NOTE 1. ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Description of Business and Organization

Credicorp Capital, LLC (the Company), is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and is a registered broker dealer. The Company primarily acts in a principal capacity, buying and selling securities on a riskless basis with customers and other dealers within Latin America, principally Colombia. The Company is also authorized to buy and sell equities, mutual funds, corporate debt, and U.S. Government debt, for its customers, and charge a commission.

The Company is a Florida Limited Liability Company and wholly owned subsidiary of Credicorp Capital US (the Parent). The Parent is a wholly owned subsidiary of Credicorp Capital Ltd. an entity registered in Bermuda. Credicorp Capital Ltd. is a wholly owned subsidiary of Credicorp Ltd. (the Ultimate Parent), a New York Stock Exchange listed Peruvian financial services company.

Government and Other Regulation

The Company's business is subject to significant regulation by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and FINRA. Such regulation includes, among other things, periodic examinations by these regulatory bodies to determine whether the Company is conducting and reporting its operations in accordance with the applicable requirements of these organizations.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments having maturities of three months or less at the date of acquisition to be cash equivalents. The Company may, during the ordinary course of business, maintain account balances in excess of federally insured limits which approximated $438,000 at December 31, 2023. The Company does not expect any risk of loss relating to these deposits.

Restricted Cash

Restricted cash is subject to legal or contractual restriction by third parties as well as a restriction as to withdrawal or use, including restrictions that require the funds to be used for a specific purpose and restrictions that limit the purpose for which the funds can be used. The Company considers the cash held on deposit by its clearing broker to be restricted cash.

Receivables

The Company's receivables from its clearing broker includes amounts receivable from unsettled trades, including amounts related to accrued interest receivables and cash deposits. The Company's trades are cleared through its clearing broker and settled daily between the clearing broker and the Company. Because of this daily settlement, the amount of unsettled credit exposure is limited to the amount owed the Company for a very short period of time. The Company continually reviews the credit quality of its counterparties.

NOTE 1. ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Due from Affiliates

Amounts due from affiliates consist primarily of trade receivables due under normal trade terms. The carrying amount may be reduced by an allowance that reflects management's best estimate of the amounts that will not be collected. As management believes that the amounts are fully collectible and are therefore stated at net realizable value, management has not recorded an allowance for doubtful accounts.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is recorded at cost. Expenditures for major betterments and additions are charged to the asset accounts while replacements, maintenance and repairs which do not improve or extend the lives of the respective assets are charged to expense currently.

Depreciation and Amortization

Depreciation of property and equipment is computed using the straight-line method at various rates based upon the estimated useful lives of the assets. The range of estimated useful lives is summarized as follows:

| | |
|------------------------|--|
| Furniture and fixtures | 7 years |
| Leasehold improvements | Lesser of useful life or term of lease |
| Office equipment | 2 – 5 years |

Leases

Under ASC 842 – Leases, the Company records a right-of-use asset and related lease liability on the statement of financial condition. Such amounts are based on the net present value of future lease obligations, using an incremental borrowing rate to determine the Company's effective cost of capital (see Note 6).

Defined Contribution Plan

The Company maintains a 401(k) plan covering substantially all employees, with the Company matching up to 6% of employee payroll deferrals.

Income Taxes

The Company is a disregarded entity for federal income tax purposes. Instead, its taxable income or loss is reflected on the Parent's income tax return and therefore, there is no provision for income taxes included in the accompanying financial statement, as the Parent does not allocate income taxes to the Company.

The Company assesses its tax positions in accordance with "Accounting for Uncertainties in Income Taxes" as prescribed by the Accounting Standards Codification, which provides guidance for financial statement recognition and measurement of uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return for open tax years (generally a period of three years from the later of each return's due date or the date filed) that remain subject to examination by the Company's major tax jurisdictions.

The Company assesses its tax positions and determines whether it has any material unrecognized liabilities for uncertain tax positions. The Company records these liabilities to the extent it deems them more likely than not to be incurred. Interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions, if any, would be classified as a component of income tax expense.

NOTE 1. ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Company believes that it does not have any significant uncertain tax positions requiring recognition or measurement in the accompanying financial statement.

Use of Estimates in the Preparation of the Financial Statement

The preparation of financial statement in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statement. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

FASB ASC 820, Fair Value Measurement, establishes a framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under FASB ASC 820 are described as follows:

Level 1- Valuations for assets and liabilities traded in active exchange markets, or interest in open-end mutual funds that allow a company to sell its ownership interest back at net asset value (“NAV”) on a daily basis. Valuations are obtained from readily available pricing sources for market transactions involving identical assets, liabilities or funds.

