5. Representations and Warranties of the Purchaser. The Purchaser represents and warrants to, and agrees with, the Company and the Trust as follows:

(a) The Purchaser is aware that the Preferred Securities have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to “U.S. persons” (as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act) except in accordance with Rule 903 of Regulation S under the Securities Act or pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

(b) The Purchaser is an “accredited investor,” as such term is defined in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D under the Securities Act.

(c) Neither the Purchaser, nor any of the Purchaser’s Affiliates, nor any person acting on the Purchaser’s or any Purchaser’s Affiliate’s behalf has engaged, or will engage, in any form of “general solicitation or general advertising” (within the meaning of Regulation D under the Securities Act) in connection with any offer or sale of the Preferred Securities.

(d) The Purchaser understands and acknowledges that (i) no public market exists for any of the Preferred Securities and that it is unlikely that a public market will ever exist for the Securities, (ii) the Purchaser is purchasing the Preferred Securities for its own account, for investment and not with a view to, or for offer or sale in connection with, any distribution thereof in violation of the Securities Act or other applicable securities laws, subject to any requirement of law that the disposition of its property be at all times within its control and subject to its ability to resell such Preferred Securities pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act or pursuant to an exemption therefrom or in a transaction not subject thereto, and the Purchaser agrees to the legends and transfer restrictions applicable to the Preferred Securities contained in the Indenture, and (iii) the Purchaser has had the opportunity to ask questions of, and receive answers and request additional information from, the Company and is aware that it may be required to bear the economic risk of an investment in the Preferred Securities.

(e) The Purchaser is duly formed, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction in which it is organized with all requisite power and authority to execute, deliver and perform the Operative Documents to which it is a party, to make the representations and warranties specified herein and therein and to consummate the transactions contemplated herein.

(f) This Purchase Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Purchaser and no filing with, or authorization, approval, consent, license, order registration, qualification or decree of, any governmental body, agency or court having jurisdiction over the Purchaser, other than those that have been made or obtained, is necessary or required for the performance by the Purchaser of its obligations under this Purchase Agreement or to consummate the transactions contemplated herein.

(g) The Purchaser is a “Qualified Purchaser” as such term is defined in Section 2(a)(51) of the Investment Company Act.

6. Covenants and Agreements of the Company and the Trust. The Company and the Trust jointly and severally agree with the Purchaser as follows:

(a) During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Closing Date, the Company and the Trust shall use their commercially reasonable efforts and take all action necessary or appropriate to cause their representations and warranties contained in Section 4 hereof to be true as of the Closing Date, after giving effect to the transactions contemplated by this Purchase Agreement, as if made on and as of the Closing Date.

(b) The Company and the Trust will arrange for the qualification of the Preferred Securities for sale under the laws of such states in the United States as the Purchaser may designate and will maintain such qualifications in effect so long as required for the sale of the Preferred Securities to the Purchaser; provided, that neither the Company nor the Trust will be required to file a general consent to service of process in any such state. The Company or the Trust, as the case may be, will promptly advise the Purchaser of the receipt by the Company or the Trust, as the case may be, of any notification with respect to the suspension of the qualification of the Preferred Securities for sale in any jurisdiction or the initiation or threatening of any proceeding for such purpose.

(c) Neither the Company nor the Trust will, nor will either of them permit any of its Affiliates to, nor will either of them permit any person acting on its or their behalf (other than the Purchaser) to, resell any Securities that have been acquired by any of them, except in compliance with applicable law.

(d) Neither the Company nor the Trust will, nor will either of them permit any of their Affiliates or any person acting on their behalf to, engage in any “directed selling efforts” within the meaning of Regulation S under the Securities Act with respect to the Securities.

(e) Neither the Company nor the Trust will, nor will either of them permit any of their Affiliates or any person acting on their behalf to, directly or indirectly, make offers or sales of any security, or solicit offers to buy any security, under circumstances that would require the registration of any of the Securities under the Securities Act.

(f) Neither the Company nor the Trust will, nor will either of them permit any of its Affiliates or any person acting on their behalf to, engage in any form of “general solicitation or general advertising” (within the meaning of Regulation D) in connection with any offer or sale of any of the Securities.

(g) So long as any of the Securities are outstanding, (i) the Securities shall not be listed on a national securities exchange registered under Section 6 of the Exchange Act or quoted in a U.S. automated inter-dealer quotation system and (ii) neither the Company nor the Trust shall be an open-end investment company, unit investment trust or face-amount certificate company that is, or is required to be, registered under Section 8 of the Investment Company Act, and, the Securities shall otherwise satisfy the eligibility requirements of Rule 144A(d)(3).

