REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Member of
OmniCap, LLC

Opinion on the Financial Statement

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of OmniCap, LLC (the "Company") as of December 31, 2019, and the related notes (collectively referred to as the "financial statement"). In our opinion, the statement of financial condition presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2019 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statement based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

OmniCap, LLC

Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2019

1. Organization

OmniCap, LLC (the "Company"), is registered as a broker-dealer under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA").

The Company's main activity is to raise capital for various types of businesses and to source liquidity for a range of asset pools or fund interests. In addition, from time-to-time, the Company may work with fund managers to support asset gathering of new fund initiatives. All of these exclusively involve private placement business. This business is conducted with institutions where the Company acts as a fee-based intermediary.

The Company does not hold customers' cash or securities; therefore, it is not affected by SEC Rule 15c3-3.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

The Company follows generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") established by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (the "FASB") to ensure consistent reporting of financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Revenue

The Company earns revenue by way of fees for advisory service and private placement fees. Revenues from services provided are recognized at the time there is persuasive evidence that the Company's performance obligations have been substantially completed pursuant to the terms of an engagement letter, the fee is determinable and collection of the related receivable is reasonably assured. Expenses directly associated with such transactions are deferred until the related revenue is recognized or the engagement is otherwise concluded.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions in determining the reported amounts of assets, liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of income and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes

The Company is a single member limited liability company. For tax purposes it is considered a disregarded entity and it does not file a tax return.

In accordance with GAAP, management is required to determine whether a tax position of the Company is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, including resolution of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefit to be recognized is measured as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement. De-recognition of a tax benefit previously recognized could result in the Company recording a tax liability that would reduce net assets. As of December 31, 2019, management has determined that there were no uncertain tax positions.

2. Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Subordinated Liabilities

Commissions are payable to the salesperson only when the related receivables are collected. In addition, any liabilities to salespersons in this regard are subordinated to the claims of general creditors yet they are not considered part of regulatory capital. At December 31, 2019, the Company owed $75,168 of subordinated liabilities to a salesperson.

Contract Assets and Contract Liabilities

The Company had contract assets in the amount of $146,668 at December 31, 2019. It had no contract liabilities at December 31, 2019.

3. Net Capital Requirements

As a registered broker-dealer and member of FINRA, the Company is subject to Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities and Exchange Commission, which requires the Company to maintain minimum net capital, as defined, the greater of 6-2/3% of aggregate indebtedness, as defined, or $5,000. Net capital and aggregate indebtedness change from day to day, but as of December 31, 2019, the Company had net capital of $9,153 that exceeded its requirement of $5,000 by $4,153.

4. Related Party Transactions

The managing member entered into an arrangement that provides office space and administrative services to the Company at no cost, as well as payment of expenses in total of approximately $14,584 on behalf of the Company without seeking reimbursement, pursuant to a service agreement.

5. Indemnifications

In the normal course of business, the Company enters into contracts that contain a variety of representations and warranties that provide indemnifications under certain circumstances. The Company's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown, as this would involve future claims that could be made against the Company that have not yet occurred. The Company expects risk of loss to be remote.

6. Concentrations

Two customers generated approximately 95% of the revenues for the year 2019.

The Company's cash is held at one financial institution and is fully insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.