Level 2- Valuations for assets and liabilities traded in less active dealer, or broker markets, such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities or quoted prices in markets that are not active. Level 2 includes U.S. Treasury, U.S. government and agency debt securities, and mortgage-backed securities. Valuations are usually obtained from third party pricing services for identical or comparable assets or liabilities.

Level 3- Valuations for assets and liabilities that are derived from other valuation methodologies, such as option pricing models, discounted cash flow models and similar techniques, and not based on market exchange, dealer, or broker traded transactions. Level 3 valuations incorporate certain assumptions and projections in determining the fair value assigned to such assets or liabilities.

The availability of observable inputs can vary from instrument to instrument and in certain cases, the inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, an instrument’s level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The Company’s assessment of the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement of an instrument requires judgement and consideration of factors specific to the instrument.

The following describes the valuation methodologies the Company uses to measure different financial instruments at fair value, including an indication of the level in the fair value hierarchy in which each instrument is generally classified. U.S Treasuries are valued based on quoted market prices. All U.S. Treasuries trade in active markets and are classified within Level 2.

NOTE 2. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

As a registered broker-dealer, the Company is subject to the Uniform Net Capital Rule of the Securities and Exchange Commission, which requires that "Net Capital", as defined, shall be at least the greater of $250,000 or 6-2/3% of "Aggregate Indebtedness", as defined. At December 31, 2023, the Company's "Net Capital" was $3,932,738 which exceeded requirements by $3,682,738. The ratio of "Aggregate Indebtedness" to "Net Capital" was 0.63 to 1 at December 31, 2023.

NOTE 3. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

The following table sets forth by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the Company's securities owned at fair value on a recurring basis as of December 31, 2023:

| | Level 1 | Level 2 | Level 3 | Total |
|-----------------|---------|------------|---------|------------|
| U.S. Treasuries | $ - | $ 989,530 | $ - | $ 989,530 |

NOTE 4. RISK CONCENTRATIONS

Clearing and Depository Concentrations

The clearing and depository operations for the Company's securities transactions are provided by a brokerage firm located in Jersey City, New Jersey and a brokerage firm in Babcock Ranch, Florida. At December 31, 2023, deposit at clearing brokers, the receivable from clearing broker and $3,828,564 of cash and cash equivalents are held by and due from these brokerage firms.

Other Risk Concentrations

In the normal course of business, the Company's customer activities involve the execution, settlement, and financing of various customer securities transactions. These activities may expose the Company to off-balance sheet risk in the event the customer or other broker is unable to fulfill its contracted obligations and the Company has to purchase or sell the financial instrument underlying the contract at a loss. The Company's customer securities activities are transacted on either a cash or margin basis. In margin transactions, the Company's clearing brokers extend credit to its customers, subject to various regulatory and internal margin requirements, collateralized by cash and the securities in the customers' accounts. In connection with these activities, the Company executes customer transactions involving the sale of securities not yet purchased, substantially all of which are transacted on a margin basis subject to individual exchange regulations. Such transactions may expose the Company to significant off-balance-sheet risk in the event margin requirements are not sufficient to fully cover losses that customers may incur. In the event the customer fails to satisfy its obligations, the Company may be required to purchase or sell which are transacted on a margin basis subject to individual exchange regulations. Such transactions may expose the Company to significant off-balance-sheet risk in the event margin requirements are not sufficient to fully cover losses that customers may incur. In the event the customer fails to satisfy its obligations, the Company may be required to purchase or sell financial instruments at prevailing market prices to fulfill customer's obligations. The Company seeks to control the risks associated with its customer activities by requiring customers to maintain margin collateral in compliance with various regulatory and internal guidelines. The Company monitors required margin levels daily and pursuant to such guidelines, requires customers to deposit additional collateral or to reduce positions when necessary.

NOTE 5. PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment at December 31, 2023 consisted of the following:

The average discount rate used to calculate the present value of future minimum lease payments was 6.50%. As of December 31, 2023 the ROU asset was $1,485,512 and the lease liability was $2,171,730.

The Company is obligated under a non-cancelable operating lease for its office facility in Miami, Florida, expiring in 2030. The Company has a security deposit held by the landlord in the amount of approximately $120,000. This amount is included in other assets in the accompanying statement of financial condition.

The approximate minimum annual lease payments required under the Company's operating lease liability together with their present value as of December 31, 2023 are as follows:

| | | |
|--|----|-------------------|
| 2024 | $ | 372,000 |
