Form 10-K for Fiscal Year Ended June 30, 2009
File No. 0-51972

Dear Mr. Chen:

We have reviewed your responses and have the following comments. Where indicated, we think you should revise your document in response to these comments. If you disagree, we will consider your explanation as to why our comment is inapplicable or a revision is unnecessary. Please be as detailed as necessary in your explanation. In some of our comments, we may ask you to provide us with information so we may better understand your disclosure. After reviewing this information, we may raise additional comments.

Please understand that the purpose of our review process is to assist you in your compliance with the applicable disclosure requirements and to enhance the overall disclosure in your filing. We look forward to working with you in these respects. We welcome any questions you may have about our comments or any other aspect of our review. Feel free to call us at the telephone numbers listed at the end of this letter.

FORM 10-K FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDED JUNE 30, 2009

Note 10. Preferred Stock and Warrants, page F-21

1. We note your response to the last bullet point of prior comment one. We also note your disclosure in Note 10 on page 26 of your Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2010 that "in the event the company is prohibited by law or regulation, then the holder (Series A preferred holder) can require cash redemption". Based on this provision, it remains unclear to us how and why you believe that the cash redemption of this security is solely within your control and
