Notes to Statement of Financial Condition

Ally Invest Securities LLC

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Description of Business and Organization

Ally Invest Securities LLC, (“the Company”) is a broker dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“the SEC”) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”). The Company is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Ally Invest Group, Inc. (“the Parent”). The Parent is a wholly owned subsidiary of Ally Financial Inc. (“AFI”).

The Company engages in buying and selling securities for its retail self-directed customers, facilitated through an internet-based trading platform. The Company clears all customer transactions through a clearing broker-dealer on a fully disclosed basis.

Government and Other Regulation

The Company’s business is subject to significant regulation by various governmental agencies, including the SEC and FINRA. The oversight of these organizations includes, among other things, periodic examinations by these regulatory bodies to determine whether the Company is conducting and reporting its operations in accordance with the applicable requirements of these organizations.

Basis of Presentation

The statement of financial condition is prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (“U.S. GAAP”).

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments having maturities of three months or less at the date of acquisition to be cash equivalents.

The Company maintains account balances with financial institutions in excess of federally insured limits.

Receivables from Brokers

Receivables from brokers are uncollateralized commission and fee obligations due under normal trade terms. The carrying amount of broker receivables may be reduced by an allowance reflecting management's best estimate of the amounts that will not be collected. Management individually reviews all broker receivable balances, and based on an assessment of current credit worthiness, estimates the portion, if any, of the balance that will not be collected. All accounts or portions thereof determined to be uncollectible are written off to the allowance for doubtful accounts. Management believes the accounts are fully collectible and are stated at net realizable value, therefore, no allowance for doubtful accounts is recorded at December 31, 2022.

Use of Estimates in the Preparation of the Statement of Financial Condition

U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the statement of financial condition and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes

The Company is a single member limited liability company that is not subject to income taxes as it is a disregarded entity for income tax purposes. The Parent is a wholly-owned subsidiary of AFI and is included in the consolidated tax return. AFI is responsible for the payment of income taxes and does not allocate income taxes to the Company.

2. Related Party Transactions

Administrative Services Agreement

The Company receives management and administrative services from its Parent under the terms of an Administrative Services Agreement. Services include the use of office facilities, equipment, marketing, technology, and other services. The Parent also charges an amount equivalent to $0.25 per trade for the use of Parent owned and developed technology assets.

Additionally, throughout the year, AFI processes payments to vendors on behalf of the Company for most services used including but not limited to payroll and vendor invoices

Receivables from and payables due to affiliates

Receivables from affiliates consist of amounts advanced and reimbursable costs paid on behalf of affiliated companies. Payables due to affiliates consist of amounts paid by affiliates for reimbursable costs on behalf of the Company. Amounts due from/to affiliates are unsecured, non-interest bearing and due on demand. The Company's receivable and payable balances with its affiliates are shown in the following table.

December 31, 2022	Receivables	Payables
Ally Invest Advisor Inc.	$ —	$ 51,685
Ally Invest Forex LLC	3,241	—
Ally Invest Group Inc.	—	962,517
Ally Financial Inc.	—	1,884,289
Total	$ 3,241	$ 2,898,491

Parent Contributions

The Parent contributed permanent members equity of $33,500,000 during 2022. The cash was deposited into the Company throughout the year ended December 2022. The Parent will continue to infuse capital, as needed, for the foreseeable future.

3. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule ("SEC Rule 15c3-1"), which requires that the Company maintain adequate net capital and certain ratios, including aggregate indebtedness to net capital.

The Company is required to maintain minimum net capital equivalent to the greater of $250,000 or 6 2/3% of aggregate indebtedness and requires the percentage of aggregate indebtedness to not exceed net capital by 1500%. At December 31, 2022, the Company had net capital of $15,290,764 as defined, which was $15,040,764 in excess of its required minimum net capital of $250,000. The Company's aggregate indebtedness as of December 31, 2022, equals 22% of its net capital.

4. Risk Concentration

Securities Clearing and Custody

The Company operates as an introducing broker-dealer and as such all its client accounts are held at its clearing brokerage firm. The clearing and depository operations for the Company's securities transactions are provided by Apex Clearing Corporation ("Apex"), whose principal office is in Dallas, Texas. The Company's clearing deposit requirement is $1,300,000.

5. Commitments and Contingencies

Legal

During the normal course of operations, the Company, the Parent and its affiliates, from time to time, are or may be involved in lawsuits, arbitration, claims, and other legal proceedings. The Company does not believe that these matters will have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations, or cash flows.

General Contingencies

In the ordinary course of business, there are various contingencies that are not reflected in the statement of financial condition. Such contingencies have not been accrued for because they are not probable to occur and any associated amounts cannot be reasonably estimated.

Under the terms of the Company's securities clearing agreement with Apex, the Company introduces its clients' securities accounts to Apex, who, as the clearing broker, clears and maintains all client account activity. The Company is responsible for obtaining from each client such funds or securities as required to be deposited or maintained in their accounts. As a result, the Company is liable for any loss, liability, damage, cost, or expense incurred or sustained by Apex as a result of the failure of any client to timely make payments or deposits of securities to satisfy their contractual obligations.

Notes to Statement of Financial Condition

Ally Invest Securities LLC

Client securities activities are transacted on either a cash- or margin-basis. In margin transactions, the Company may extend credit to the client, through its clearing broker, subject to various regulatory and margin lending practices, collateralized by cash and securities in the client's account. In connection with these activities, the Company also executes client transactions involving the sale of securities not yet purchased, known as "short sales." Such transactions may expose the Company to credit risk in the event the client's assets are not sufficient to fully cover losses, which the client may incur. In the event the client fails to satisfy its obligations, the Company will purchase or sell financial instruments in the client's account in order to fulfill the client's obligations. The Company seeks to control the risks associated with its client activities by requiring clients to maintain margin collateral in compliance with various regulatory guidelines. Compliance with these guidelines is monitored, and pursuant to such guidelines, clients may be required to deposit additional collateral, or reduce positions, when necessary. The maximum potential exposure under these arrangements is difficult to estimate; however, the potential for the Company to incur material losses pursuant to these arrangements is remote.

6. Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated subsequent events through February 28, 2023, the date the statement of financial condition was available to be issued.

In January and February of 2023, the Company paid dividends to the Parent totaling $1,500,000.