(h) Reserved.

(i) Each of the Company and the Trust will, during any period in which it is not subject to and in compliance with Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act, or it is not exempt from such reporting requirements pursuant to and in compliance with Rule 12g3-2(b) under the Exchange Act, provide to each holder of the Preferred Securities and to each prospective purchaser (as designated by such holder) of the Preferred Securities, upon the request of such holder or prospective purchaser, any information required to be provided by Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act. This covenant is intended to be for the benefit of the Purchaser, the holders of the Securities, and the prospective purchasers designated by the Purchaser and such holders, from time to time, of the Securities.

(j) Neither the Company nor the Trust will, until one hundred eighty (180) days following the Closing Date, without the Purchaser’s prior written consent, offer, sell, contract to sell, grant any option to purchase or otherwise dispose of, directly or indirectly, (i) any Preferred Securities or other securities substantially similar to the Preferred Securities other than as contemplated by this Purchase Agreement or (ii) any other securities convertible into, or exercisable or exchangeable for, any Preferred Securities or other securities substantially similar to the Preferred Securities.

(k) The Company will use its reasonable efforts to meet the requirements to qualify as a REIT under sections 856 through 860 of the Code, effective for the taxable year ending December 31, 2007 and succeeding taxable years.

(l) Except to comply with the requirements of applicable law, neither the Company nor the Trust will identify any of the Indemnified Parties (as defined below) in a press release or any other public statement without the prior written consent of such Indemnified Party.

(m) The Purchaser is granted the right under the Indenture and the Trust Agreement to request the substitution of new notes for all or a portion of the Junior Subordinated

Notes held by the Trust. The Trust is required under the terms of the Indenture and the Trust Agreement to accept such newly issued notes (the “Replacement Notes”) from the Company and surrender a like amount of Junior Subordinated Notes to the Company. The Replacement Notes shall bear terms identical to the Junior Subordinated Notes with the sole exception of interest payment dates (and corresponding redemption date and maturity date), which will be specified by the Purchaser. In no event will the interest payment dates (and corresponding redemption date and maturity date) on the Replacement Notes vary by more than sixty (60) calendar days from the original interest payment dates (and corresponding redemption date and maturity date) under the Junior Subordinated Notes. Each of the Company and the Trust acknowledges and agrees that, to the extent of the principal amount of the Replacement Notes issued to the Trust under the Indenture, the Purchaser (and each successor to Purchaser’s interest in the Preferred Securities) will require the Trust to issue a new series of Preferred Securities having a principal amount related to the principal amount of the Replacement Notes (the “Replacement Securities”) to designated holders of Preferred Securities, provided that any such Replacement Securities, and any distributions from the Trust to the holders of Replacement Securities, must relate solely to the Trust’s interest in the Replacement Notes and in no event will the Preferred Securities, other than the Replacement Securities, share in the returns from any Replacement Notes. The Replacement Securities shall have payment dates (and corresponding redemption date and maturity date) that relate to the Replacement Notes. Each of the Company and the Trust agrees to cooperate with all reasonable requests of the Purchaser in connection with any of the foregoing, provided that no action requested of the Company or the Trust in connection with such cooperation shall materially increase the obligations or materially decrease the rights of the Company pursuant to such documents. The Purchaser shall pay the Sellers’ reasonable expenses incurred in fulfilling their obligations pursuant to this paragraph.

7. Payment of Expenses. The Company, as depositor of the Trust, agrees to pay all costs and expenses incident to the performance of the obligations of the Company and the Trust under this Purchase Agreement, whether or not the transactions contemplated herein are consummated or this Purchase Agreement is terminated, including all costs and expenses incident to (i) the authorization, issuance, sale and delivery of the Preferred Securities and any taxes payable in connection therewith; (ii) the fees and expenses of qualifying the Preferred Securities under the securities laws of the several jurisdictions as provided in Section 6(b); (iii) the fees and expenses of the counsel, the accountants and any other experts or advisors retained by the Company or the Trust; (iv) the fees and all reasonable expenses of the Property Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, the Indenture Trustee and any other trustee or paying agent appointed under the Operative Documents, including the fees and disbursements of counsel for such trustees, which fees shall not exceed a $2,000 acceptance fee, $3,500 for the fees and expenses of Richards, Layton & Finger, P.A., special Delaware counsel retained by the Delaware Trustee in connection with the Closing, and $4,000 in administrative fees annually; (v) $50,000 for the fees and expenses of Thelen Reid Brown Raysman & Steiner, LLP, special counsel retained by Taberna Capital Management, LLC; and (vi) a due diligence fee in an amount equal to $12,500 payable to Taberna Securities, LLC.

