GLOBAL CREDIT PARTNERS, LLC

(A LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY)

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2022

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Business

Global Credit Partners, LLC (a New Jersey limited liability company) (the "Company") is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and is a member of various exchanges as well as the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. ("FINRA"). The Company is engaged in a single line of business as a securities broker-dealer, which comprises several classes of services. As a limited liability company the members' liability is limited to their equity contribution.

Basis of Accounting

The Company maintains its books and records on the accrual basis of accounting for financial reporting purposes, which is in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles and is required by the SEC and FINRA.

Income Taxes

The Company is an LLC taxed as a partnership for income tax reporting purposes, and as such, is not subject to income tax. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes is provided in the financial statements.

The Company has adopted the provisions of FASB Accounting Standards Codification 740-10, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. Under FASB ASC 740-10, the Company is required to evaluate each of its tax positions to determine if they are more likely than not to be sustained if the taxing authority examines the respective position. A tax position includes an entity's status and the decision not to file a return. The Company has evaluated each of its tax positions and has determined that it has no uncertain tax positions for which a provision or liability for income taxes is necessary.

The Company files income tax returns in the U.S. in both federal and state jurisdictions.

Fixed Assets

Office furniture and equipment is stated at cost. Depreciation is computed using the straight line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets (generally five to seven years). Depreciation expense for 2022 is $12,243.

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, CONTINUED

Prepaid expenses

Prepaid expenses on the statement of financial condition include: insurance, equipment rental, and Bloomberg fees and are amortized over their useful lives.

Estimates

The presentation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company defines cash equivalents as highly liquid investments with original maturities of less than ninety days that are not held for sale in the ordinary course of business.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts, which at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk for cash.

Leases

The Company recognizes and measures its leases in accordance with FASB ASC 842, Leases. The Company determines if an arrangement is a lease, or contains a lease, at inception of a contract and when the terms of an existing contract are changed. The Company recognizes a lease liability and a right of use (ROU) asset at the commencement date of the lease. The lease liability is initially and subsequently recognized based on the present value of its future lease payments. Variable payments are included in the future lease payments when those variable payments depend on an index or a rate. The discount rate is the implicit rate if it is readily determinable or otherwise the Company uses its incremental borrowing rate. The implicit rates of our leases are not readily determinable and accordingly, we use our incremental borrowing rate based on the information available at the commencement date for all leases. The Company's incremental borrowing rate for a lease is the rate of interest it would have to pay on a collateralized basis to borrow an amount equal to the lease payments under similar terms and in a similar economic environment. The ROU asset is subsequently measured throughout the lease term at the amount of the remeasured lease liability (i.e., present value of the remaining lease payments), plus unamortized initial direct costs, plus (minus) any prepaid (accrued) lease payments, less the unamortized balance of lease incentives received, and any impairment recognized. Lease cost for lease payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, CONTINUED

The Company has elected, for all underlying classes of assets, to not recognize ROU assets and lease liabilities for short-term leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less at lease commencement, and do not include an option to purchase the underlying asset that the Company is reasonably certain to exercise. The Company recognizes lease cost associated with our short-term leases on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The Company is evaluating new accounting standards and will implement as required.

2. REVENUE FROM CONTRACTS WITH CUSTOMERS

In accordance with ASU 2014-09 Revenue from Contracts with Customers and all subsequent amendments to the ASU (collectively, "ASC 606") the Company recognizes revenue upon satisfaction of performance obligations by transferring control over goods or service to a customer.

Commissions:

The Company buys and sells securities on behalf of its counterparties. Each time a counterparty enters into a buy or sell transaction, the Company charges a markup/markdown. The markup/markdown and related clearing expenses are recorded on the trade date (the date that the Company fills the trade order by finding and contracting with a counterparty and confirms the trade with the counterparty). The Company believes that the performance obligation is satisfied on the trade date because that is when the underlying financial instrument or purchaser is identified, the pricing is agreed upon and the risks and rewards of ownership have been transferred to/from the counterparty.

3. COMMISSIONS RECEIVABLE AND PAYABLE

Commissions receivable at December 31, 2021 was $52,215. Commissions are due upon services rendered. There is no commissions receivable at December 31, 2022.

The Company pays a portion of its commissions earned to its representatives. Commissions payable to representatives as of December 31, 2022 is $26,521.

4. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2022, the Company had net capital of $129,242, which was $124,242 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 0.39 to 1.

5. COMMITMENTS

Lease:

The Company has an obligation under an operating lease for office space with an initial non-cancelable term in excess of one year. On November 12, 2014, the Company entered into an amended lease agreement to extend the term of the lease for the period from March 1, 2015 through February 29, 2020. On January 16, 2020 the Company entered into an agreement to extend the lease term on a month-to-month basis commencing March 1, 2020. The agreement is cancellable by either party upon 60 days written notice. Due to the uncertainty inherent in the month-to-month agreements such payments are not included as a lease asset or liability as of December 31, 2022.

5. COMMITMENTS, CONTINUED

The Company's rent expense for the year ended December 31, 2022 was $17,952.

The Company paid monthly lease payments on behalf of a related party for a company vehicle, the amount paid for the year ended December 31, 2022 was $12,810 and is included on the statement of operations.

6. INDEMNIFICATIONS

In the normal course of its business, the Company indemnifies and guarantees certain service providers, such as clearing and custody agents, trustees and administrators, against specified potential losses in connection with their acting as an agent of, or providing services to, the Company or its affiliates. The Company also indemnifies some clients against potential losses incurred in the event specified third-party service providers, including subcustodians and third-party brokers, improperly executed transactions. The maximum potential amount of future payments that the Company could be required to make under these indemnifications cannot be estimated. However, the Company believes that it is unlikely it will have to make material payments under these arrangements and has not recorded any contingent liability in the financial statements for these indemnifications. For the year ended December 31, 2022 the Company experienced no material net losses as result of the indemnity.

7. GOING CONCERN

The Company sustained losses and had negative cash flow from operations in 2022. The Company suspended trading in late January 2022 prior to being sold in November 2022. The new ownership plans to resume trading activity in 2023 and on recapitalizing the Company as needed to maintain operations and meet its commitments and net capital requirements beyond one year from the date of the report of independent registered public accounting firm.

Management expects the Company to continue as a going concern and the accompanying financial statements have been prepared on a going-concern basis without adjustments for realization in the event that the Company ceases to continue as a going concern.

8. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through February 15, 2023, the date that its financial statements were issued.
