Renaissance Institutional Management LLC (“RIM” or the “Company”) was formed under the laws of the State of Delaware on March 18, 2005, and commenced operations on November 1, 2005. RIM is registered as a broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”).

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and highly liquid investments with original or remaining maturities of three months or less at the time of purchase. Use of Estimates

The preparation of the statement of financial condition in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the statement of financial condition. Actual results could materially differ from those estimates.

Current Expected Credit Losses

Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standards Codification 326-20 (“ASC 326-20”), Financial Instruments - Credit Losses requires companies to estimate expected credit losses over the life of financial assets and certain off-balance sheet exposures as of the reporting date based on relevant information about past events, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts.
