Amendment Filed: November 29, 2006

Dear Mr. Johnston:

We have reviewed your amended filing and have the following comments. Where indicated, we think you should revise your document in response to these comments. If you disagree, we will consider your explanation as to why our comment is inapplicable or a revision is unnecessary. Please be as detailed as necessary in your explanation. In some of our comments, we may ask you to provide us with supplemental information so we may better understand your disclosure. After reviewing this information, we may or may not raise additional comments.

Please understand that the purpose of our review process is to assist you in your compliance with the applicable disclosure requirements and to enhance the overall disclosure in your filing. 3. Discuss in greater detail the phased nature of the exploration process. Provide greater discussion of the activities to be undertaken in phase two. Discuss in greater detail the mechanical trenching and the drilling to be conducted in phase two. Explain the purpose of the trenching and drilling to be conducted in phase two.
4. We note your response to prior comment eight from our letter dated October 20, 2006. We note the revised disclosure indicating that the company believes it has sufficient funds from its current cash balance and from loans from its director sufficient to fund operations for the next twelve months. In light of the monthly payment for office space, the amount due to a related party, and the fact that your officer is not obligated to provide such funding, please explain the statement.

However, as stated in our prior comments, please direct your auditor to revise the opinion (third) paragraph of the report to address the cumulative period from May 13, 2005 (inception) to June 30, 2006.

6. Please provide a current consent in any amendment.
