed FVB Capital Trust I. The trust has no independent assets or operations and was created for the sole purpose of issuing trust preferred securities and investing the proceeds thereof in an equivalent amount of junior subordinated debentures issued by the Company.

Trust preferred securities issued by the statutory trust are considered regulatory capital for purposes of determining the Company's Tier 1 capital ratio and the Bank's Tier 1 capital ratio to the extent that the trust preferred proceeds have been invested in the Bank's capital.

The subordinated debentures, which bear an interest rate fixed at 6.42% for the first five years and a floating interest rate set at three-month LIBOR plus 190 basis points thereafter, mature on August 23, 2035 and can be redeemed at the Company's option in an amount equal to 100% of the principal amount of the debt securities beginning in 2010 and thereafter. The trust securities have identical terms except the duration of the trust in 35 years.

SFAS No. 109 requires a valuation allowance against deferred tax assets if, based on the weight of available evidence, it is more likely than not, that some or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. As of December 31, 2006, the Company believes that all deferred tax assets will be realized in the future and no valuation allowance is necessary.

8. Regulatory Matters

Regulatory Capital

The Company and its subsidiary, Valley Bank, are subject to various regulatory capital requirements administered by the federal banking agencies. Failure to meet minimum capital requirements can initiate certain mandatory and possibly additional discretionary actions by regulators that, if undertaken, could have a direct material effect on the Company's financial statements.

Quantitative measures established by regulation to ensure capital adequacy require the Company to maintain minimum ratios of 4.00% for Tier 1 leverage, 4.00% for Tier 1 risk-based capital and 8.00% for total risk-based capital. As of December 31 2006, the Company and its subsidiary meet all capital requirements to which it is subject.

At December 31, 2006, the Company and its subsidiary's capital ratios were considered well capitalized for regulatory purposes. To be categorized as well capitalized, the Bank must maintain a Tier 1 leverage ratio of 5.00%, a Tier 1 risk-based capital ratio of at least 6.00%; and a total risk-based capital ratio of at least 10.00%. There have been no subsequent conditions or events which management believes have changed their status.

11. Financial Instruments

The Bank is a party to financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk in the normal course of business to meet the financing needs of its customers. These financial instruments include commitments to extend credit. These commitments involve, to varying degrees, elements of credit and interest rate risk in excess of the amount recognized in the statement of financial condition.

The contractual amounts of outstanding commitments were as follows at December 31:

	2006	2005
	(in thousands)
Commitments to extend credit:
Loan commitments	$ 8,759	$ 11,184
Unadvanced lines of credit	21,992	21,931
Standby letters of credit	2,139	1,089
Outstanding commitments	$ 32,890	$ 34,204

The Bank's exposure to credit loss in the event of nonperformance by the other party to the financial instrument for commitments to extend credit is represented by the contractual amount of those instruments. The Bank uses the same credit policies in making commitments and conditional obligations as it does for on-balance-sheet instruments.

Commitments to extend credit are agreements to lend to a customer as long as there is no violation of any condition established in the contract. Commitments generally have fixed expiration dates or other termination clauses and may require payment of a fee. Since some of the commitments may expire without being drawn upon, the total commitment amounts do not necessarily represent future cash requirements. In extending commitments, the Bank evaluates each customer's creditworthiness on a case-by-case basis. The amount of collateral obtained, if deemed necessary by the Bank upon extension of credit, is based on management's credit evaluation of the counter-party.

Standby letters of credit are conditional commitments issued by the Bank to guarantee the performance of a customer to a third party. The credit risk involved in issuing letters of credit is essentially the same as that involved in a loan commitment.

Management does not anticipate any material losses as a result of these commitments.

Cash and cash equivalents	$ 26,160	$ 26,160	$ 12,667	$ 12,667

12. Employee and Director Benefit Plan

During 2000, the Shareholders and the Board of Directors approved a plan entitled "Valley Bank 1999 Stock Option and Stock Compensation Plan, as amended".

The Company accounts for stock options issued in accordance with APB Opinion No. 25, under which no compensation cost has been recognized. A table illustrating the effect of the plan had compensation cost been determined consistent with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation", is included in Note 1.

The fair value of each option grant is estimated on the date of grant using the minimum value method. This method calculates a fair value per share that is equal to the difference between the present value of the exercise price and the current price of the stock reduced to exclude the present value of any expected dividends during the option's life. The following assumptions were used for option grants in 2004 and 2003: a risk free interest rate of 4.24% and 3.92%, respectively, an expected life equal to the grant life and an expected dividend yield of 0%. For options granted in 2004 and 2003, the weighted average fair values per share were approximately $7.59 and $7.49, respectively.

The plan initially reserved 141,075 shares of common stock to be used for eligible Bank employees and directors in the form of stock options or stock awards. The Plan was subsequently amended in 2003 and 2004, at which time additional shares totaling 30,724 and 117,600 respectively, were added.

Options are exercisable for a ten-year period from the effective date of the actual grant. However, the options may not be exercised before they vest.

The plan terminates on November 19, 2009.

Information regarding the Company's stock option plan as of December 31, is summarized below:

	2006		2005		2004

On December 19, 2005, the Company's Board of Directors declared a 1 for 10 stock split effective January 30, 2006 for shareholders of record on December 30, 2005. All stock shares and per share amounts have been restated to give effect to the stock splits.

14. Definitive Merger Agreement

On November 21, 2006, the First Valley Bancorp, Inc. (the "Company") entered into a definitive agreement in which the Company will merge with and into New England Bancshares Acquisition, Inc. in exchange for cash and common stock of New England Bancshares, Inc. ("NEB"). NEB is a Maryland corporation based in Enfield, Connecticut and is the holding company for Enfield Federal Savings and Loan Association in Enfield, Connecticut. At the effective time of the merger, the separate corporate existence of the Company shall cease, and Valley Bank, the Company's subsidiary, will become a subsidiary of NEB. Per the definitive agreement, Valley Bank will continue as a separate subsidiary for a minimum of five years after the effective date, absent the occurrence of certain unexpected events.

The transaction is valued at approximately $25.6 million. The terms of the definitive agreement call for each outstanding share of the Company to be converted into the right to receive .8907 shares of NEB common stock and $9.00 in cash.