If the sale of the Preferred Securities provided for in this Purchase Agreement is not consummated because any condition set forth in Section 3 hereof to be satisfied by either the Company or the Trust is not satisfied, because this Purchase Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 9 or because of any failure, refusal or inability on the part of the Company or the Trust to perform all obligations and satisfy all conditions on its part to be performed or satisfied hereunder other than by reason of a default by the Purchaser, the Company will reimburse the Purchaser upon demand for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including the fees and expenses of each of the Purchaser's counsel specified in subparagraphs (iv) and (v) of the immediately preceding paragraph) that shall have been incurred by the Purchaser in connection with the proposed purchase and sale of the Preferred Securities. The Company shall not in any event be liable to the Purchaser for the loss of anticipated profits from the transactions contemplated by this Purchase Agreement.

8. Indemnification. (a) The Sellers agree, jointly and severally, to indemnify and hold harmless the Purchaser, the Purchaser's affiliates, Taberna Capital Management, LLC, Taberna Securities, LLC, and their respective affiliates and successors and assigns (collectively, the "Indemnified Parties") each person, if any, who controls any of the Indemnified Parties within the meaning of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, and the Indemnified Parties' respective directors, officers, employees and agents against any losses, claims, damages or liabilities, joint or several, to which the Indemnified Parties may become subject, under the Securities Act, the Exchange Act or other federal or state statutory law or regulation, at common law or the law of any other jurisdiction, insofar as such losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon third-party claims relating to (i) any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any information provided by the Company, (ii) any omission or alleged omission to state any material fact required to be stated or necessary to make the statements contained in any information provided by the Company and the Trust, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, or (iii) the breach or alleged breach of any representation, warranty or agreement of either Seller contained herein; provided, that neither the Company nor the Trust shall be liable to the Indemnified Parties in any such case to the extent that any such loss, claim, damages or liability arises out of or is based upon an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement in or omission or alleged omission from any of such documents in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to the Company or to the Trust, as the case may be, by such Indemnified Party specifically for use therein. Sellers agree, jointly and severally, to reimburse the Indemnified Parties for any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by the Indemnified Parties in connection with investigating or defending any such loss, claim, damage or liability or action. This indemnity agreement will be in addition to any liability that any of the Sellers may otherwise have.

(b) The Company agrees to indemnify the Trust against all loss, liability, claim, damage and expense whatsoever due from the Trust under paragraph (a) above. The Company, as indemnitor, shall have authority over and control the defense of all such indemnified matters.

(c) Promptly after receipt by an Indemnified Party under this Section 8 of notice of the commencement of any action, such Indemnified Party will, if a claim in respect thereof is to be made against the indemnifying party under this Section 8, promptly notify the indemnifying party in writing of the commencement thereof; but the failure so to notify the indemnifying party (i) will not relieve the indemnifying party from liability under this Section 8 unless and to the extent that such failure results in the forfeiture by the indemnifying party of material rights and defenses and (ii) will not, in any event, relieve the indemnifying party from any obligations to any Indemnified Party other than the indemnification obligation provided above. The Sellers shall be entitled to appoint counsel to represent the Indemnified Party in any action for which indemnification is sought, which counsel shall be reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Indemnified Party shall have the right to employ its own counsel in any action for which indemnification is sought, but the fees and expenses of such counsel shall be at the expense of such Indemnified Party unless (x) the employment of such counsel shall have been authorized in writing by the indemnifying party in connection with the defense of such action, (y) the indemnifying party shall not have employed counsel to have charge of the defense of such action within a reasonable time after notice of commencement of the action or (z) such Indemnified Party shall have reasonably concluded that there may be defenses available to it that are different from or additional to those available to the indemnifying party (in which case the indemnifying party shall not have the right to direct the defense of such action on behalf of the Indemnified Party), in any of which events such fees and expenses shall be borne by the indemnifying party. An indemnifying party may participate at its own expense in the defense of any such action; provided, that counsel to the indemnifying party shall not (except with the consent of the Indemnified Party) also be counsel to the Indemnified Party. In no event shall the indemnifying parties be liable for fees and expenses of more than one counsel (in addition to any local counsel) separate from their own counsel for all Indemnified Parties in connection with any one action or separate but similar or related actions in the same jurisdiction arising out of the same general allegations or circumstances, unless representation of both parties by the same counsel would be inappropriate due to an actual or potential conflict (based upon the advice of outside counsel to the Indemnified Party). An indemnifying party will not, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Parties, settle or compromise or consent to the entry of any judgment with respect to any pending or threatened claim, action, suit or proceeding in respect of which indemnification may be sought hereunder (whether or not the Indemnified Parties are actual or potential parties to such claim, action, suit or proceeding) unless such settlement, compromise or consent includes an unconditional release of each Indemnified Party from all liability arising out of such claim, action, suit or proceeding.

