1. Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Business

Cross Point Capital, LLC (the "Company") is a broker-dealer and is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and the State Securities Commission of New Jersey. It is also a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"). The Company is a Delaware limited liability company and has operating locations in New Jersey, North Carolina, and Texas.

The Company assists in brokerage of private placements of securities and assists as a structuring and placement advisor in the securitization of pools of structured and/or asset or collateralization-based finance vehicles. The Company engages in riskless principal transactions. A riskless principal transaction is a transaction in which the Company receives an order to buy a security from a customer contemporaneously with an order to sell a security with a different customer. All terms and pricing of the riskless principal transactions are agreed to by all parties prior to the order being executed. The Company also provides full service financial consulting in various areas including auction rate broker dealer services and secondary market trading, and structuring or restructuring services. In addition, the Company serves as a middle market broker dealer who conducts municipal securities trading and sales.

Accounting Basis

The financial statements of the Company have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, which require the use of estimates by management.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue from riskless principal transactions is calculated as a percentage of the gross proceeds. Revenue from these transactions is recognized on a trade-date basis. Consulting income is earned when the services are performed. Fee income from municipal security transactions is earned when the trades are executed. The Company recognizes revenue on service contracts ratably over applicable contract periods or as services are performed. Amounts billed and collected before services are performed are included in deferred revenue.

Due from Clearing Firm

The Company clears all of its brokerage transactions through a broker-dealer on a fully disclosed basis. Due from clearing firm amount relates to the aforementioned transactions. The Company monitors the credit standing of the clearing organization as deemed necessary. Amounts due from clearing firm are considered fully collectible by management.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable represents amounts due from consulting income and management fee income earned prior to the year end. The Company considers accounts receivable to be substantially all collectible. Accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts is required at December 31, 2015.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes

The Company is a limited liability company. Therefore, the income or loss is passed through to the members and no provision or liability for federal and state income taxes has been included in the financial statements for the Company. Each member is individually responsible for reporting income or loss, to the extent required by federal and state income tax laws and regulations, based upon its respective share of the company's income and expense as reported for income tax purposes.

The Company has adopted the application of "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes". The