9. Termination; Representations and Indemnities to Survive. This Purchase Agreement shall be subject to termination in the absolute discretion of the Purchaser, by notice given to the Company and the Trust prior to delivery of and payment for the Preferred Securities, if prior to such time (i) a downgrading shall have occurred in the rating accorded the Company's debt securities or preferred stock by any "nationally recognized statistical rating organization," as that term is used by the Commission in Rule 15c3-1(c)(2)(vi)(F) under the Exchange Act, or such organization shall have publicly announced that it has under surveillance or review, with possible negative implications, its rating of the Company's debt securities or preferred stock, (ii) the Trust shall be unable to sell and deliver to the Purchaser at least $28,125,000 stated liquidation value of Preferred Securities, (iii) a suspension or material limitation in trading in securities generally shall have occurred on the New York Stock Exchange, (iv) a suspension or material limitation in trading in any of the Company's securities shall have occurred on the exchange or quotation system upon which the Company's securities are traded, if any, (v) a general moratorium on commercial business activities shall have been declared either by federal or Maryland, Nevada or New York authorities or (vi) there shall have occurred any outbreak or escalation of hostilities, or declaration by the United States of a national emergency or war or other calamity or crisis the effect of which on financial markets is such as to make it, in the Purchaser's judgment, impracticable or inadvisable to proceed with the offering or delivery of the Preferred Securities. The respective agreements, representations, warranties, indemnities and other statements of the Company and the Trust or their respective officers or trustees and of the Purchaser set forth in or made pursuant to this Purchase Agreement will remain in full force and effect, regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of the Purchaser, the Company or the Trust or any of their respective officers, directors, trustees or controlling persons, and will survive delivery of and payment for the Preferred Securities. The provisions of Sections 7 and 8 shall survive the termination or cancellation of this Purchase Agreement.

Vestin Realty Mortgage II

VRM II is a defendant in an action filed in 2006 in Superior Court for San Diego County, California. (Genton v. Vestin Realty Mortgage II, Inc., et al.) The action is a purported class action on behalf of all members of Vestin Fund II who did not vote in favor of the conversion of Vestin Fund II into a REIT by means of a merger with VRM II. The action alleges among other things breach of contract and elder abuse. Plaintiffs allege that they should have been afforded appraisal rights in connection with the merger with VRM II. The action is in the pleading stage.

VRM II is a defendant in an action filed in 2006 by 88 separate plaintiffs in the District Court for Clark County, Nevada. (Klaas et al. v. Vestin Mortgage, Inc. et al.) The plaintiffs allege, among other things, that the defendants breached contractual obligations and fiduciary duties and made false and misleading statements in connection with the merger of Vestin Fund II into VRM II. The plaintiffs allege that they should have been provided appraisal rights in connection with such merger. The action is in the pleading stage.

VRM II is a plaintiff and cross-defendant in an action filed in state court in Hawaii in 2006. In the action, VRM II alleges that the State of Hawaii illegally blocked the lenders' right to foreclose upon and take title to collateral securing a defaulted loan (Rightstar) by inappropriately attaching conditions to the licenses needed to operate the mortuaries and cemeteries constituting the collateral. The State of Hawaii counter-sued, alleging that VRM II and its affiliates improperly influenced the Rightstar trustees to invest in VRM II. The case is in early stages of motion practice and discovery.

The plaintiffs allege that they should have been provided appraisal rights in connection with such merger. The action is in the pleading stage.

VRM I is a plaintiff in an action filed in Hawaii in 2006. In the action, VRM I alleges that the State of Hawaii illegally blocked the lenders' right to foreclose upon and take title to collateral securing a defaulted loan (Rightstar) by inappropriately attaching conditions to the licenses needed to operate the mortuaries and cemeteries constituting the collateral. The State of Hawaii filed a counter-suit against certain plaintiffs, but not against VRM I. The action is in early stages of motion practice and discovery.

VRM I is a defendant in an amended complaint filed in state court in Nevada by Desert Land LLC alleging improper transfers of $1.6 Million to VRM I with an intent to defraud Desert Land. The complaint is substantially the same as a matter brought by Desert Land in federal court which was dismissed by the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.
